(BURKHARD) BURGARD CASTLE, LA PETITE PIERRE (ALSACE)

20 Nov. 1970

Here is now the latest report pertaining to Burgard vs Burkhard. As per letter from my Aunt Mrs. Anni Wigand-Burgard of Berchtesgaden — Stanggass-Rosspoint 5-West Germany.

The following explanation-translation;

At one time, and this goes 800 years back, the name Burgard was Burkhard. Burkhard and Burgard have the same Coat of Arms. In the castle "La Petite Pierre" my Aunt has seen 3 Coat of Arms identical with ours. She also has seen in a nearby restaurant the same Coat of Arms but the name was spelled Burgard.

She received the Coat of Arms thru her Great-cousin a Mrs. Gertrude Ulmschneider whose husband works at the University of Saarbrucken as some kind of a doctor. She is the daughter of an Artur Burgard a cousin of my grandfather Heinrich B. Burgard. My Aunt mentions a chronicle inside the castle she was allowed to look into. According to it, several families of the "Burgarden" lived in the castle. There was some mentioning of the Archbishop of Strasburg (Fr. Strasbourgh?). Most of the Burgards by the way seem to have been by religion Catholics. I know my father's family was. He gave it up altogether. My Mother was Lutheran and I was baptized in her belief.

With revolutions going over a land several times, with changing nationalities, and even names, it is pretty hard to pin a thing down. But some facts are there, it is up to you to term things in its proper way. At any rate you have my permission to use in your book whatever came from me.

Sincerely yours,
Ernest Burgard

Interpretation

COAT-OF-ARMS OF THE FAMILY BURGARD

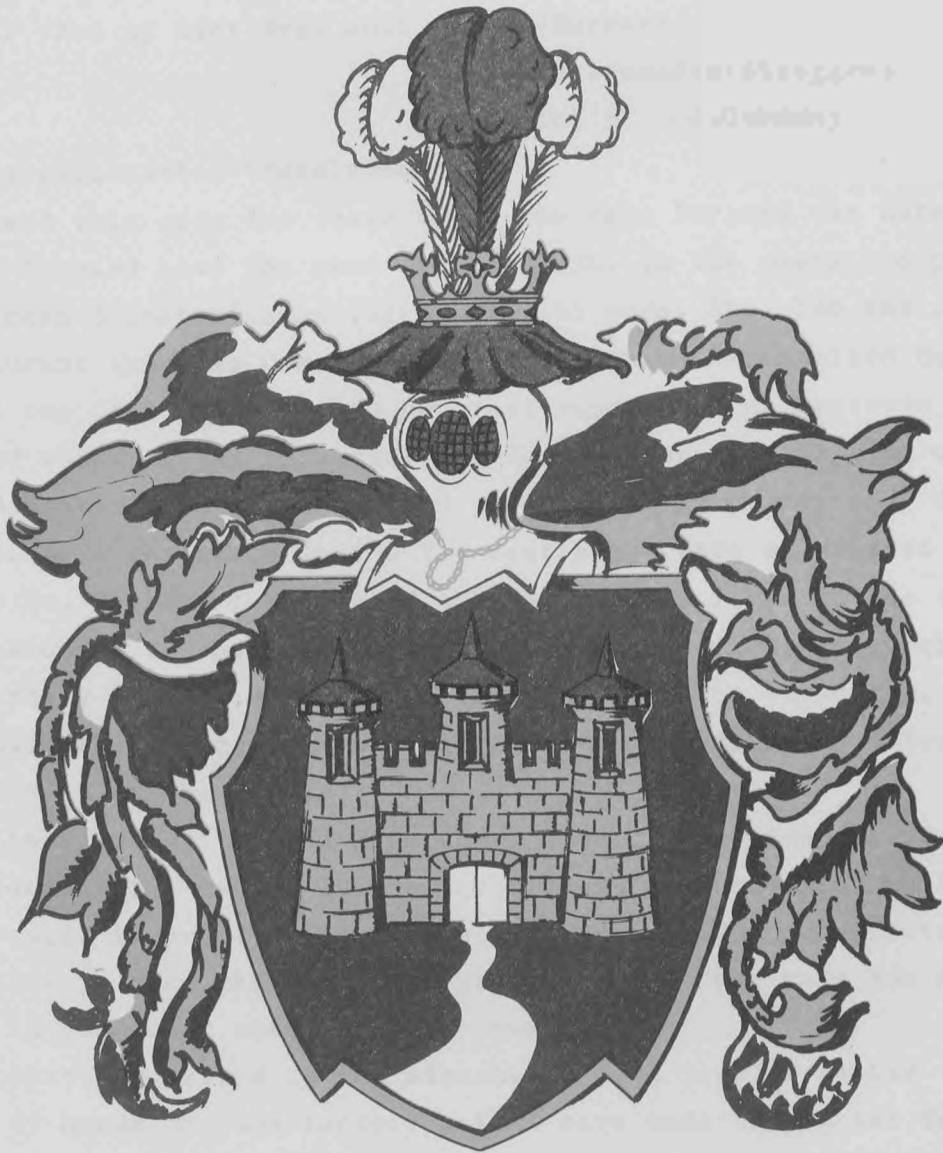

The Burgards, originally from Alsace, are of good and very old lineage and show in the field a feudal castle which signifies the age and name of the family. A crowned helmet, bearing three red (silver) knightly plumes, represents the nobility and rise of the line. This coat-of-arms was conferred upon the family during the reign of Emperor Frederick the Third in the year 1449.

(Lower margin fine print all in one line)

Sole right and obtainable at Max V. Asten, painter of coats-of-arms in Neudstadt A Fr. Jaale, owner of a collection of 36,066 family crests.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Corbridge,

Here is now the latest report pertaining to Burgard vs. Burkhard.

As per letter from my Aunt Mrs. Anni Wigand-Burgard

824 Berchtesgaden-Stanggass

Rosspoint 5 W.Germany

the following explanation-translation:

At one time, and this goes 800 years back, the name Burgard was Burkhard. Burkhard and Burgard have the same Coat of Arms. In the castle "la petite Pierre" my Aunt has seen 3 Coat of Arms identical with ours. She also has seen in a nearby restaurant the same Coat of Arms but the name was spelled Burgard. She received the Coat of Arms thru her graet-cousin a Mrs. Gertrude Ulmschneider whose husband works at the University of Saarbrücken as some kind of a doctor. She is the daughter of a Artur Burgard a cousin of my grandfather Heinrich B. My Aunt mentions a chronicle inside the castle she were allowed to look into. According to it, several families of the "Burgarden" lived in the castle. There was some mentioning of the Archbishop of Straßburg (fr. Strasbourg?). Most of the Burgard by the way seem to have been by religion Catholics. I know my fathers family was. He gave it up altogether. My mother was lutheran and I was baptised in her believe.

Realizing, I have to say: as the saga goes, once upon a time ! With revolutions going over a land several times, with changing nationalities, and even names, it is pretty hard to pin a thing down. But some facts are there, it is up to you to term things in its proper way. At any rate you have my permission to use in your book whatever came from me. Somehow you must have mixed up the addresses I gave you. The letter to Ronald B. wound up in my hands. Through factory mail I have send the letter to Shippensburg. I hope you got a reply.

That's all for today. If you got any questions, don't hesitate.

Sincerely Yours

Ernest Burgard

WHAT IS TIME?

THE SHADOW ON THE DIAL,

THE STRIKING OF THE CLOCK,

THE RUNNING OF THE SAND,

DAY AND NIGHT,

SUMMER AND WINTER,

MONTHS, YEARS, CENTURIES —

THESE ARE BUT THE ARBITRARY AND OUTWARD SIGNS —

THE MEASURE OF TIME, NOT TIME ITSELF.

TIME IS THE LIFE OF THE SOUL.

HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW

“A FRONTIER IS NEVER A PLACE,
IT IS A TIME AND A WAY OF LIFE. FRONTIERS
PASS, BUT THEY ENDURE IN THEIR PEOPLE. THE MEMORIES SHOULD ENDURE, UNLESS WE KNOW WHERE WE CAME FROM, SOMETHING ABOUT THE ROAD WE TRAVELED AS A PEOPLE, HOW CAN WE KNOW WHO WE ARE AND WHERE WE’RE GOING?”

INTRODUCTION

In the period of unrest so prevalent in the 1960's, when rebellion, insecurity and even waning patriotism played such a major roll, there seemed one avenue of approach I MUST take and that was to prove my eligible lineage to become a "Daughter of the American Revolution" (D.A.R.) and help renew an appreciation of our Heritage.

This goal was systematically and successfully reached, carrying on through to complete membership of our children and grandchildren.

During the research, which was most easily reached through my Maternal Grandmother's line of "Mendenhall," I became more and more aware of how little I knew of my Father's early years and his lineage.

While I was still involved in my original research, my husband, who had worked diligently on the Corbridge line (and is most detailed in his efforts) consented to start research on the Burgard line, for I could go no farther back than my Great Grandfather, John Burgard, born in York County, Pennsylvania, who married Susanna Hollinger. We have been assured that his brother Samuel, married Susanna's sister Lucy Hollinger.

Throughout many years of research, reams of correspondence and an abundant support of our Postal Department, we have accumulated nearly one thousand family sheets and many branches of Burgards dating back into Alsace-Lorraine. An amazing and interesting post binder of information on these lines is now on file, but sadly enough there is no proof material to link John and Samuel with these other lines which are all inter-linked, for the parents of John and Samuel are not known to us, even after such diligent search.

Therefore, we open this genealogical review with that particular generation, the fourth back from my own and carry forward on these two lines.

Because the Great Grandmothers were Hollingers and the records date back to the 1400's, the Hollinger section will be included separately, beyond the Susanna and Lucy generation, a complete index will include each person, recording their alphabetized or numerical listing and page number, in order to assist the reader.

My deep appreciation is expressed to my husband O. D. Corbridge for his untiring efforts in this research and the hours of time given to the endless detail needed to prepare the records we have.

Together, we acknowledge with gratitude, the co-operation received from the many persons who have filled forms, sent information and in any way provided assistance in this extensive effort.

Particularly would we express appreciation to Mr. & Mrs. Henry Block for their help, encouragement and guidance.

To Mary Burgard Baum, for her help in so many ways and for the quantity of dates and detail provided. To Mrs. Bernard Ross whose records helped us follow the Hollinger line to such an extensive degree.

To Mrs. Helen M. Fisher (Nellie)
To Frank S. Burgard
To Pius Orvis Burgard (Pike)
To Herschel Edward Burgard
To Bernice O'Bannon

To Mrs. Leona Frank Stambaugh
To Chaplain Jay G. Myers
To Joyce Hamilton Kileen
To Jane Burgard Lapey
To Ernest Burgard

To Peter William Hunter Burgard

To Lloyd L. Hollinger Ph. G.

To the Libraries, including the Mormon Library of Salt Lake City, The Historical Library of Madison, Wisconsin and the Illinois Historical Library and Archives Department at Springfield, our Illinois Capitol.

Always, such research brings interest, frustration and gratification, but most of all, are the priceless contacts and associations one experiences in meeting so many people, who are interested, helpful and oft times proven to be newly found relatives who will be near and dear to us for all of TIME.

We offer our efforts in deep humility and also with great pride, asking lenience of any mistakes which may be made through so many transfers of information.

Any further information would be gratefully received and added to our personal file, which has grown to vast proportions.

This further notation might be of interest to the reader, for most of the records show the Burgards to be of The Church of The Brethren and of Pennsylvania Dutch background. Frequently this is thought to eventually affiliate with the Holland Dutch, but information proves them to be of German descent, the name meaning "Guard of the Burrough" (or city).

The Alsace-Lorraine area being frequently under alternating rule of Germany, France, Germany and again France etc., thus we find the names varying through many spellings, even to Beaugard, and the religious faith often becoming Catholic.

Each line traced has brought new and fascinating information and we feel the need to go on and on and on —

Accept our thanks for your interest and help and once more I would pay tribute to the methodical and detailed efforts of my husband.

Sincerely,

Sarah Elizabeth Burgard Corbridge

Michael Burgard - Leah Burgard and Helen (Nellie Cotton Burgard) Fisher 9 yr. old.

Interesting items about the Burgard family by Mrs. Helen (Nellie) M. Fisher of 220 Arch Street, Leavenworth, Kansas. Sept. 14, 1967.

When Michael and Leah Burgard went to Nebraska 1869 they took a government claim (never proved on it) near what is Beatrice, Nebraska. A railroad was being built through that area at the time. Michael worked on the railroad and Leah cooked the meals for the hands. She wanted to stay on the claim but Michael was homesick and back to Illinois to the coal mines. Leah had more staying qualities than her husband. He could not take the desolate dry country.

In the year 1950 when we went to visit our son Stephen and family at Freeburg, Illinois (He was at Scott Field, Bellville, Illinois.) There was a country store in Freeburg operated by a Burgard family. They catered to the coal miners in that locality. (If I ever see you will tell you the rest of the story) Never had a chance to visit the store.

Picture on page three was taken in 1899 when the Michael Burgards lived on a farm located in Crystal Plains, Smith County, Kansas. That day, journeyed to Down, Kansas, which was about 18 miles their farm. They took a load of wheat to the mill located on the Solomon River. They exchanged it for their years supply of flour, bran and shorts. I sat on the sacks of wheat in the bed of the lumber wagon. It was an all day journey. I missed school to have my picture taken. They were wonderful kind people. Would suggest if you use the picture that you delete my picture, as there is no blood line tying in with the Burgard family.

A cousin of Leah's name John Hollinger lived in Russell, Kansas in the early 90's. They came about once a year to visit. He was terribly old. Think some of his descendants might be living in Russell at this time.

In the Missouri room of the Public Library in Kansas City, Missouri there is a section "Pennsylvania Archives." You would find different spelling of the name Burgard and Hollinger. I was with a neighbor who was trying to get verified data for her daughter who was trying for D.A.R. There are volumes of Ship Lists. Suppose most any library in large cities might have them. People from all over the U.S.A. go to this library for data. So many of the emmigrants to Penna. from Germany signed ship lists by their mark opposite their names. Will try to find the name of the publisher. At the present time it's misplaced.

The Burgard Sisters, Daisy and Ruth, who live near me are not interested in genealogy. They prefer to spend their time with church and present day problems. Have known them for a long time. They live one block east of me. They go to the Methodist Church. I am a Congregational, or United Church of Christ.

Leah Hollinger Burgard could not read or write. Michael had some schooling early. He was skilled in many ways. Could lay a beautiful stone wall, always plumb and true. His furrows were always straight. When I was old enough to write, they would dictate and I would write for them. Remember writing to Pius Carson Burgard, then there was a man whom they borrowed money to buy their land. He lived in the east. They called him Uncle Billy Scripps.

When Isaac and Hettie Myers (Hester Burgard) went back to Illinois from Kansas, as I remember their children, Caddie, Joseph and Arthur, were with them. Their daughter, Caddie, some years later married Charles Wagner, a brother of Mrs. Elmer Thompson, Portis, Kansas. The Wagner family were neighbors of the Burgards and Myers. Now if I remember the Myers had an older daughter who married a man by the name of Charles Ives who had moved to California (Probably married in Illinois) before the Myers came to Kansas. That is why the Myers family went to California.

