DEDICATION.

This history is dedicated to the descendants of Nicholas Beery No. 1, who manifested a very active part in furnishing me with many points of interest, including valuable information.

These contributors are legion, who, for their efficient work, many thanks are due.

INTRODUCTION.

Where do you find an intelligent people who would postpone any secular work or business transaction for 200 years, with an evident prospect of never having it accomplished? This is precisely what has been neglected in producing a written history long ago of Nicholas Beery and his many thousands of descendants.

The author acknowledges that deep down in his heart he has an insuppressible feeling that we should do honor and reverence to our dear and worthy ancestors, who paved the way for our American liberties and our Christian privileges, and our present prosperity. I very much doubt whether there is one in a thousand of the readers of this history who even thinks of, or appreciates the blessings that have come to us through the emigration to America of our dear old ancestor, Nicholas Beery, of 1727.

He, with thousands of others who were compelled by the Swiss government to do military service and who entertained non-resistant principles, left that domain and came to America, where religious liberty was promised to them by William Penn, through whose tireless and angelic efforts these conscientious and harmless people were sheltered in Pennsylvania.

Because of persecution and oppression in Switzerland a large body of Mennonites fled from the cantons of Zurich, Berne and Schaffhausen to Pennsylvania, where they purchased a large body of timber land of Penn's agents in Lancaster and other counties, where, among the Indians and wild beasts, the Swiss settlement formed a nucleus or center of a rapidly-increasing Swiss, German and French colony.

Scarcely had these sturdy Mennonites made many improvements, when in 1719 they sent Martin Kindig as a commissioner to Germany and Switzerland to induce others to come to Pennsylvania, in which he was successful.

From 1700 to 1730 the influx was so great as to call forth public attention, but finding that these harmless people were a great source of benefit to the country the objections were withdrawn. They were those of whom Governor Thomas of Pennsylvania in 1738 said: "This province has for some years been the asylum for the distressed Protestants of Switzerland and Germany, and I believe it may truthfully be said that the present flourishing condition of our country is due to the economy and industry of these harmless and law-abiding people."

It is very evident that Nicholas Beery and his early descendants had braved the danger of settling in the wilderness among wild beasts, including some occasional savage Indians, besides the inconvenience of pioneer life.

For instance, the plow with the wooden moldboard; the harness made of hickory withes; the wheels of cut blocks without tires; the hoe, and the reap hook; these few things constituted the farming outfit. The log cabins were constructed, perhaps, without a single nail, and if the cabin had any window, perhaps greased paper or skins did service instead of glass. There were no cook stoves, no sewing machines, no pianos, no fine clothing nor ruffles, etc. These humble people had no opportunity to get such luxuries, neither did they want them.

The men were engaged in clearing the forest and tilling their small fields, while the women found employment, not only in their household duties, but in operating the hemp and flax break, the spinning wheel and the loom that produced the linsey and tow linen which clothed the young men and maidens when they appeared at the marriage altar.

Their plain, healthful diet, in a changeable way, was

Mush and milk for supper, and,
Milk and mush for breakfast.

All these things occurred long before the "dude" was born and before the existence of the tramp, the pick-pocket, the "grafter," the robber and the murderer. What a great contrast in 200 years! We are led to believe that in too many cases prosperity is the ruination of many people as well as nations.

Among the Beerys there are today thousands of descendants, scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Alaska and Canada to Florida and Texas, and the great majority of them are a fine people, who in the past as well as the present are devoting their lives to religious principles. They are included among the various vocations of the business and professional world. We find ministers of the Gospel in the various denominations of today, as well as doctors, lawyers, teachers, farmers and intelligent, educated men and women in vast numbers.

To return to my ancient notes: I must not fail to say that since the year 1606 millions have left their homes in the old countries, which to them was the dearest spot on earth, to which their hearts often returned with sadness for their oppressed loved ones who were left on the dark continent, many of whom were old and not able to endure the perilous journey. These were separations for life.