Am out of touch of the Burgards descendants of Michael and Leah except for Frank S. Burgard in Kansas City. I gave him data at one time. There was a family Bible with complete records which Homer took. It seems to have been lost along various family looms. The younger generation don't care much about such things. Michael Burgard was buried in Crystal Plains Cemetery, Smith County, Kansas. Leah Hollinger Burgard was buried in cemetery at Portis, Kansas.

Mr. O. D. Corbridge
3003 Greenwood Ave.
Rockford, Illinois 61107

Dear Sir;

I do not have the least idea where you got your information unless it was from Daisy and Ruth Burgard who live at 1023 South Second, Leavenworth, Kansas. I am no relation to the Burgard family. I am the daughter of Frederick L. Cotton and Emma Maxwell Cotton. I was born in Pottawatomie, County, Kansas December 12, 1889.

My name Helen M. Cotton from my Grandmother Cotton and always called Nellie. My parents died when I was 4 years old and through my Aunt Mrs. Walter Olin Supt. of Schools of Osborne, Kansas was placed with Michael and Leah Burgard (Year 1894) who lived in Smith County, Kansas. I stayed with them until 1908 when I returned to my own people. In that time which I lived with them I learned a great deal about their relatives and friends. Am enclosing some newspaper clippings which may help you. Michael Burgard had a Brother Peter who had preceded him in the migration to Kansas. Peter's wife and a child or two were buried in unmarked graves in Crystal Plains Cemetery, Smith County, Kansas near to Leah and Michael Burgard's daughter Mollie and a grandson (Son of Homer Burgard). There was a typhoid epidemic the year 1885 which swept the community. No family was spared. Peter Burgard soon afterwards moved to Warrensburg, Missouri. His children all had Biblical names. I never met any of this family.

Michael Burgard had a Brother Daniel, a tall person dark hair and eyes, who visited often at Michael's house. His wife had died and there were children. Daniel worked in a store (Hummer, Kansas) for a couple of years and finally went back to Illinois.

Michael Burgard had a sister Hettie who married Isaac Myers. He was a Dunkard preacher, they moved to Kansas from Illinois and lived on a farm near Michael, they had several children (Caddie & Joseph) whom I remember. They could not weather the droughts in Kansas, then back to Illinois. After several years in Illinois they went to California. You probably could find data from Mrs. Elmer Thompson, Portis, Kansas, as her Brother married a daughter of Isaac and Hettie Myers.

Michael Burgard had a sister Susie-who married a man by the name of McClellan. A son of theirs spent one winter visiting Michael and Leah Burgard, early 1890's. The McClellands lived in Illinois. Michael and Leah had a cousin Ben Burgard who came to Kansas to live about 1900 from Illinois. His Mother's name was Lucy. Leah Hollinger Burgard lived with her when she migrated with Aunt Lucy from Pennsylvania, to Illinois. Ben Burgard married a Smith County girl. Her name was Zula Kenworthy. They had two sons, Vivian and Virgil. Vivian died young, leaving one child. Virgil lives in Topeka, Kansas. The last I heard he was working for the Santa Fe. I knew the Ben Burgards very well. He told me that Michael and Leah were first cousins. As you can tell from Obituaries Leah was much older than Michael.

Michael and Leah Burgards son John married Maude Fireored (Smith County, Kansas). They had two children. Laura who married Bill Barnes and lives at 5421 Northern Kansas City, Missouri 64133. She had no children and is seriously afflicted with Parkinsons disease. The son Cecil married and died young and left one daughter. Both John and Maud are deceased, buried in Kansas City, Missouri.

Michael and Leah Burgard's son Homer married Jessie Henderson. They are both deceased. They had quite a large family, 4 deceased and Frank and Homer (Bud) Hughie and Dorothy living. Frank Burgard lives at 1929 Kensington, Kansas City, Missouri. 64127. See him quite often and sometime ago I wrote a list of things I remember about the Hollinger and Burgard families.

I am quite interested in Genealogy. I have been working on my family tree. Have verified data 23 generations Cotton back to the 2nd. Crusade and the Dudley line to the year 810 A.D. Belong to the D.A.R. also Daughters of the American Colonies, also Womens Descendants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Mass. It is all very fascinating, go to Kansas City to the library, also to the State Historical Library in Topeka. Have you checked the Penna. Archives for the ancestor who migrated to this country? Am sure I have noticed the name Burgard and Hollinger on the Ship Lists.

I hope I have helped you in some small way. There never were better people than Michael and Leah Burgard. Respectful and respected by everyone. Hard working, frugal. Never an unkind word about anyone. Pioneering in Western Kansas, dust storms, hot winds, 8 miles for groceries by lumber wagon, no telephone, no newspapers. Everybody helped each other. There was no money. Always a prayer for water. Went back after 40 years, found one vacant wheat field. Oil interests had purchased the land. If you ever pass this way would be happy to meet you. While living with the Burgards I went by the name of Nellie. I was never adopted.

Sincerely, (Nellie) Helen M. Fisher

Leah Burgard talked a great deal about Penna. of her childhood of going to the fields to help cradle the grain, cooking in the fireplace, of spinning, of weaving, of knitting stockings, of home spun clothing, of the first cook stove, of the first sewing machine, of the partridges how she could hold 5 of the babies in one hand, of gathering herbs for medicine, of home made dye for some garments. How she worked for .50 cents a week and bought her first calico dress — that they could hear the din of Battle of Gettysburg. How just before the battle the Rebels came through the countryside where they lived and took all the food etc. She and her sister Lizzie made one trip to Penna. about 1890 and spent a month with their relatives. Believe her Mother lived to be 95. It was a long living family.

If I remember anything that might interest you will write again, sometime. My best wishes for you and good luck with your research.

Sincerely, Helen M. Fisher

Mr. & Mrs. O. D. Corbridge

Dear Friends;

Received your letter yesterday asking about the Hollinger and Burgard families. My Grandmother was Elizabeth Hollinger. She was united in marriage to Solomon Gentzler March 2, 1861. She was a sister to Aunt Leah Burgard whom I was always very fond of. Aunt Leah and Uncle Mike I well remember the day Uncle Mike died of a heart attack. I used to visit them often and stayed at their place lots when I was a girl. I loved them both very much. The maiden name of my Great Grandmother was Mary Asper. I have a towel she made from flax and had her name worked onto it, Mary Asper. Their Father's name was Joseph Hollinger. Mary Asper was born in 1811 and died in 1905 being 94 years old when she died. I remember the time very well, Aunt Leah was born August 1, 1839. In 1865 Aunt Leah went to Astoria, Illinois to live with Aunt Lucy and stay there until she married Uncle Mike, who was her first cousin. Lucy Hollinger married Uncle Mike's Father's Brother Samuel. I know Uncle Mike and Aunt Leah were first cousins and had five children, 3 girls and two boys. John & Homer and Mollie and a pair of twins, girls who died. Mollie died after she was married, with typhoid fever. Elizabeth Hollinger Gentzler was my Grandmother. She passed away March 5, 1918 in Portis, Kansas and that was where Aunt Leah and Uncle Mike lived.

My Grandmother Gentzler came from Penna. to Fontenelle, Nebraska in 1868. Grandpa taught school until 1872, then came to Smith County, Kansas. They came by Wagon Train. Then in 1874, Grasshopper year, they returned to Nebraska, and then back to Kansas in 1876 and stayed in Kansas from thereon. I visited a lot with Aunt Leah and Uncle Mike. He died of a heart attack while mowing his yard. Their children are all gone and their grandson passed away not long ago.

Sincerely, Mrs. Maude Burwell R.F.D. 4

Grace Burgard was adopted by her Uncle Dr. and Mrs. Amos Myers. Dr. Myers lived in Creston, Iowa. At death he gave Grace Office Building, home and money. He left Aunt Emma the farm and some money. Later the funds from selling went to Daisy, Ruth and Josephine Burgard. Dr. Amos Myers left a blind brother $50.00 per month income. Dr. Amos Myers' father John Myers started coal mines in Colchester, Illinois area. He had four shafts along the Burlington Railroad spur. Apparently a most successful venture. John Myers was most helpful to those who needed assistance.

1966 — Interesting facts about the Charles Henry Burgard family

Harrison was killed in an airplane accident teaching a man to fly. He was a Mason.

Daisy studied music, but seldom plays now. Taught music, and Sunday School in Methodist Church for 48 years. Member of Rebecca and P.E.O.

Grace was graduated from University of Wisconsin, Madison. Did war work in Denver and New York City. Member P.E.O. and Gamma Phi Beta.

Allan (Grace's Husband) was head of New York Herald Tribune Copy Desk when he died. He attended college at Galesburg, Illinois. Was kicked out of school for editing a College Paper. Times do change. Holcombs are D.A.R. and Masons.

Josephine has a B.A., B.S. and M.A. from Pittsburg, Kansas College. Member of P.E.O., AAUW, Eastern Star and Alpha Gamma Delta.

James (Josephine's husband) attended and taught at Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas. Has an M.A. from Denver University. Honor Law and Accounting Fraternities. Professor and later Registrat at Pittsburg College, Pittsburg, Kansas for over 25 years.

Ruth. Attended University of Denver with an M.A. from Columbia University, New York City. Member of P.E.O., Gamma Phi Beta and AAUW. She has met people who knew Burgards in Washington, also in Western New York. (This family was of considerable financial means). One Burgard from Penna. was in her graduating class at Columbia.

Memorials Presented By Members

Basically, the building program at the First United Methodist Church is financed by the sacrificial pledges of members and friends of all ages and walks of life.

Beyond pledges, a number of constituents have asked for special items in the building program as memorials to loved ones and friends, as special gifts, and as anonymous donations. An encased memorial book, listing names and items given will be on display at the entrance to the new sanctuary at all times.

The Memorial and Special Gifts program was started Memorial Day, and will extend over the coming year.

Daisy and Ruth Burgard, for Charles H. and Emma Myers Burgard, parents, and Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Myers, the communion rail; Daisy and Ruth Burgard, for pioneers, workers and leaders of the congregation, guest registry cabinet; Daisy and Ruth Burgard, for Dr. M. M. Culpepper, Chapel organ screen and communion table.

In attempting to write a biographical sketch I realize how little is known of Father's childhood. Having been born in Leesburg, a small farming community near Astoria, the family later must have moved to the area of Colchester, Illinois in McDonough County, since younger members of the family were born in that area, and the Father Jacob Burgard was elected to the ministry of the Brethren Church, altho apparently also a farmer. Later the home was established in Astoria, presumably after Jacob's death when my Father was nine years old. He continued school into his later years at Eureka College in preparation for the Ministry in the Christian Church. It became necessary for him to leave school to help provide for his Mother so he never accepted a ministerial charge other than interim pastor or lay leadership, but became a versatile and resourceful person in varied fields of threshing, Saw Mill operation, Blacksmith, the first Ford dealer in our community of Vermont, Illinois, later following many lines of salesmanship. In 1900 he and (Mother) "Anna" were married after keeping company some 15 years. Her youth had been one of sadness, having lost her Mother when 11 years of age, but the quiet dignity of the Quaker back ground prevailed to make her a gracious and conscientious wife and Mother thru years of trial and poverty quite prevalent to so many of our forebears. Beside her activities in the Church she was initiated into Chapter C P. E. O. in 1915.

After my birth in 1902 and my Brother Joe in 1907 we remained a family of 4 with moves to Rushville, (1918) Beardstown and Rockford in 1919. Here Father helped in the early promotion of Willwood and Arlington Cemeteries, participated actively in lay leadership of the Central Christian Church, forming of Lincoln Park Christian Church, preaching at 2nd Christian Church (Colored) and the Beloit Christian Church. During these later years he was ordained to the ministry of the Christian Church that he might be qualified to perform the marriage service for the daughter of his very close friend Mr. M. I. Payne.

After finishing Rockford High School Joe went West eventually to work in San Francisco, then to Los Angeles where he married Bernice Tait a former Rockford girl. He worked for Lockheed Aviation Company and then until retirement in 1969 with Bendix Aviation.

I also finished old Central High School in Rockford in 1921 then married in 1922. During depression years my parents lost their home, then in early 1930's an accident enroute to preach in Beloit incapacitated both parents for a year, Mother spending that time with her sisters in Ipava while Father made his home with us until such time they could re-establish their own home once more in Vermont, Illinois. During those retirement years he gave of himself in service to the Vermont, Bader and Browning Churches. In 1943 he died suddenly of a coronary thrombosis at the age of 79 years. Mother lived on to the age of more than 96 years. Some of that time in her own home, then an apartment in Rockford. Later she returned to her girlhood home to live with the one remaining sister for a time, then about three years in our home until it became necessary for her to be cared for in a Nursing Home. After a month in coma, she was taken by heart failure in 1965.

I would pay loving tribute to parents of high standards. Honesty and courtesy, strictness and companionship prevailed in our home. Hardships were met with courage, the joy of simple living was encouraged and a love of nature was ever present only to be enhanced as the years have fled by.

FIND COUPLE DEAD IN RAYTOWN HOME

Police Say William C. Barnes, 67, and Wife, 69, Suffered Monoxide Poisoning

The bodies of an elderly Raytown couple were found in their beds about 5 o'clock yesterday at the home at 5421 Northern street. They apparently died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

William C. Barnes, 67 years old, and his wife, Mrs. Louva L. Barnes, 69, were found by Clarence N. Hartshorn, 64, of 5424 Appleton street, a neighbor.

Police Continue Investigation

Raytown police refused to release any details on the incident last night, claiming the investigation was not complete. Hartshorn said Barnes was found in the northeast bedroom of the frame home and Mrs. Barnes was found in the southeast bedroom. Both were wearing night clothes.

"This reporting officer entered the house through the door into the kitchen and at once noticed what smelled to be a heavy concentration of car exhaust fumes." Patrolman G. F. Mullins said in a police report.

A motor car with the ignition turned on was found in the basement garage. The engine was not running but the gasoline tank gauge registered empty, Mullins said.

James W. Menaugh, Jackson County sheriff's deputy and investigator for the coroner's office, said the door to the basement garage had been left open and the rest of the house was closed.

"It (the gas fumes) was so bad we couldn't stay in the house even with the doors and windows open," Menaugh said.

Hartshorn said he smelled nothing unusual when he entered the house.

Wife an Invalid

Mrs. Barnes suffered from Parkinson's disease and had been an invalid about seven years, Hartshorn said.

Marion Beeler, police chief, said no official ruling could be made on the deaths without confirmation from the coroner's office. He said a meeting was set for this morning.

The couple had been dead from four to six hours when they were found. Menaugh said. He said it would have taken considerable time for the basement and house to fill with carbon monoxide fumes.

Services for the couple will be held at 3 o'clock Thursday at the Floral Hills chapel burial in Floral Hills Memorial Gardens cemetery. They had lived in the Raytown area 15 years.

He was born in Newton County, Missouri. Mrs. Barnes was born in Smith County, Kansas. He was a retired machinist for the Witte Engine corp.

Los Angeles, California, January 7, 1969. Of course I remember Elizabeth and Russell and their parents very well. We were all members of the Vermont Christian Church and my father was an Elder for many years before his death. My older sister, Arah, was Supt. of the Sunday School for many years before she was stricken with a stroke and passed to her reward in 1963. Had been an invalid for 11 years. I still have my younger sister, Helen, and my Brother Ghlee, I'm sure Elizabeth will remember us. I didn't know her father Joseph Burgard was related to Ralph's Mother. A lovely Mother!

No our daughter has not married, as yet, but she enjoys her single bliss, loves to travel. Has been to Europe and planning another trip there, this year. She has a Master's Degree in Library Science also a Master's and a PhD in European History from UCLA. She specialized in European History and Political Science. So naturally we are very proud of her, being our only one. Do you folks have children? Where is Russell? He was quite small as I remember him and of course I am a few years older than Elizabeth.

Helen's only daughter and my only niece, Charlotte (Price) Wright, went to be with her Lord November 25, 1968. She went very suddenly from heart attack. Our holidays were very sad. She and her family lived in San Jose, California and we were very close so will miss her much. She left her husband, one son
 (25) and married and one daughter at home (21) and in State College. Trust your book will be just as you planned. Yours truly, Ruth L. (Mrs. Ralph C.) Wherley.

EARLY HISTORY OF JOHN HENRY BURGARD FAMILY
 By Pius Orvis Burgard 112

I was known as "The crippled boy". Born July 11, 1906, with flat feet, bowed legs and crippled ankles. The Doctor said I was "Double jointed". My Mother later said she thought that applied to my tongue for I was also "tongue tied" and the Doctor cut the cord which tied my tongue and, according to my mother, "he cut it loose at both ends" for I was a compulsive talker.

I was preceded in the family by two boys and four girls and when the next boy came along, twenty-two months later, I was still unable to walk. When I did finally start it was to walk on my outside ankles. Thanks to a patient and loving mother and other members of the family with their care and massaging when braces borrowed from a neighbor were too painful to wear, I had some of my trouble corrected and walking has always been one of my favorite exercises. My ankles are still crooked, my feet are still flat and my legs have the familiar "Burgard bow".

When John Henry Burgard married Nettie Isabelle Engle he was a very young, very strong and healthy man of 19 years and liked to demonstrate his strength by lifting the back end of the old threshing machine. During their early married life he invested in a Blacksmith shop and retained the former owner, Frank Leese, as his blacksmith, later selling it back to Frank Leese and, therefore pursued the vocation of farming.

I can remember my father's various illnesses and operations (one performed on the kitchen table at home) and his hospital stays from about the time I was in first grade at Sixteen School and continuing until I was in Third grade at Fox Ridge School.

Some years previous to this father had the misfortune to have a log roll across his body while logging in the timber. He sustained a back injury which was to plague him the rest of his life, and, I suppose indirectly caused his early death at the age of 42. This was two and one-half months after his fifth son, and ninth child was born.

At the time of my father's death he was grandfather to a baby girl just one month old. My sister Effie had married a school teacher and presented the first grandchild to the family.

Some months after father's death my mother moved to Astoria, Illinois. There were still eight children at home part of the time but the older ones had found it advisable to leave school and seek full time employment. Six of us attended school in Astoria.

Mary and Ruth married farmers and Anna married a man from the Astoria-Vermont area who was an employee of the Western Union Telegraph Company and they were transferred frequently until his retirement but retained a home in Springfield, Illinois and a summer home in Wisconsin, near Danbury.

Paul and Fred became licensed plumbers after a stint at farming, and worked many years for Caterpillar Tractor Company in Peoria, Illinois. Paul married a girl from Havana, Illinois and Fred married a girl from Springfield, Illinois. Arthur married a girl from Springfield, Illinois, later moving to Peoria where both of them worked many years for Caterpillar Tractor Company. Frank married a girl he met while working in Peoria, Illinois. He was mechanically inclined and eventually worked as a mechanic and maintenance man at a Peoria airport and later in Indianapolis, Indiana where his nephew is manager of an airport. Frank became a licensed pilot which he used for private purposes.

I was the last of the family to marry. I married a school teacher in Dixon, Illinois. I had worked in various capacities in Bakeries from the time I was in eighth grade until 1945 except for five years after getting out of school and moving to Dixon, Illinois, and another three years when I worked at an Ordnance Plant during World War II. In 1945 I became an employee of a Utility Company in Dixon, Illinois now owned by Commonwealth Edison Company. I will complete twenty-five years with this company in 1970 and will retire in 1971 after reaching my 65th birthday.

O. D. and Elizabeth Corbridge Family Resume — by Sarah Elizabeth Burgard Corbridge

Having so recently observed our forty-eighth wedding anniversary on June 28, 1970, the thought of preparing a resume of those full and active years seems beyond accomplishing in a brief sketch.

In 1918 my parents moved to Rushville, Illinois at the close of my Freshman year of High School in Vermont, Illinois. I was sixteen years of age at that time and my brother eleven.

This proved to be the final week of school in Rushville in the year of graduation for Ona Delwin Corbridge, whose class was the first to use caps and gowns for graduating Seniors. Having come from a smaller rural community, this was a novelty to me, which became more interesting as I saw this young man of the neighborhood walking briskly into the wind with the gray gown billowing in the breeze and being accompanied in rhythm by bobbing tassel of the Mortar Board. At 19 this lad was also in charge of the local office of the American Railway Express Company and passed our home several times a day on the depot route via his horse-drawn express wagon.

He had apparently noticed me the "NEW GIRL IN TOWN," and our meeting and romance was a most unusual attraction to each other even before formal introduction. We kept steady company for two years through his attendance at Millikin University, Military service in S.A.T.C. (Student Army Training Corps of World War I) and then his move to Chicago. I in turn moved with my family to Beardstown and then Rockford, Illinois.

On July 25th 1920 we became engaged and continued for two more years in schooling and business, being married June 28th, 1922, in Buena Memorial Presbyterian Church of Chicago by Reverend Henry Hepburn, returning to Rockford that evening to spend our Honeymoon week in my family home while we attended a Christian Endeavor Convention — quite the unusual approach indeed.

We resided in Chicago for a year where "O. D." worked for Spoehr Candy Company, then for the Morris Plan Bank. Our daughter "Beth" was born the following June at Grant Hospital in Chicago and three weeks later, we moved to Rockford, where O. D. and Leslie Caldwell started business in the name of "National Sandblasting Company," which later was changed to Illinois Sandblasting Company and developed into Illinois Painting Company, eventually owned by us only, after purchasing Mr. Caldwell's interest.

In 1925 our son, Robert, was born and in 1927 our third child, Paul.

Since we had started business on borrowed money and depression days were soon upon us, with bank failures and other attending hardships, life became a very serious and difficult business, involving stringent economy for survival of our own family, my parents and brother for a time and also a niece who later lived with us.

Despite hardships, our lives were graciously rewarded with good health, the ability to work diligently and economize adequately to the point of developing our business to serve customers in fifteen states. Our office and warehouse were at home so that I might carry on some of the business detail in OD's absence while acting as salesman and supervising our Out-of-town service.

Our family grew to maturity in Rockford. Following their education in the Rockford public schools, Beth graduated from Stephens College, Bob attended Colorado School of Mines in Golden, Colorado, The University of Illinois and Rockford College. Paul graduated from Northwestern University in the field of Business Administration.

Each of the boys served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Bob training as Turret Gunner in a T.B.M. and Paul serving as Yeoman of his L.S.T. vessel commissioned for service in Japan.

Upon Beth's marriage to Dr. Laurence E. Saddler, we were able to provide their first home.

Unfortunately, our son, Bob, lost his bride of eight days (the former Joan Anderson) in an automobile accident and he was deceased six months later.

Paul came into the Illinois Painting Company with us and was given comparable sum to that provided for Beth. Thus he became part owner of the Illinois Painting Company. After his marriage to Sharon Thomas, Paul bought his Father's interest in the company and O. D. remained only in the capacity of "Consultant" after his retirement in 1956.

Our outside activities were extended to Church and civic interests, O. D. having served as City Alderman and County Supervisor, Trustee and Elder of Westminster Presbyterian Church. As Elder he was commissioned a delegate to General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church meeting in Rochester, New York in 1941, at which time it was our privilege to hear Rev. Peter Marshall. O. D. also served as Superintendent of the Sunday School, Chairman of the Pulpit Committee, which secured our beloved Pastor James Benson, who served the church some twenty four years. After a ravaging fire, which gutted our "Downtown" Church, we gave land in our sub-division fronting Rural Street for the building site of the new edifice of Westminster Presbyterian Church and O. D. became Chairman of the Building Committee, for the Lannon Stone Gothic structure which was dedicated in November 1951 under the Pastoral guidance of Reverend James Benson.

O. D. was an active member of the Shrine, accepting election to the Divan and serving as Potentate of Tebala Temple in 1937. He has now observed his fiftieth year as a graduate of Rushville High School and as a Master Mason, also nearing forty years as a member of the Rockford Lions Club.

Throughout these years, I had served the church devotedly as Trustee, also as the organizing President of the Women's Association (Third in Presbytery). In 1943 my responsibilities moved to P.E.O. and became ever more pressing as I built toward the Illinois State Chapter Convention in 1945 as Chairman of the Hostess Group. It was at this convention I was elected to the Executive Board of the Illinois State Chapter of P.E.O. Sisterhood, serving for seven years in the consecutive offices. My Presidency was completed at the Golden Convention in 1952 at which time the delegation voted to accept the gift of the Knoxville Old Ladies Home, which has now become our renowned Illinois Chapter P.E.O. Home.

Through our "Mid-to Senior" years we have developed three subdivisions, our farm (purchased after depression time) into a 400 acre dairy farm producing 1½ tons of milk per day and also, because of a heated farrowing house, we raise pigs the year around for market. This effort is possible through a tenant farmer and his hired man, altho the farm has provided much outlet for OD's boundless energy.

In 1953 we built a new ranch-type home and throughout the years we have traveled extensively, visiting each of the fifty states and forty foreign countries. This has been accomplished by car, train, sea freighter travel and two extensive flight trips. The first covering South America and this past winter a trip around the world just before the crises in Southeast Asia and the Middle East.

Life has been filled with activity, demands, joys and sorrows — also much for which to be grateful.

Our summers have been spent at our log cabin "Wawonaissa" in Northern Michigan for thirty five years and we count among our friends, a cross section of American Life from the Professional and renowned to the youth of our changing and restless times, as well as citizens of Canada, Mexico and Europe.

Now, at the allotted time for man of "three score years and ten," we are sound of mind and body and enjoying normal health.

Eight grand-children, ranging from twenty years to the youngest of nine, Challenge us to Changing Times, Competitive thinking and discussion.

So along "Memory Lane" we travel from "Horse and Buggy" days to the first cars, the first Airplanes, the first Moon Shots, and comparable Communications, with Faith that better days lie ahead than these of campus revolt, rebellion, against tradition, Patriotism and war involvement, truly believing that somehow from turmoil and suffering, new heights are gained and progress made.

OBITUARY

POLICE RADIO STATION KAA 359

November 24, 1965

Retired Lieut. Col. Eldon K. Burgard passed away of an apparent heart attack on November 23, 1965.

Col. Burgard was 61 years of age and resided at 2420 East 69th Street. He was born in Womer, Kansas on February 1, 1904, and lived in Kansas City 55 years.

He was appointed to the Kansas City Missouri Police Department on June 16, 1927, and retired with thirty years of service on August 31, 1957. During his tenure of service, he served in the Traffic Division, Inspection Division, and various district stations. February 21, 1947 he was designated commander of the Traffic-Safety Division. He served in that post until 1953 when he was designated Lieutenant Colonel in command of the Inspection Division. Lieutenant Colonel Burgard commanded the Services Division from September 16, 1954, until his retirement as a law enforcement officer. After his retirement he was reappointed in a civilian capacity and served as liaison officer between the Department and the Jackson County Juvenile Court, where he was assigned at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Leona Burgard, of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Linda Sherretts, Salmon, Idaho; four brothers, Fran' Burgard, 1929 Kensington; Paul Burgard, 11 East 79th Terrace North; David H. Burgard and Homer H. Burgard, Wichita, Kansas; a sister, Mrs. Lawrence Koehler, San Lorenzo, California, and two grandsons.

He was a member of the Central Methodist Church. A Mason, he was a member of the Scottish Rite and Ararat Shrine. He was a former Provost of the Ararat Shrine and the Legion of Honor of the Order of De-Molay.

The body will lie in state at the Mount Moriah Mortuary, 105th and Holmes. Services will be held at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, November 27, 1965, at the Mount Moriah Mortuary, 105th and Holmes. Burial will be in Mount Moriah Cemetery. Scottish Rite services will be held Friday at 7:00 p.m.

BURGARDS

By Frank S. Burgard

The Michael Burgards went to Smith County, Kansas (1884) from Colchester, Illinois. When they moved to Kansas their family consisted of three children, Molly (Mary Magdaline), John and Homer. Their twin girls died at an early age and were buried in Colchester, Illinois. Their names were Gertie Lee and Bertie May. A year after their moving to Kansas their daughter married Delos Van Walkenberg. Soon after their marriage she died of Typhoid fever.

Michael's sister Hattie Burgard Myers and her husband Isaac migrated to Smith County and purchased a farm adjoining Michael's.

Before Michael and Leah migrated to Kansas, soon after their marriage, they homesteaded at Beatrice, Nebraska. They did not like it so moved back to Colchester, Illinois then to Kansas.

Leah Hollinger Burgard was born at Lancaster, Penn. She was the oldest of the Hollinger children. Her Father was a shoemaker. He made fine boots and shoes. When the sewing machine was invented he could not make a living for his family and Leah had to work as a servant at fifty cents a week wages. Her childhood was mostly hard work. Spinning and weaving clothing of home spun, sewing by hand. She carded wool, spun and weaved cloth, gathered from the woods the material to make dye. Rugs were made from cornhusks. Stockings knitted. Cooking done in the fireplace...all medicine made from herbs. She saw the first train at Harrisburg, Penn. They lived not far from Gettysburg. Could hear the roar of the battle. The rebels had passed their home and took everything in the way of food.

Michael Burgard was a skilled workman with a meager education. He could lay a beautiful stone wall, exact and true. He could build a log cabin or a modern house. His fence rows were straight and were always planted in a straight line.

The Burgards were "Dunkards." This sect now known as "The Church of The Brethren". Their back-ground Penn. Dutch. When Illinois was settled they migrated from York and Lancaster, Penn.

Homer Burgard was a carpenter-contractor. He had a brief fling at building an aeroplane in Denver, Colorado, in 1910, but due to insufficient promotional funds he and his group of associates were forced to turn this plane over to a bank. This plane flew. I have photographs of this plane during construction and as a test flight.

Homer and family lived at Portis, Kansas, Womer, Kansas, Denver, Colorado (1910-1914), Red Cloud, Nebraska until 1916 and in Kansas City until his death.

Peter Burgard, was a brother to Michael, moved to Warrensburg, Missouri where some of his family still reside. Benj. Burgard of Topeka, Kansas was a cousin.

This information may be of some value to you.

Signed (Frank S. Burgard).

Dear Cousin O.D.;

The following signatures are in a friendship album which belonged to Mollie Burgard. This was given to her by her brother John, and is dated December 24, 1883 at Astoria, Illinois. In it many references to the move to Smith Center, Kansas took place and there are also additions entered into this book after their arrival in Kansas.

Frank's History With Jenkins

A flair for drawing while yet in grade school led to the study of Art and mechanical drawing in high school, and at the Art Institute.

Neighborhood stores needed signs and their windows trimmed. I needed merchandise that they sold. So we got together (Experience is still a good teacher.)

Summer vacations were spent learning the carpenter trade from my father, a building contractor. I also made blue prints for some of the jobs we did. New homes, remodeling, and the like, Later, I was to find these efforts valuable.

Forty-two years have passed since an interview with the Grandfather of our President, J. W. Jenkins, led to my going to work at 1015 Walnut, then headquarters for our company. After introducing me to the family which included his two brothers, C. W. and F. B., his son, Paul, cousins, J. W. and Fred, I got the message that this was a Family Affair with a great future.

My duties were to decorate the windows for our stores in Kansas City, Mo., Kansas City, Ks. St. Joseph, Mo., and Topeka, Ks. In addition, I was to paint signs and show cards, build backgrounds, borrow materials to complete special effects. All trimming was done at night and the days were spent lining up the merchandise, props making signs. Drawings were made of every window to be put in and required the signature of Mr. J. W. Jenkins. His avid interest in window display and the display of stock on the floor was encouragement to my ego.

I was asked to help in the design of a store that was installed on the Plaza. I also had a part in the design of the front of this building. Gradually, we remodeled all of our branch stores, opened new locations, closed others where business failed to reach expectations.

For the past seven years with the able assistance of Mr. Ted Jenkins, the suburban stores in Kansas City, Oklahoma City, Topeka, and Tulsa were designed and constructed.

Velma, my wife of almost forty-two years, deserves a medal of honor for putting up with me and a lifetime of cockeyed working hours, which have gone with my work. Our two children, Bob and Frankie Jean, have blessed us with nine grandchildren. What a joy my family, and my job have been.

It is my fond hope that I will be around in 1978 to help in some small way the promotional activities of Jenkins 100th Anniversary. I remember the 50th and 75th Anniversary events with fondness.

Editors Note: Frank is our Chimes Honoree this month because he is a featured speaker January 21, at the National Convention of National School Music Dealers Association in Chicago. Another honor for him!

Alan Burgard Named for D.A.R. Award This Week

Announcement of the boy who was selected from the Rushville high school senior class for the D.A.R. award was made this week by S. R. Kilpatrick, principal. He is James Alan Burgard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Othello Burgard. The award is provided each year by the national society of Daughters of the American Revolution in order to pay tribute to youthful character and to center attention on the qualities that lead to good citizenship—dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

Young Burgard has been an active member of student body during his years in school, serving as class officer all four years—treasurer as a freshman, vice-president as a sophomore and president for both junior and senior years. He is a member of National Honor Society, has been a member of the high school band for four years and a band contestant for all four years. He also is serving as president of band club his senior year. Alan also has been an active member of 4-H clubs in his home community of Browning.

August 1966 Burgard Reunion

Herschel Burgard, Wife Observe Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Burgard of Hickory township, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home last Sunday with a potluck dinner. Those present for the occasion were the couple's children and grandchildren: Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Burgard and Diana of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. (Karen) Chuck Overby of St. Charles; (Mr. and Mrs. Gary Burgard, also of Jacksonville, were unable to attend); Mr. and Mrs. Othello Burgard, Terry, Alan, Jeffrey, Rhonda and Kevin of Sheldons Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clayton, Sandy, Anita, Mark and Todd of Browning; Herschel's sisters, Mrs. Mildred Hulst of Naperville and Mrs. Lulu Baker of Dixon; a brother, Galen Burgard of St. Louis, Mo.; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Erma Burgard of Astoria; and Helen's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Price and Ned of Mt. Sterling.

The couple cut the first piece of a lovely two-tiered cake prepared by Mrs. Mildred Miller. Cake and punch were then served to the guests. Many beautiful cards, flowers and gifts were received.

August 15, 1970 (By E. C. Saddler)

This female child began her earthly journey with a lusty pronouncement at mid-night between the 9th and 10th of June 1923. It was by Chicago "Sun" time that the 9th was selected for the official records of Grant Hospital, in that metropolis. Now 47 years later, when queried about accomplishment, the most obvious reply is the fact of her own issue of four shown above.

In retrospect, the grade and high school years in Rockford, Illinois were uneventful. Advanced schooling was marked with contentment and joy at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri. There, an A.A. was earned in 1944. Two challenging years as residence counselor at Stephens College preceded the Junior Academic year at the University of Missouri. In December of 1943, Beth was initiated into Chapter CJ of the P.E.O. Sisterhood. This initiation occurred in her own home with her Mother participating as an elective officer. In addition, her Grandmother Burgard, an active member of Chapter V, P.E.O., was in attendance.

In February of 1948, Beth met Laurence Evart Saddler. Their marriage ceremony was performed on the 28th day of January, 1949, by Dr. Homer Price Rainey, President of Stephens College. Again, the service was in her own home. Matron of honor was her Mother; the best man her brother, Robert Oliver Corbridge.

On June 7, 1949 Laurence Saddler was awarded his Doctoral degree in Psychology from the University of Missouri. Summer of that same year found the new family moved to St. Cloud, Minnesota where Laurence served as Director of Student Personnel at St. Cloud State College. In the summers of 1951 and 1953, he was guest lecturer in Counseling and Guidance at The University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. During the four years of residency in St. Cloud, Bob, Barbara, and Anne were born. While in Minnesota, Laurence became a 32nd Degree Mason, via the York route. This was followed by his advancement into the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine, Zurah Temple, Minneapolis.

In 1953, Laurence Saddler left academic work for his alliance with the partnership of William, Lynde & Williams, Consulting Psychologists to Management. This welcomed decision precipitated the family move to the collegiate town of Ann Arbor, Michigan. There were ten years in this lush topography. 1961 brought the birth of Sarah. In 1963 came the reluctant change of address to the salty flat-lands of Midland, Michigan. Laurence Saddler exchanged his partnership in William, Lynde & Williams for the position of Manager of Industrial Relations with the Midland Division of the Dow Chemical Company. In time, his responsibilities with this corporation were advanced to the position of Director of the Human Resources Development Center, a service that has taken him to the Orient and to the South American Continent. At this writing, the family remains in Midland.

Although Beth holds membership in the P.E.O. Sisterhood and the Daughters of the American Revolution, her most enthusiastic participation, outside the home, is her association with the Midland Symphony Orchestra, as a "working" member of The Board of Managers. This activity has proven to be time-consuming, but also highly rewarding for the effort expended.

Bob was schooled in Ann Arbor and Midland, as were Barbara and Anne. In addition Bob experienced a happy two years at Howe Military School, in Howe, Indiana. His position on the varsity rifle team for Howe won him the recognition as the second best rifleman in the state of Indiana. This memory is greatly treasured by this handsome, young man. He returned to Midland High School and graduated from that institution in 1968. This summer of 1970 finds him working in a Midland Haberdashery. On August 31, he will commence his Junior year of college at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

Barbara graduated from the Midland High School in June, 1970. She is now in Antwerp, Belgium for two months. She was accepted by the "Youth For Understanding" as a participant in their World-wide sponsorship of "Young Ambassadors" from the United States. Barbara is scheduled to return from Europe on August 27. On August 31, she too, will be on the campus of Central Michigan University where she will begin her Freshman year of study. During her High School years, she spent two summers at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, Michigan. Painting and Ceramics are her great love. Her talent is worth notice and her work at Interlochen was highly commendable.

Anne is preparing to enter her Senior year in Henry Herbert Dow High School with an eye to the future, she desires to enter Michigan State University at East Lansing in the fall of 1971. Anne is an avid swimmer and a valued member of the Dow High School swim team. In addition, it appears her speciality is working with young children. She completed the 1970 summer school session at Midland High in preparation for the School-Business Co-op program during the winter of 1970-71. Anne has applied for and expects to receive her employment in a grade School Library. In the main, her avocation is sewing. Anne's wardrobe is a compliment to her patience and ability.

Sarah, at age nine, loves life! She has a sparkle and a boundless enthusiasm enviable to those about her. With keen anticipation, she is counting the months until the summer of 1971 when she, too, is finally "old enough" to start her summers away at camp. At this stage of Sarah's development, we are aware of a similarity to Barbara. That is an ability to translate her thoughts to paper with pen and paint. In addition, Anne's influence is also apparent for Sarah often asks how long before she, too, may learn to sew!

And so...this earthly journey seems not yet done. This female child still has some way to run.

"If time flows as a river flows, will we not find it fresher as we swim against its current? It is not so much the hours that tell, as the way we use them." 1.

"My interest is in the future because I'm going to spend the rest of my life There." 2.

I, Joseph Paul Corbridge, being of sane mind and sound body, do hereby attempt to recount something of the historical events of my life that will in some way relate to the whys and wherefores of my existence on this date, August 22, 1970.

In 1926 I was not of sane mind and sound body, for at that point I was not even a twinkle in my mother's eye. However, sometime in the late part of 1926 I became such a twinkle, for on August 18, 1927 I came forth with sound body, but as yet not too much in the way of sane mind.

In the ensuing years I ventured forth from the family home at 1227 Camp Avenue in Rockford, Illinois in quest of sane mind. My ventures took me to and through Walker Grade School, Roosevelt Junior High School, West Rockford High School and Northwestern University, where I graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in December of 1949. At this point, similar to many young people, I thought sane mind had been accomplished. It didn't take long, however, to find this was only the beginning, for many years of hard work and the trials and tribulations of life have taught that sane mind is a matter of degree that takes continuous effort and constant research.

Along that route in my search, I was temporarily delayed by the call of one of my favorite uncles by the name of Sam. It seems he wanted me, in some small way, to contribute to the future safety of my country. So, being an obedient nephew, I headed for Great Lakes Naval Training Center in July 1945 where I completed my boot training the following September. From there friend Uncle saw fit to ask me to go to California where I boarded the troop ship Admiral Benson AP26 for a rough but uneventful crossing of the Pacific Ocean. We passed such areas as Iwo Jima, Bataan and other names of history, finally arriving in harbor at Okinawa where I was transferred to the USS Dorchester APB46. I spent the next several months of my life aboard the Dorchester as we proceeded up the line to WakaYama, Japan and on to Wakanoura and Kobe. In the spring of 1946 we headed back to Hawaii for a short stop and then on to my good old Uncle's homeland known as U.S. of A., traveling through the famous tidal wave of 1946 that threatened our goal temporarily. We eventually docked at Vancouver, Washington where I spent the balance of my time in the Navy prior to discharge at Great Lakes in August 1946. It was at this time I entered Northwestern University, where by going almost straight through I caught up with my high school class for graduation. I was affiliated with the Sigma Nu Fraternity during this time.

In January of 1950 I entered business, and with my father's indulgence proceeded to attempt to put my great knowledge to work and show him how the Illinois Painting Company should be run. After several noble attempts, my father sitting patiently on the sidelines, the process of osmosis finally began to work. Without my knowing what was happening he was able to transfer some of his outstanding knowledge and ability through my thick skull and I began to move into successful operation of management of the company. In 1952, through my parent's generosity I became a full fledged 50-50 partner with Dad in Illinois Painting Company. In 1957, Dad was ready for at least partial retirement and was good enough to sell the balance of the business to me and a silent partner sometimes referred to as a bank. With a few prosperous years and the nose to the grind stone I was finally able to buy my silent partner out by meeting their periodic demands for payments and interest.

Along the route, I looked up from the grind stone just long enough to get tripped by a lovely young lass by the name of Sharon Lynn Thomas. The trap had been sprung and about seven months later I wound up at the altar of Trinity Lutheran Church. A preacher also happened to be there and in my stupor I vaguely remember somebody saying "I now pronounce you man and wife."

Through the ensuing years, much to my surprise, I found this sweet young feminine trap had become my inspiration. She also became the mother of our four wonderful children. Charles Kelley, was born on September 18, 1956 and today stands about 5' 8" with a special interest in baseball. Robert Scott was born on March 13, 1958 and for several years was referred to as "Little J. A." in reference to his Great Grandfather Burgard as it seemed he had inherited many of Grandfather Burgard's traits. Scott's special interest at this stage seems to be in Football and Music and he does an excellent job at both. Next our little Towhead John Bradford came along on April 15, 1959. His blonde head and physical features remind us considerably of Sharon's younger brother John. Brady has been outstanding in his swimming, and finally, after turning the mattress over, our Tracey Lynn came along on September 23 of 1960. She is much like her Mother and excels at being her "Daddy's Little Girl." As is the case in all of life, the littleness has worn off all too soon and the children are all becoming too grown up too fast. Yesterday the children, with their Saddler cousins, spent most of the afternoon Water Skiing. Tracey mastered it to become the fourth of our four children to successfully water ski.

Through the years we have traveled much with the youngsters through all parts of our country including Alaska. We have skied together in Colorado, fished together in Florida and Alaska, ridden trails in Arizona and Wyoming and just enjoyed each other all over our good old U.S.A.

Sharon was a Dental Assistant to Dr. Bob Ross-Shannon at the time we met at the Wagon Wheel in Rockton, Illinois. Since then she has come to realize what an easy job she had, for being the mother of four in just over four years has kept her hopping. For the first year of our married life, she kept working to help put food on the table at our home at 225 Harper Avenue. We had purchased the home and everything in it just prior to our marriage, so, used though it was, we had a completely furnished home to start in. Several of the pieces are still in use in our present home at 2211 Harlem Boulevard where we have just completed a remodeling, decorating and additional project. Through the years, besides just being a mother and companion to our children Sharon has been involved in many outside activities. Among these is P.E.O. of which her Mother-in-law is a past State President. Sharon also was Chairman of Volunteer Services for Rockford Memorial Hospital which was a major accomplishment as well as an outstanding honor. She has been active in various Fund raising activities in our community and is an active member of the Junior League of Rockford and a Life member of Rockford Women's Club.

My involvements in affairs outside of direct business operation have included the Masonic Lodge and various affiliated bodies, the Shrine, Y's men, Kiwanis International (Which I served as President of the Rockford Club in 1968), Painting & Decorating Contractors of America, (Where I served as State President and am presently on the National Executive Board as well as the Trade Board Committee) and the Northern Illinois American Sub-contractors Association I now serve as Treasurer.

The above brings us to the immediate present at my parent's summer home at Gulliver, Michigan for a few days vacation with our children, my parents and my sister's family the Laurence Saddlers. We enjoy these family get-togethers and sincerely hope, with God willing, we will have many more in the years to come.

Jack-of-All-Trades Pastors Could Use Laymen's Help

By Titus Fisher

The increasing use of laymen and associate ministers may help solve a pastor's problem, a Methodist minister believes.

"For many years pastors have been faced with the problem of personally trying to do every task in the church," said the Rev. Clarence M. McConkey.

"This kept them from doing any one thing as well as they could. The use of laymen and associate ministers as specialists in various fields may be the answer," he said.

The 42-year-old Rev. Mr. McConkey came to First Methodist last June from St. James Methodist Church in Bellevue, where he had been pastor for more than 10 years.

As minister of adult education at First Methodist he is mainly concerned with "getting adults to understand each other and share their experiences," he said.

"The call today is for church renewal," he said. "This means getting the lay people back in control of religion."

Until recently, most church educational programs were centered on youths and children, he said.

"But the church is doing more today for the alcoholic, the drug addict, the homosexual, the bum on skid row and on social issues," he said.

"People have complex problems which call for specialists in evangelism and teaching."

The Rev. Mr. McConkey

said he favors "small group meetings" to discuss adult problems.

"Adult understanding is vital to the progress of the church," he said.

He said adult education programs should include talks by experts in different fields, followed by discussions.

"Above all, adults should learn to share common problems and needs and participate in planned programs," he said.

The Rev. Mr. McConkey said the church program could help adults be better parents, better citizens and "encourage them to participate in community activities."

Bell-Burgard

Judith Joan Bell and Barry Bruce Burgard, both of Salina, exchanged marriage vows and rings in a small family ceremony Aug. 16 at the First United Methodist Church.

Officiating was the Rev. Leslie Toburen.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mary Bell, 686 Highland, and Ralph Bell, Rapid City, S. D., and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bruce Burgard, 403 Marymount Road.

Mrs. Charles Olson and Mayme Porter, both of Salina, were the musicians.

Escorted by the bridegroom's father, the bride wore a street-length frock, made by her mother. It consisted of a Venise cotton lace bodice and organza skirt over satin, with a satin band encircling the high waistline.

The bride designed and made her satin headpiece, trimmed with a bow.

She carried an arrangement of white phalaenopsis orchids.

Honor attendants were Trudy Kloefkorn, Caldwell, Kas., and Michael Helberg, Salina.

Miss Kloefkorn's street-length lime green silk linen dress was worn with yellow mums in her hair.

A bouquet of yellow mums, tied with green streamers, complemented her ensemble.

Ushers: Michael Spangler, Liberal, and James Isch, Morrill, Kas.

In charge of the guest book: Brenda Burgard, sister of the groom.

The reception followed in the church parlor.

A graduate of Salina high school, the bride attended the Sorbonne, Paris, France. This fall, she will be a junior majoring in elementary education and French at Kansas State university, Manhattan, where she formerly lived at Smurthwaite Scholarship house. Mrs. Burgard worked for FAR-MAR-CO, Inc., this summer.

This fall, Mr. Burgard, also a Salina High graduate, will be a KSU junior majoring in accounting. He is treasurer of Sigma Nu fraternity. The groom worked this summer at Kansas Wesleyan.

They will be at home Aug. 24 at L-2, Jardine Terrace, Manhattan.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Bruce Burgard
(Judith Joan Bell)

Burgard-Holzman

The marriage of Barbara Jo Burgard, Salina, and Ronald E. Holzman, Wichita, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, Aug. 22 at the St. Mary, Queen of the Universe Roman Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob B. Burgard, 403 Marymount Road. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence M. Holzman Wichita, are the bridegroom's parents.

Receiving the couple's double-ring vows was the Rev. Nicholas Lohkamp, Brookline, Mass., uncle of the groom.

Mrs. Rex Morriss, Salina, was the musician. Altar boys were Timothy Holzman, the groom's brother, and Greg Lohkamp, their cousin, both of Wichita.

Highlights of the bride's ensemble were an empire jacket of lace over satin with bishop sleeves of bands of lace and tucks and a matching satin skirt, extending into a cathedral train, and a band of fresh daisies holding her silk illusion veil.

Her cascade was of matching daisies.

Maid of honor: Sallie Johnson, Wichita. Bridesmaids: Brenda Ann Burgard, Salina, sister of the bride, and Rebecca Sue Holzman, Wichita, the groom's sister.

Yellow satin ribbon scented

the empire waistlines of their yellow voile frocks and formed the bands of their white picture hats.

They carried white baskets of yellow and white daisies.

Flower girl: Sheila Lohkamp, Wichita, cousin of the groom. Registering guests: Traice Worman, Wichita, the bride's cousin. Displaying gifts: Mrs. James Knight, Salina.

Best man: Kenneth D. Johnson. Groomsmen: Larry Holzman jr., brother of the groom, and Dave Leiker. All are of Wichita.

Ushers: Barry Burgard, Salina, the bride's brother, and Michael Roths, Wichita.

Hostesses for the reception at the Salina Country club: Mrs. Charles Worman, Wichita, and Mrs. Robert Ham, Kansas City, Mo., aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Helbert and Mrs. Leslie Appleby, both of Salina.

Mrs. Holzman, a Salina high-school graduate, is a dental assistant for Dr. Richard L. Rogers, Wichita.

Mr. Holzman was graduated from Bishop Carroll high school, Wichita, and served 2 years in the U.S. Marine Corps. He works for Radio Supply, Wichita.

Following a wedding trip, the newlyweds will be at home in the Stratford West Apartments, Wichita.

IN MEMORIAL

Of our dear Mother and Grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Hollinger Burgard, later Mrs. Lucy Hollinger Trone
Died February 17, 1907

There was a voice we loved to hear
'Twas soft as Zephyrs song
That come from shady woodland dell
When summer days are long.

'Twas comfort to the longing heart,
A smiling countenance wore;
In vain we cast our eyes that way,
But see it never more.

And often when we entered in,
With soft light steps moved on,
And peeping through the curtain found
She was with books, and God alone.

Or with her busy hands employed,
With needle work complete;
Yes, wonderful, we often said,
How Grandma's work can be so neat.

Her welcome greeting still resounds
As echoes from God's holy hill:
"Come follow me to nobler spheres
Where all my praise his blessed Will."

With her, communion all was good:
Compassion was with her most strong
With all that sin could lead astray;
She always plead: "Forgive the wrong."

And in her aged innocence,
At four-score, five and more,
A pleasant hostess she remained
And memory filled with legend lore.

"It's won-der-ful"! she often said
This world, her heart disclosed
When joy, or sorrow overflowed
It proved her mind composed.

Can we but miss her everywhere
For she passed out so soon,
Away from our new happy home,
One pleasant Sunday noon.

O, Grandma, Why is all so still Within your cozy room?
Where are your own belongings all?
It no more seems like home.

The answer comes: I am gone before;
I'm waiting at the pearly gate,
Get ready e're the Savior calls,
So you'll not then be late."

Thus must we all, resign our will
To God's supreme control,
He'll bear us to our home above
Where eternal ages roll.

We think of her among the throng
Where all arrayed in white,
They sing the new eternal song,
And shine in glory bright.

Trone, Lucy, nee Hollinger, born Oct. 15, 1821, in York County, Pa., died at the home of her son, William Burgard, in Astoria, Ill., Feb. 17, 1907, aged 85 years, 4 months and 2 days. She was married to Samuel Burgard April 22, 1841. To this union were born six children. One, a daughter, died when a year old. Some years later the husband and a grown son were called away by smallpox. After a number of years she was married to Joseph Trone, who preceded her almost eighteen years. "Aunt Lucy" was a loving mother to her children and to many others, who grew up in her home under her fostering care. Her kind and affectionate friendship was extended to all whom she met. Amidst her many trials, afflictions and death, she was an example in patience and longsuffering. In her last week of suffering she wished for the departing hour. She united with the Brethren church early in life and lived a consistent Christian life until death. Services at the South Fulton house by S. G. Bucher, from Rev. 7:13-17. Four sons remain to mourn her departure.

Your request for information came in today mail — I'm sorry the information you seek isn't on the marriage certificate but I've had it reproduced anyway along with some other family data that is in Dad's old Bible. Maybe some of it will be of use to you in some way.

The Bible, by the way, belonged to Lucy Hallinger Burgard Trone — apparently it had been given to her by her second husband but somehow came back into the hands of the Burgards after her death.

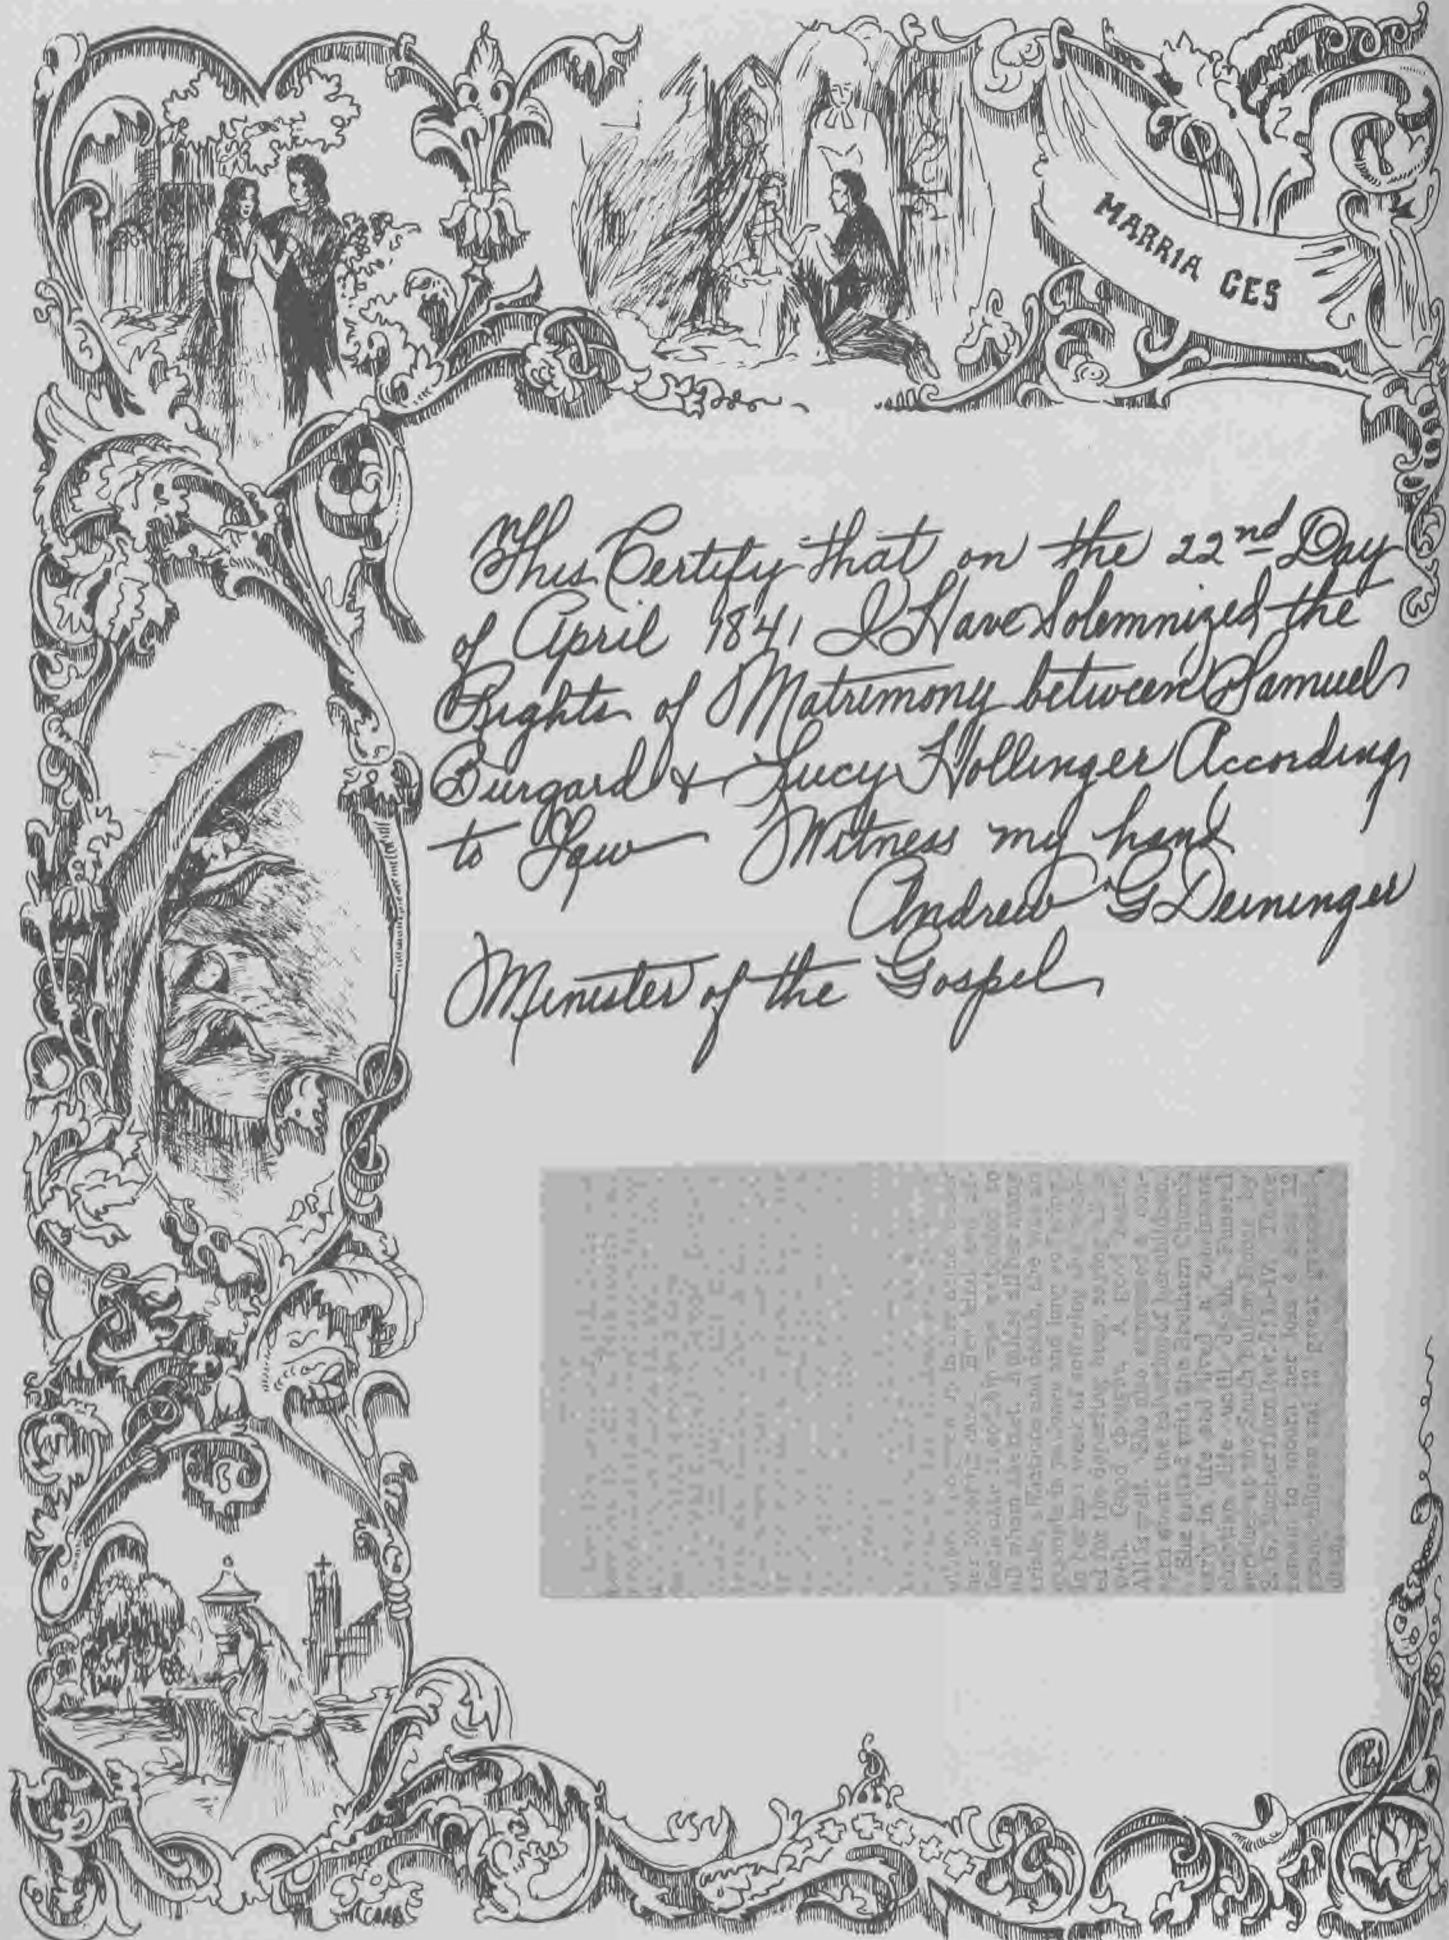

Will be interested in hearing about your book when it's published — sorry we couldn't be of more help — and that we didn't respond to your first request for information — must be frustrating for you.

Sincerely yours
Donnie D. Dull

The following is written on the back of the picture of Ida and Lucy. Astoria, Illinois February 11, 1910. Dear Cousins Maggie and Eli. Hello Hello; here I'll send you an old valentine from South Fulton. Now here I am the mail has come and gone, that's the way it goes when one gets up late. Annie Blickenstaff saw in the paper they get from Cerro Gordo that Levi Blickenstaff fell down from the loft of his Bros. barn and unconscious and lay that way for 2 hours. I don't see why they don't write either bad or good one doesn't know. Well I think every week I'll go up to Eli's. That's the way it goes, you come whenever you can. With love Cousin Lucy.

A LETTER TO YOU SIR. I never heard why the family came to Missouri. They were tenant farmers and Father B. was a Blacksmith, a good one. He made a set of horse shoes — several, from a large one down to a very small mule shoe and took First Prize at our Livingston County Fair. He gave each of his children one of them. Frank got the small mule shoe which we still have.

Frank was the first Missourian. He was born in a small log cabin on the farm Father B. was working on. I was back home several years ago and we came by there. It was still standing, they were using it for a corn crib. Frank was named for Uncle Frank Turner, Aunt Marinda Clevenger's husband. His full name, Franklin Granville Burgard, as far as I know Granville is not a family name. Father B. told me Samuel was a family name, he was the fourth or fifth I am not sure. None of his boys or grandchildren was named Sanuel, so when Robert came he carries it.

We have several tin types, one of Father B. and Uncle Ben, one of Father B. and Mother B. and Uncle Ben. One of Father B. and Mother B., one of Frank as a small boy with a small wagon. Grandmother Burgard must have given them to him. He visited her several times. We have a small piece of linen she wove given to Father B. when he went back for her funeral.

Mother Burgard's Father was a Methodist Circuit Rider Preacher. She joined the United Brethren, when they broke up she went to the Methodist Church. My father was German Lutheran my Mother Baptist as am I, my Father was a Mason — Past Master, G. L. is a Mason Past Master. Robert is a Mason — Blue Lodge.

The Clevengers were English. The Burgards Dutch. I have always thought it was as opposite a marriage as could be, seemed to turn out all right.

Father B. liked to fish, so did we. We always started our fishing on Easter Sunday. We had several favorite fishing spots, take our dinner and stay all day. Dad had a nickname for me. He called me "Gooney" — all because I let a big fish get off my hook. If I can help any more say so, I have records and albums and Bibles to consult.

Thank you for listening
Nellie M. "Gooney" Burgard

I will soon be 78. I am so very tired. I no longer care to go anywhere or have company, after sixty years of serving the great American Public, no more people in droves for me. "Ol Rocking Chairs got me." Reading this over some of it sounds a bit silly. I came near to not sending it, but thought your wife might like to hear about the little things from this branch of the family. Seems I have said little of Mother. She had a bad stroke a few months after we were married. She lived but she was never well, her head shook and her speech was not quite right, she got her words mixed. She lived several years but was never well enough to work. She visited us in Chillicothe several times but it tired her so. She finally quit coming, all of us visited her a lot and as long as we lived across the street from them I did most of her work and looked after her as best I could. Oh yes the Granville part of Uncle Franklin Granville Turner is English, an old old English name. I do not know if it was a family name of the Turner's. Our Frank was named for him. Franklin Granville Burgard, our son G. L. Granville Lester Burgard. The Granville for his Father and the Lester for his Uncle Clyde.

Enough, no need to answer this and things I might know ask G. L. he will tell you.

N.M.B.

I will be in Rolla tomorrow and get some literature on our country and send you. I have no family of my own, no sisters or brothers. My Father and Mother were each married twice, some half sisters and brothers on my Father's side, only one I ever knew. I am the last of his family.

Eli Burgard, 82, was found dead in bed early Friday in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kenneth R. Easley, near Vermont, Illinois. Born 19 July 1872, near Astoria, a son of Samuel Hollinger and Mary Elizabeth (Trone) Burgard, he was married to Maggie Ellen Weber, who preceded him in death May 21, 1934. One son also preceded him in death. Surviving are 5 children. Ezra and Harold in Ipava; Mrs. Easley in Vermont; Mrs. LeRoy Simpson in Park Ridge, Illinois and William Burgard of Good Hope, Illinois. 14 Grandchildren and 8 great Grandchildren also survive. Dr. Raymond J. Mercey, Fulton County Coroner, who conducted an inquiry, said death was due to a coronary occlusion. Funeral services were held at the Ipava Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Edgar Mills. Burial in the Ipava Cemetery.

MRS. BESSIE BLOCK

Mrs. Bessie Mae Block, 74, of Rt. 1, Adair, died last Wednesday evening at McDonough District Hospital. She was a lifelong resident of the Adair and Ipava communities.

She was born March 18, 1894, in Pleasant Township, a daughter of George and Martha Wickert Weber, and married Henry D. Block on September 3, 1916. She was a member of the Astoria Church of the Brethren, Pennington Point Silver Tea group, Industry Home Extension Unit, and was a gold star mother in the Ipava American Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving are her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Rosemary Rose of Canton, Mrs. Lily Marie Stutsman of Peoria, and Mrs. Margaret Kathleen Nell of Rushville; one son, Leland Block of Adair; nine grandchildren, and one brother, Leo Weber of London Mills. A son, a grandson, a brother and four sisters are deceased.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Astoria Church of the Brethren, and burial was in the Woodland Cemetery. 7/24/68

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Burgard, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wickert and Ed Wickert attended funeral services in Astoria Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Bessie Block. July 27 - 68

HENRY BLOCKS TO OBSERVE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Block of rural Adair, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Sept. 4, at an open house from 2 until 5 o'clock in the Pennington Point Church, given in their honor by their children.

The former Bessie Mae Weber and Henry Daniel Block were married Sept. 3, 1916, at the farm home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Weber some four miles south of Ipava, with the Rev. Charles Walters of the Woodland Church of the Brethren officiating.

They have engaged in farming during their entire married life. After farming 21 years in the Ipava vicinity, the family moved to the Pennington Point community south west of Adair, where they have resided the past 29 years.

They are the parents of five children, the late S/Sgt. Willis Edward Block, who died July 20, 1944 while serving with the Air Force in Germany; Mrs. Harold E. Rose (Rosemary) 263 W. Spruce St, Canton; Mrs. Merle B. Stutsman (Lily Marie) 811 Hampshire Road, Peoria; Leland Eugene Block, Adair, and Mrs. Kenneth Nell (Margaret Kathleen), of rural Littleton. They also have nine grandchildren, Harold Jr., John Carl, Esther Lorraine, Ellis Loren and Arden Willis Rose; Kent Bennet and Rhonda Beth Stutsman, and Kim and Kathy Dawn Nell.

The children and grandchildren cordially invite all relatives and friends to attend the anniversary service at 2:00 p.m., in the church sanctuary and the reception following, in the church social room. Gifts may be omitted.

Mr. Corbridge:

Adair, Illinois
March 30, 1965

Your letter of March 20th is before me. Am indeed glad you are interested in family records. Too few folks are interested as it does take time and patience, yet who can tell the good it will do.

My Maiden name was Bessie Weber and I had a sister Maggie who married a Burgard, it was one of her sons evidently who told your wife about me. Then too I had a first cousin Mary Weber who married a John Burgard. Both my Sister and first cousin along with their husbands have passed away. Have known many of the older generation and my parents knew more of them than I did. Yet today I cannot tell you how they were related. Seems tho they were all related there are several different branches of them and it would surely be interesting to see the Burgard family tree or history get going and the quicker the better.

We'll do what we can gladly to help you. So here is some addresses to which you might get help. Will put them on separate sheet. Seems the names Joe and John have been favorite names in the family and you name John still is being given the younger ones. We will try to get more information and send it to you. This John Burgard who married my cousin Mary lived in Canton, Illinois, tho his people live in or near Warrensburg, Missouri, am wondering if your Father-in-law is of that branch. Then to over west of us some four miles south of Colchester there is a cemetery where there are quite a few Burgards buried.

This Albert Burgard of Macomb I rather think comes from that branch. He has some office in Springfield being director of education, etc. tho we have been told he comes each night to his home in Macomb.

My husband wants me to ask if your wife's father was the Joe Burgard who at one time lived near Vermont, Illinois, had a sawmill there, also was he a minister of the Gospel and in what church?

We take it your wife is a granddaughter of Oliver Wood, a Niece of Russell Wood. They helped in our home many a time in times when our loved ones were laid away.

My Father was George Weber, my Mother Martha Wickert so in 1957 I did get a Weber-Wickert history book together would like you to see it and I sure want one of yours, must get this to the mail box. Will be writing to you again, may we hear more from you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Henry Block

Dear Mr. Corbridge:

I was very pleased to receive your letter of April 4th. I am sorry that I cannot be of assistance to you in your search for the name of my great grandfather.

I know very little about my ancestors. I was acquainted with two of my second or third cousins, John and Homer Burgard, sons of Mike and Leah Burgard. All of these persons are now deceased. John had a son and a daughter. I believe they are also now deceased. Homer had quite a large family. At least two of his sons are still living in Kansas City, Missouri. Their names and addresses are as follows:

E. K. Burgard, 2420 East 69th, Kansas City, Missouri
Frank Burgard, 1929 Kensington, Kansas City, Missouri

I have not seen either of these gentlemen for a number of years, possibly one of them may be able to help you.

I have a few old pictures of my father and his brothers; a picture of my grandmother; of Mr. Trone; and a number of other persons whose names or family connection I do not know. I also have a newspaper clipping giving the obituary of my grandmother.

Approximately a year ago my wife began collecting her family history. We soon discovered that without a good lead, it was almost impossible to obtain accurate information. With this in mind she asked me to write as best I could, all that I knew about my family. Purely as information I am attaching a copy of what I wrote. I know that it is not accurate, and not of great value. Most of it is based on stories told to me when I was a child.

We have rather exceptional historical library here in Topeka. One of these days I will check the 1850 census for the country in which Butztown and Pottstown is located, with the hope that I can find the names of my Father and his family. I doubt if I will be able to connect the name of my great Grandfather with my Grandfather's family but it will at least be a place to start. When I will be able to get at this, I do not know.

You gave me the names of two cousins in Leavenworth. I have never met these ladies. I may be wrong, but I believe that both of them are now deceased.

You ask if possible I am acquainted with your cousin, Mrs. Batty. The answer to this is no. I don't recall ever having met anyone by that name.

I have completed the forms sent me with your letter and they are enclosed herewith.

As stated previously, I was very glad to get your letter. If you could see your way clear to write me and tell me a little more about my family I would certainly appreciate it.

My wife and I have two children, a son 33 and a daughter 31. Our son has 4 children, one son and three daughters; he is a salesman for a medical supply company in Albuquerque, N.M. Our daughter has one daughter. She is married to a farmer and lives near Atchison, Kansas. My wife and I were both born in the same small town, Portis, Kansas. but we first met in Topeka, where we were married and where we have lived ever since. I have been employed by the Santa Fe Railway for the last 38 years. I hope to retire in another 8 to 10 years. My wife's family now lives in Los Angeles area. We make frequent trips to that area and to Albuquerque.

Thank you for writing me.

Yours very truly,

This is an attempt to put into writing what little I know about the families of my parents.

Benjamin Franklin Burgard was the youngest son of Samuel Burgard and Lucy Hollinger Burgard. They were both of German or Dutch origin, probably Dutch. They were Quakers. Lucy Hollinger was born in York County, Penn., October 15, 1821. She died at Astoria, Illinois, February 17, 1907. Samuel Burgard and Lucy Hollinger were married April 22, 1841. They had six children; one daughter who died at about age 1, and five sons. I believe the names of the sons were Elijah, Elisha, Ezekiel, William and Benjamin. Samuel Burgard and the eldest son died of smallpox, probably in 1866.

It was the custom at that time, when a woman was left a widow, she would "bind out" children who were not yet old enough to be self supporting. A child "bound" worked for his room and board. At the age of 9, Benjamin was bound out to a farmer. He continued to work for this farmer until about the age 13, when his mother married Jacob Trone. At that time William and Benjamin accompanied their mother and step-father in a move to Illinois. They established a home near Astoria, Illinois.

Samuel Burgard was an Elder in the church. Jacob Trone, the step-father, was described by my father, Benjamin, as a drunkard. At the age of 14, my father ran away from home in Illinois and went to Texas. Exactly where in Texas he went, or how he made the trip, I do not know, but I presume it was by river boat most of the way because he did many times mention boats that operated on the Illinois and Mississippi rivers.

There is a blank spot in his life at about this place about which he never talked. He did, however, talk about spending much time in saloons; about walking between towns in Texas; about being "treed" by longhorn cattle; about how a gambler in one of the saloons taught him to play cards, and things of that sort. He knew the outlaw Billy The Kid, who he described as a moron.

When in his twenties, he got a job with the Southern Pacific Railway and was a chairman with a surveyor, engaged in finding a route from the southern part of California to the northern part. He apparently enjoyed this job because he told many stories about his adventures. He washed gold from one of the mountain streams, and before his marriage to my mother, had a ring made for himself and for my mother from this gold. A second blank spot appears at about here.

When in his thirties he returned to Illinois where he operated a shoe store in Astoria. He also had what he called a "Singing School." He could play almost any stringed instrument with the exception of the violin, and could play the piano and organ.

Although he spoke no English until after he was 9 years of age, he had no accent. He spoke German, Russian, and a few words of Spanish. His schooling consisted of 3 terms of three months each. I do not know at what age his schooling took place. He had a great interest in books, however, and had a library of two or three hundred books, including the works of Shelly, Byron, Dickens, and most of the other old well known writers.

I rather imagine that my father took the middle name of "Franklin" for some reason of his own. An old Arithmetic book carries the name "Benjamin Hollinger Burgard".

The step-father, Jacob Trone, died in about 1880. My father apparently returned to Illinois after his death, and apparently remained in the vicinity of Astoria until about 1900. He was a member of the Odd-Fellows lodge in Astoria, and continued to pay his dues there until shortly before his death. He also had some connection with the Methodist church there. Other members of his family were Dunkards.

In the 1870's and 1880's various church and racial groups came to Kansas and settled in rather close-knit communities where they established towns. Mike Burgard, who was the son of one of my father's brothers, married a girl who had apparently been "bound" to my grandmother. They were members of a group who emigrated from Illinois to Osborne County, Kansas and settled in and around what is now Portis. In about 1900 my father rode a bicycle from Illinois to Portis. There were no roads. A great many of the people he passed on his way to Kansas had never before seen a bicycle. He said that one or two men shot at him with shot-guns, and that several set their dogs on him. He carried a 44-40 revolver in a basket on the handle bars of the bicycle for protection.

Zula Kenworthy Burgard was the youngest daughter of Charles Otis Kenworthy and Mary Lemonds Kenworthy. Charles Otis Kenworthy was of English descent. He was tall and thin, black wavy hair, and liked very much to talk. Even though he was supposed to be 100% English, his appearance was such that one wonders that if somewhere in the background there was not a Sioux. Mary Lemonds was one-half English; one-fourth Irish, and one-fourth Scotch. She was very quiet, and the exact opposite of her husband. They emigrated with a group of English from some point in Iowa and settled in Smith County, Kansas near Smith Center, Kansas. The town "Bellair" near where they settled, is no longer in existence. Mary Lemonds was a twin.

The family of Charles and Mary Kenworthy consisted of three daughters, Jenny, Esta and Zula, and one son Clark. The family came to Kansas in about 1881, at which time Zula was 4 years of age. Jenny and Esta married at an early age, but Zula did not marry until she was 26. When and where she met my father I do not know, but they were married March 23, 1902. Shortly after their marriage they moved to New Windsor, Colorado and later to Greely, Colo. where they operated the Red Front Grocery and Bazar. Kenneth Vivian Burgard was born at New Windsor, Colorado October 21, 1903. Most of the customers of their grocery store were Russian workers in sugar beet fields. They went on strike, and most of them moved away without paying their grocery bills.

My father was forced to close his store. My mother had not been happy in Colorado, and Kenneth was not well. In about 1905 they moved back to Kansas and located at Portis, where my father worked in general stores for several years. He then started working as a carpenter. In about 1917 he became manager of the local telephone company, and my mother worked as telephone operator. After the close of world war No. 1, he was repairing a telephone cable. Blow torch he was using to heat parrafin wax exploded and he received severe burns to one leg and one arm. He was unable to work for a year and a half, and consequently lost his position with the telephone company. He then returned to carpentry. In 1922 we moved to Topeka, where he was employed by the State Treasurer.

I was born at Portis, May 18, 1909.

Kenneth died at Topeka on May 14, 1933, due to an infection resulting from a tooth extraction. He was 29 years of age.

My father died at Topeka April 4, 1934, at the age of 77.

My mother died at Topeka May 14, 1952, at the age of 75.

Dear Mr. Corbridge:

In answer to your letter of March 10, 1966, I am attaching what records I can find of the William H. Burgard family, also a copy of a clipping from a Topeka, Kansas newspaper, concerning the death of Benjamin Burgard's wife, which may help you learn more of his family.

I hope this information will be of some help to you and that I may have the pleasure of meeting you sometime in the future. If I can be of any further help please do not hesitate to write me. Should you need any further information from Astoria, Illinois, you might write Mrs. Kenneth Easley, R.R., Vermont, Illinois, as she is one of the Burgard family.

Very truly yours,
 Dwight O. Falkenstein

Dear Cousin,-

Guess all descendants are cousins! Ha! Sorry I've not answered sooner; no excuse is as good as any!

Will send part of the papers you enclosed to my brother John E., in Chicago. His address is 9550 So. Charles St., Chicago 43. He has the Family Bible with the records you requested.

Did you know my Mother had TWO sisters? I see you have Aunt Lucy's name (married Ezra Autland. No children). There was another full Sister, Maggie, who grew up in Oklahoma, married Zib Mohler; had four children. For full information about this family suggest you write to a daughter (my first cousin) Mrs. M. J. Washburn, 314 Lenox Ave., Exeter, California (Box 523). Mention me.

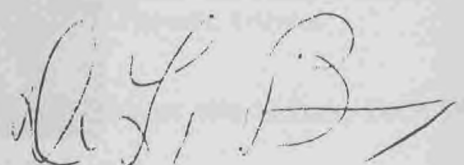

Do you have the names of the Burgards in Kansas City? How about Uncle Will and Aunt Amanda's daughter, Little Mary? I forget her married name. I believe last we heard, they were living in Fort Madison, Iowa.

This is a LARGE project you and your wife have undertaken! Best Wishes! Will send you the information about our daughters at a later date, when we have the information complete about their husbands.

Oh, yes, Orley Glen Davis, was my half-brother, as you indicated. When you write to my brother John, in Chicago, request that information from him. I do not have the information you desire there. I do know that the son is living in Chicago; doing well with at least four music stores. Address at home is not known by me for sure. John can give you that. The nephew's name is Glen William Davis. Likely a Chicago telephone directory would give the address, somewhere on West side. He had one sister, Pearl.

If any further aid is desired, please request same. When you go to Rockford, why not stop by and let's become better acquainted. Leave expressway at Apple Ave., exit, turn left (East) two blocks, turn right (South) for 3 short blocks; turn Left (East), Church is first building on north side of Catherine; parsonage is next bldg., drive in between the two, and ring bell at back door!

Yours,

Dear Friend: Mattie and Levi's two sons are Dan L. Blickenstaff, pastor of the Church of the Brethren in Muskegon, Michigan. And his brother John and wife live in Chicago. They would be Burgard descendants.
 If you would write to D. L. he could tell about their descendants. They have two married daughters. They and Orley Davis would be the end of Mattie Burgard family.

Annie Blickenstaff

Mattie Burgard daughter of John Burgard married Will Davis and had a son Orley Davis. Will Davis died and was buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery west of Astoria. Mattie (Martha Ellen) 2nd marriage was to Levi Blickenstaff whose wife had died leaving him with 2 children, Leo and Verna. Leo married and lives in California, Verna was a missionary in India for many years, when she retired located in Paradise, California. If you want to know more about Leo and Verna write to Verna Blickenstaff, Paradise, California (small town). Orley Davis married and had several children. He was a prominent public speaker. He died and was buried by his Father in the Oak Grove Cemetery west of Astoria. There is a small country church there.
 A nice cemetery, no regular services there now.

Levi and Mattie had two sons, D. L. Blickenstaff and John Blickenstaff, both married. John has no children, lives in Chicago, he is a photographer. D. L.'s have two girls, both married and have children. Rev.
 D. L. is pastor of a church. I don't have his latest address but will get it and send it on the address card.
 This written by Annie Blickenstaff, Astoria, Illinois. Sister-in-law of Mattie.

My dear cousin Maggie, Eli and family

Maggie I know you will never realize how glad I was for your letter for the way I treat you. I am growing more careless about writing so much depends on the only one woman of the home. You surely have a double amount of work, care, and worry. I know exactly how it is, and in one's old age when they need the best of care we don't get it. I don't think our mothers and grandmothers had it quite so hard. Things were so much different, things more plain, more simplified, oh why this terrible rush and worry all the time or aren't you being rushed on?

Yes I guess from the way your letter reads it is there nearly as bad as here. I hope Ezra's wife is better, poor young woman I often think of her and wonder how she is, you please let us hear as soon as you have time. I do know you are so busy that you can hardly see. I hope your limbs are better. Don't Eli complain of any soreness or stiffness, or is it only the milking and such like at chore time, Ha Ha. I am mean to tease him. My poor old man has such a bad sore on his right hand, he is just about sick with it, a big boil I guess is what it will be. Does Aunt Amanda ever call you? Call her for me if you can get her and tell her I said if she didn't write to me pretty soon I'd just either cry or write another letter.

Oh Maggie how this winter has slipped away, and oh what have we done. We get up at five every morning except Saturday and Sunday, then we should get up at four, but are too tired isn't that a shame, then it is nearly break neck speed till we can get ready for Sunday School and Church. So the world goes with us. The boys are so busy with their books. D. L. teaches 4 miles north of home has been driving all winter, sometimes in cart rig or pony back, has not walked yet. I think he could if there wasn't any other way, he seems to get along real good, one day he only had to whip 4. Ha, wasn't that too bad, they have been real nice to him since. I want to go to the Farmer's Institute tomorrow if I feel good enough, I have not been in town since Wednesday before New Years. I quit going to that doctor, I don't think that is what I need, my heart is not a great deal better, and my head bothers me so much, but maybe that I will go away. I dream about Lucy sometimes and I always see her so worried and trying to get things done. Oh Maggie it just seems as tho it can't be that she is gone, I just feel sometimes as tho I must get a letter from her. I want you folks to drive down sometime in your car, I am sure you will enjoy it. One of Levi's uncles was 84 years old. So we went over on Sunday and eat with them, all neighbors well except colds. Write soon as you feel that you can. I love to hear from you all. As ever

Mattie B.

Peoria, Illinois Friday morning

Mrs. Eli Burgard,

Dear Mrs. Burgard, I am feeling a little better this morning, slept well for part of the night, but did not rest very well latter part. My heart is about the same, but am not as nervous as I have been. I have not heard from Ezra, will you please call him and tell him to send me the Astoria paper. I have been moved three times, my room is number 336. When you call Ezra tell him to tell the neighbors to write because I can lay on my back and read. Write when you can, I received your letter was so glad to receive it.

Mrs. Altland

Written by Corda M. Diehl

Dear Mrs. Burgard I go in to Mrs. Altland's room every day. I am getting better think I can go home Monday if I keep on improving. Corda.

(These letters supplied to us by Mrs. Vera Evelyn Burgard Simpson S 60)

April 19, 1967.

Dear Mr. Corbridge:

I was happy to receive your letter last spring, although you may find that statement hard to believe considering the fact that I did not answer. Although my intentions were good, time slipped past. I seem to be forever going to school, even though I earned a master's degree not long ago and you would think that ought to be enough. What with this going to school, teaching, and keeping house — well, I never seem to get to the things I would really enjoy doing.

It is gratifying to know that both you and Mrs. Ross are doing research on the Burgards. I wonder if you ever learned the name of Uncle John Burgard's wife. It seems to me that her maiden name was "Saurbaugh." You might contact the Saurbaughs in the Astoria area — perhaps George Saurbaugh is still living. I recall hearing Aunt Manda Burgard (Uncle Will's wife) say that Uncle John's wife had a fiery temper. She ran off with a peddler, taking a small daughter with her. I assume this child was a full sister of Lucy and Mattie, the older girls. Uncle John apparently had a son, also, for I remember hearing my father say that Lucy, when about 14 or so, saw a bird flutter against the window. She thought this was a token. Later, they received the message that her brother, a young teen-ager, had been killed while hitching a ride on a train. Do you suppose Uncle Ben Burgard and this lad were together during any part of Uncle Ben's nomadic career? Speaking of Uncle Ben Burgard brings to my mind the letter you received from his younger son, Virgil, which I read when I last visited my sister, Clara. I thought it was wholly refreshing — it sounded as if he were telling it to us orally. I always was under the impression that Uncle Ben was a dynamic person who was able to fascinate people almost completely. His handwriting was lovely and he decorated his letters with beautiful birds etc.

Uncle John's wife, who ran away with a peddler, according to Aunt Manda's account (She told things vividly without distortion) settled in a western state. We had a family picture of Lucy and Mattie, with this younger sister, taken after the three were adults. They were re-united quite by coincidence. It seems that a neighbor of the youngest sister in the area to which her mother had taken her visited in the Astoria community. When she saw the Burgard sisters, Lucy and Mattie, she commented upon the close resemblance between them and this girl from whence she came. By this strange quirk of fate — chance, if you so choose to call it — they met their youngest sister, who then visited them. I believe this to be true, for we do — or did have a picture of the girls. Clara must have that picture, for I do not have it.

I have several photographs, which I will take to Fulton County, so that copies may be made. I imagine prints are cheaper there. I remember hearing someone say you can have pictures duplicated for fifty cents each. One picture is that of Lucy Hollinger Burgard Trone. Another is that of Uncle John Burgard; his daughter Lucy, with her husband, Ezra Atland; Uncle Will Burgard, with his wife, Aunt Manda, and their daughter, Mary, who was then a young lady.

Lucy Hollinger Burgard Trone seems to have been loved by all who knew her. My mother spoke of her with the greatest admiration and respect. My father said that she never became angry. Aunt Manda said that the Trone home was always a haven for homeless people. It seems that Aunt Manda's family, the Demy family, and the Trones, were close friends. She said that she worked as a "hired girl" in the Trone home when she was about thirteen, and that she had been "Struck dumb" with shyness, because there were always so many persons at the dining table. When I told this to Clara, she and I both laughed, for neither of us could remotely picture Aunt Manda being unable to talk because of shyness.

I believe that Mr. Trone had only a modest home — perhaps less than that — when he and Lucy Hollinger Burgard were united in marriage. I think he built the huge brick house, which is still standing, after their marriage. I know that he built the gigantic barn when my father was about two years of age, for I remember hearing that they found my father nearly at the top of a tall ladder on the barn, and were so afraid he would fall before they were able to rescue him. My father once said that his grandmother had a spinning wheel.

My father had fond memories of his life with the Trones — it was a gentle and a good life with gentle and good people. I believe that Mr. Trone often took my father with him on trips to town and the like. On one such occasion the harness broke and the buggy ran up onto the team of horses when he and grandfather were going down a steep hill — on the way to Bader, I believe.

Aunt Manda said that Lucy H. Burgard watched from a window of their home as her husband and son were buried in a nearby cemetery. They died of small pox. Uncle Will was a youngster whom she held in her arms while she watched. Later — perhaps three or four years later — when she married Mr. Trone, they found little Will, who had become used to sleeping with her, a pathetic figure huddled outside their bedroom door on the morning after their marriage. My father said that his grandparents passed through Chicago during the Chicago fire in October 1871, as they returned from their "honeymoon" to Pennsylvania (or "back" east) as Astorians say.

Although I was very fond of Uncle Will and Aunt Manda, I always had the distinct feeling that their daughter Mary was a snob. I found her children to be quite friendly, however, although I met them but twice. Mattie and Lucy Burgard were extremely warm and friendly, but, again, I have the feeling that Mattie's children were not particularly friendly. It always seemed to me that Orley Davis, Mattie's oldest son who was an able orator, preferred to dis-associate himself from his South Fulton County relatives. He had a cousin — a Davis — who was mayor of Canton, Illinois, at one time, and I understood they communicated with each other. Mattie was extremely affectionate when she greeted my father at Uncle Will's funeral, and I could see it was a genuine affection and that she was an unassuming and good person.

Mary Burgard was well trained on the piano and played well. My impressions of Mary Burgard Falkenstein and Mattie's children may not be shared by anyone else — Clara seems to have liked Mary Burgard a great deal, and I know that she selected two names for my brother Harold from which my parents chose the name they gave him. I know that Mary, for her entire life, regretted her lack of a college education in keeping with her husband's, and, no doubt, with the people surrounding them, for Dwight Falkenstein was a successful man with a responsible position. Possibly she wanted to remove that part of her which she thought was common, along with her family connections which reminded her of the simple life from which she had come. Although Aunt Manda was of a large family, I believe that Mary completely removed herself from a close relationship with them. I know that my brothers were pall-bearers at both Uncle Will's and Aunt Manda's funerals and the Demy family and their descendants were not prominently represented.

I was born on June 2, 1914. On November 25, 1938, I was married to Guy L. Simpson. A daughter, Veda, was born on June 21, 1950. She is a senior in high school, a member of the National Honorary Society, and she ranks in the top 1% in both the A.C.T. and S.A.T. college entrance examinations. She is an honorary winner of an Illinois scholarship, as a result of these tests. She has an unusual talent in art, and is considered to be outstanding in English, also.

In Veda, as well as in several of my nieces and nephews, I see a scholastic aptitude and an ability to excel in the arts, aptitudes and abilities so apparent in the Burgards of Uncle Will's generation. In Veda, and in my nieces and nephews, too, I see other fine qualities which Uncle Will's generation, in general, possessed.

Again I wish to tell you how sorry I am to have delayed writing you. But time seems to slip away from me so fast. After I finish this letter, I must get busy doing a report for a class I am in at the moment.

I do not know how much of the information I have given you can safely be included in your book. I feel that all of it is factual, for I always enjoyed hearing Aunt Manda tell about the past, but I am not sure how much present generations can bear to hear about past generations.

Yours sincerely,
Signed-Vera Burgard Simpson.

Sunday April 23rd.

Dear Mr. Corbridge;

I am sending you the pictures that I have in which you will be interested. I am not sure who the young girl is in the tin type, but she is not a relative of my mother, possibly the person whom you have employed to help you in your research can identify her.

I am including, also, two letters. We are just lucky to have them, for Clara, who is a born "housekeeper," among other things, can't stand junk cluttering up a place. How they escaped her hand I'll never know. She burned our priceless collection of music rolls because the player piano no longer worked, and more than once my father grumbled because she had confiscated some of his comfortable old clothing and made him buy new! But I agree with her in theory; there is nothing like accumulated odds and ends no longer useful to clutter up a place.

Lucy Atland died in the early 'twenties. My mother went by train with her to a Peoria hospital. Corda Diehl, who still resides at Ipava, Illinois, wrote the letter Lucy sent to my mother. Corda probably could give you a great deal of valuable information about the family. The letter from Mattie was received, of course, shortly after Lucy's death. Amanda, of Mattie's letter, was Aunt Manda, Uncle Will's wife. Ezra, in Lucy's letter, penned by Corda, was Ezra Atland, Lucy's husband. Ezra, in Mattie's letter at one place, refers to my brother, whose wife had gall bladder trouble (or something) at that time. I am sending you Mattie's obituary.

Aunt Manda was the person whom I remember most vividly. She was extremely clever and an interesting conversationalist. She and Uncle Will were priceless people. Aunt Manda had uncanny insight and a special ability to be, and to say, whatever the occasion demanded. I remember her lively dark eyes as though it were yesterday that I last saw them.

To this day I have never met people more genuinely refined and naturally aristocratic than Uncle Will and Aunt Manda Burgard, nor yet, at the same time, more kindly and friendly. As I said before, Mary was so different, I thought. Mary's daughter, Jane Louise, went to a movie with me once in Astoria. I was hatless — to wear a hat there on a summer night was completely out of place, especially for a 'teen-ager. Jane nearly wept as she pleaded with her mother not to wear a hat, but, in the end, she left the house wearing a hat! Aunt Manda enjoyed the scene between Mary and Jane Louise tremendously, but she had the good grace not to intervene for Jane, although that's where her sympathies lay! Aunt Manda knew that kids, unless they dared appear affected, seldom wore hats to movies in Astoria, and never in summer, spring or autumn — unless it was a new one waiting to be showed off!

Aunt Manda had a natural sense of the "right" thing to say or do. My mother, during her fatal illness, said in effect that she and Aunt Manda had enjoyed a long talk — a talk in which they faced the fact of my mother's death so soon to follow. "It was a good talk", my mother said. "I feel better now about many things."

It was indeed a privilege and pleasure to know Aunt Manda and Uncle Will Burgard.

Sincerely,
Signed — Vera Simpson

THE GENTZLER BRANCH OF THE HOLLINGER FAMILY LINE

January 30, 1969

Dear Cousins:

I have been sick and still am going to see my Doctor. So I am not able to answer your questions, but will send one of our family trees, and what information you want besides this let me know, when I get better I will do my best to give you the information you want. We may be able to get you one of our latest family trees. Grandpa Gentzler was a school teacher and died when he was only 40 years old, left Grandma with 9 children and heavy in debt, but she and the children payed the debts and had a nice home. Which we bought from her and we were married in her home and our youngest boy was born in the house. Where grandmother owned she bought a home in Portis right across the street from Uncle Mike and Aunt Leah Burgard lived, after Uncle Mike died Aunt Leah and our grandmother spent much of their time, Aunt Leah was just lost after Grandma passed away as she lived to be in her 90's, as you know Grandma Hollinger was almost 97 I believe I loved Aunt Leah as she had one of the sweetest dispositions of anyone I ever knew. I went to Kansas in 58 and had a lovely visit with Nellie Burgard Fisher. And John Burgards only daughters and husband were both killed a couple weeks ago from fumes in their refrigerator, that made me feel so bad I liked John so well as he had Aunt Leahs sweet disposition but he had a wife that was not nearly as good as he was, Homer had a nice wife I don't think there are many of Homer's children left I know of one Frank, and Paul died not to many years ago, you would of loved Aunt Leah if you could have known her, and one of the best house keepers and cooks, Grandma was also a good cook and house keeper. She would always have Thanksgiving and have all of us at her home, of all the good times we used to have. I always helped her with her house cleaning. I stayed out of school 14 weeks once when she fell and broke her arm. I only had two boys of my own but we raised Uncle Al Gentzlers baby when his first wife died. She lives here in Caldwell. Uncle Als second wife died of cancer the 29th of last July which brought lots of sadness in our home. We were in business 21 years here in Caldwell, run a dairy for several years and a chicken hatchery for a number of years. My dear husband passed away 20 years the 13th of this April he was a wonderful husband and I have a lady who lives with me she has been here since January 11, 1960. I had another lady who lived with me for nine years and she passed away. Would love to see you all and have a good visit. Love and best wishes — Maude Burwell.

HOLLINGER DRUG STORE

Lloyd L. Hollinger P.H.G. — Russell, Kansas 67665 — 1 May 1968

Dear Mr. Corbridge:

I received your letter this morning and hope I can straighten out somewhat this Hollinger family. Dean is our nephew, and his Dad lives here in Russell. He was just home a couple weeks back, and is so very interested in Hollinger lineage, and is working on it. So I gave him your name and address for him to write to, and thought between you, that you both might be able to work something out.

Now, I am a little confused with what information I gave you in my previous letter, but I would say Dean would have it more correct. I don't think I gave you my immediate family, as I thought you wanted my father's family, and am almost certain I didn't give you my own family, but here it is:

Mother: Edna Grace Himes

Father: Albert Clayton Hollinger

Children: Mildred Theone Hollinger Mounts

Ray Dean Hollinger

Lloyd Lavallo Hollinger

Children: Ralph Willard Hollinger

Harold Albert Hollinger

Esther Maurine Hollinger Biays

Clayton Russell Hollinger

Now if you'd like the children's name of my brothers and sisters, I will be most happy to give them to you, so please feel free to write.

We are going to California in June, and will possibly see Dean enroute, in Denver, so will also take this up with him.

Hope this sets the record straight, as I thought you wanted my father's brothers and sisters.

Yours sincerely,

DEAN A. HOLLINGER

O. D. & Elizabeth Corbridge
P. O. Box 405
Gulliver, Michigan 49840

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Corbridge,

Undoubtedly you are wondering why you received a letter from me, a person whom you have never heard of up until now. Let me explain the reason for this letter.

I understand that Mrs. Corbridge's maiden name is Hollinger, the same as mine. I am in the process of tracing my name and relation connected with it, in order to verify if a coat of arms was ever established for the name of HOLLINGER. From the composite information, I hope to compile an accurate history of the family. I am a novice at this but decided to give it a 'good college try' as the Denver Public Library has an excellent genealogical section and has already proved very helpful.

Let me say right now, it is a possibility that we are not related at all, but any information is very interesting and helpful.

Enclosed is a short history of what I have found to date. If you can fill in any of the blanks, please do so and return in the stamped self-addressed envelope. If the history shown doesn't match yours, please disregard and I am very sorry to have troubled you.

Very sincerely yours,

LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS January 30th, 1969

Mr. O. D. Corbridge:

Frank Burgard telephoned and asked me if I knew the Gentzler family, that he had met only Russell who lived in K.C. Mo. that he tried to telephone and could not reach him. Frank asked me to write to you and to tell you what I remembered about them. I left the Burgards the year 1908. What I write to you is what I remember of the family before that date and facts about the Gentzler family which Leah Burgard often talked about. She and Lizzie were very close and they spent a lot of time helping each other. The Gentzler family lived near the Hollinger family in York, Penna. Elizabeth Hollinger married son Solomon. He fought in the civil war, a Union Soldier. After the war they migrated to Kansas and homesteaded in Smith County. Solomon had a brother (I never heard his name) who moved to Washington County, Kansas. I remember his daughter Ada when she visited Aunt Lizzie (early 90's). Solomon Gentzler became depressed and committed suicide by taking poison, they found him by a small creek where he had crawled evidently for water. Elizabeth was left with this large family. She had a wonderful constitution and managed to do a very splendid job caring for them. The death of Solomon and daughter Maggie happened before the Michael Burgards migrated to Kansas 1884. One time Maude Burwell wrote me and asked me to write and tell them everything I could remember hearing about the Hollinger family and grandmother Elizabeth. She said they had traced the Gentzler family.

Am sorry that I cannot give you exact dates. What I've written cannot be proven by me. It would take some members of the Gentzler family to do so. If I could go with you to the Crystal Plains Cemetery I could lead you directly to the various family plots.

Saw in the D.A.R. National Magazine your query about the Hollinger-Burgards. Hope you were able to get some results. The three Burgard Sisters live near me. Saw Daisy the other day. She looks more like her Mother. Its hard to talk to her. She should wear a hearing aid. Ruth is going strong, spends a lot of the time with her sister Josephine who is partially paralyzed. The three sisters are very devoted to each other and their church.

We are having severe winter in this part of the state. Have been snow-bound for a couple of weeks. Snow and frozen rain. Will not venture outside for if I should fall, there would be no one to pick up the pieces.

Laura Leah (Burgard) Barnes and William C. Barnes of 5421 Northern St. K.C. Mo. were found dead in their beds December 9th 1968. They apparently died of carbon monoxide poisoning. Laura had been an invalid for about seven years. Suffered from Parkinsons disease and was blind. William was completely worn out from her care. When they came to see me last summer William said he could not keep on much longer. He was such a good person. Mention this because I do not know if Frank Burgard told you about his cousin. If it were murder and suicide I would not criticize. There was no one who would help him in anyway and he worshiped Laura. How tragic.

Sincerely,

Alma Caldwell

Caldwell, Idaho December 1968

Dear Nellie:

The Frost of Autumn has turned the leaves to red and yellow and the wind has blown them away, all except the ones we had to rake, and now the Christmas season is approaching and the end of another year.

Sorrow and joys have come, as is the way of life, but we have been blessed with good health, even though we are slowing down with the years. Ernest is building and always seems to have a job ahead but we manage to take time off to make life interesting.

About the middle of January, 1968 we went to California to visit Keiths and others. The Highlight was a trip to Hearst's Castle with friends, the Thomas's.

Ardath Ann and family moved back to Santa Cruz in February as the man quit, who had leased their Venetian Blind and Awning shop, so their stay in Idaho was short.

Two of Keith's daughters, Linda 13, and Marcia 8, came by plane and spent three weeks with us in July. They helped us pick out a new Impala Chevrolet and we took them to meet their folks at Lake Tahoe for a few days. We visited Ardath Anns and went on to my niece, Ardath Ellsworth at Los Alamitos. We had the pleasure of attending the wedding of Kurtis Naylor's oldest daughter, Merrylye, at LaVern and a visit with Kurtis and family.

Carl and Alma Caldwell of Portis, Kansas visited us in August and we went to the Oregon Coast for a few sunny days in spite of the unusual rainfall here, which broke an eighty year record.

The big news is that Keith and family moved to Perth, Australia, November 16th. He is a Project engineer for Bechtel Engineering Company of San Francisco, who is engineering a Nickel Refinery there.

We made our third trip to California this year just before they left. They had Santa give us a tape recorder for Christmas and we have enjoyed hearing of their trip by using it. They have a two year assignment and are expecting to have an interesting experience "Down Under". We were happy to have our entire family together on Sunday at Walnut Creek, California, before they left. We spent a few days at Ardath Ann's before coming home.

It's always a pleasure to greet you
And Christmas just adds one more reason
To hope that you are healthy and happy
And wish you the joys of the season.

Even though you don't know our family, thought you might enjoy our Christmas letter. Keith's called us last night Dec. 20 from Perth — could hear them well. Mr. Corbridge of Rockford, Ill. sent me the Hollinger record, from 1464. Hope you are well.

Love, Ernest and Gladys (Naylor) Hook

Caldwell, Idaho October 16, 1967

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Corbridge:

My cousin Maude Burwell asked if I would fill out the forms you sent. Even though she is very alert for her 83 years (Dec. 25, 1967) she says it would worry her to try to fill them out, but she gave me the information. As you can see I also work on the genealogy. I am enclosing the family record of Maude's and my grandparents as Grand Mother Elizabeth was of the Hollinger line. Her Father Joseph was evidently the twin brother of John (Should be Benj.) that you mentioned.

I would be very interested in receiving the record of the Jacob Hollinger family. Most of my research has been information that Maude has, and she has a wonderful memory and the only one left that can give it to me. We have records of the Gentzler family back to pre-revolutionary times and know that they came from Hesse Darmstadt, Germany. We haven't any records of the Hollinger family except the names of Grandmother Elizabeth Gentzler's parents.

My husband and I were born, raised and married (1926) in Kansas and lived there until we moved to Idaho in 1947. He is a contractor by trade.

Our son Keith lives at Walnut Creek, California and he works in San Francisco as an engineer for the Bechtol Co. They have 3 girls and 1 boy.

Our daughter has just moved here from California as her husband's father passed away and they moved to the family home here. They have four boys.

Perhpas you noticed that my mother married two William Naylor. Her first husband died from scarlet fever when they were married less than a year. He was from Missouri. Four years later she married my father who was from Illinois. They did not know of any relationship but probably were as the first family record that I have found had 16 children 1794-1821.

I have been accused of being a Mormon because of my interest in our genealogy but we are Presbyterians. Maude belongs to the Christian Church. My husband has done work for the Mormons as there are many here and are good friends.

It would be nice if we could meet and hope you can make a trip to Idaho to see us. My sister Myrtle Hill lived in and near Chicago for years as her husband was a school teacher, taught in Marengo, Niles Center and Chicago for 30 years. He died shortly after retiring in 1950. She died in 1959. A son Dr. Iden Hill lives in Glenn Ellyn, Illinois. We have been there many times.

My Brother Rev. Lewis Naylor passed away August 31, 1967. Their home was in Denver. I have one brother George Naylor at Portis, Kansas.

I haven't seen Nellie Burgard Fisher for many years but enjoy hearing from her. She also gave me some information when I was working on our history. Surely hope this information will be helpful to you.

Sincerely,

BW. Elizabeth Hollinger.....M. Solomon Gentzler.

NB. Michael BradleyB. 4 April 1966 Sandusky, Ohio.

KEY TO INDEX

The JOHN BURGARD line numbers each person consecutively beginning with ONE.

The SAMUEL BURGARD line numbers each person consecutively beginning with S ONE.

The INDEX for both of these lines are in one alphabetical listing.

The separate HOLLINGER INDEX lists both page and individual person alphabetically.

The WOMEN will be listed under their MAIDEN names in the INDEX, however their husbands will be shown only on their family entry page.

Therefore, only the children are INDEXED under the FATHER'S family name.