Religious persecutions and political oppressions brought millions to America, and from 1682 to 1776 Pennsylvania was the central point of immigrants from Switzerland and Germany. Penn's liberal views and the liberal attitude of the government of New York toward them induced them to come to this colonial province.

Is there any question in your mind, dear reader, as to what your condition would have been had our ancestors remained in that tyrannical country, instead of making it possible for us to enjoy the prosperity of American liberty?

May we in thankfulness aspire to everything that is worthy of Christian honor and good, and may we never forsake the virtues of our aged parents, and bring shame and reproach upon an honored name.

The Germans, Swiss, French and Dutch formed the greatest portions of the first settlements in Pennsylvania and were the ancestors of the toiling millions of today, the ancestors of the now rich and poor, the ancestors of the honored men and the criminal, the Presidents and their cabinets, the Christian and the infidel, the millionaire and the pauper, all miscellaneously mixed up in this world's business matters, and many of whom, and especially the ungodly, seldom, perhaps never, entertain a single thought of thankfulness to their ancestors who cared for them, and much less to the God who created and preserved them.

JOSEPH H. WENGER.

PREFACE.

The progenitor of this vast Beery History and lineage dates back to Switzerland, over 200 years ago. It is very strange, and also to be regretted, that no one of this intelligent lineage, and the descendants of the last two centuries, considered it a worthy deed to produce a family history of these noted, intelligent and God-fearing sons and daughters of this ancient pioneer, Nicholas Beery.

A. W. Dupler, a young descendant, formerly of Thornville, Ohio, but later of Huntingdon College, Pa., had made an effort to secure some points; but through the pressure of ministerial and college work the undersigned has been authorized to undertake the tedious and difficult task and produce it in book form.

The beginning of my efforts upon this work finds me past the 73rd milestone of life, and undoubtedly I may not live to see it completed; yet I will cheerfully do what I can. However, you will readily perceive that I am a self-educated man and rather in a limited way; therefore do not expect any polish or fluence in my work.

THE AUTHOR.

A FEW FACTS.

The author, who has written the Wenger History from 1727 to 1903, as also the Abraham Beery (my ancestor) history, from Switzerland, from 1718 to 1905, is of the opinion that there is not one in a thousand of the readers who realize the amount of work connected with writing a family history, reaching over a space of 200 years; from Switzerland to Colonial America and down to the present time, and especially so, when many of the descendants have passed away and the remainder are scattered to all points of the compass.

In order to accomplish this difficult work it was necessary to gain all information entirely through the mails. The first difficult point was to obtain the names and addresses of any one to whom I could write for the necessary information. The descendants were to be hunted up, grandfathers and grandmothers were interviewed, family Bibles, old documents and public records were searched, and the reader may imagine the multitude of letters of inquiry that were sent over the United States.

The author has traveled over thirty-five States, besides Canada and Old Mexico, and has found Wengers and Beerys in all except the latter.

The descendants are numerous and if in this history a few errors occur, as a matter of fact in nine cases out of ten they are due to the illegible writing of those who sent in their points of information.

Where there are entire omissions of families or persons, or dates, it is positively due to their failure to respond to my continued calls. Some to whom I have written for information pay no attention to my requests, neither do they answer my inquiries. To such I would say that I must politely leave them out of the history.

EXPLANATION.

No. 10 means the tenth family recorded. Third generation means the third step from the ancestor down. The figure 8, following the word generation, refers you back to No. 8, where the parents are found. (1) (2) (3) indicates the order of their birth in the family from which they came. After the name, and date of birth comes No. 20, which indicates where his family of children are recorded farther on.

Use numbers; pay no attention to pages. For example—take some of your best known relations.

Part One

NICHOLAS BEERY

No. 1. First Generation.

The subject of this sketch, and the progenitor of this vast history, was born in Switzerland in 1707, possibly in the vicinity of Berne or the Wenger Alps (see map). From birth to early in 1727 his history is blank, except that at the age of 20 years, he, like all other able-bodied young men, was compelled by the laws of that country to do service in the government army. For a minor transgression of army rules he was to undergo a court martial trial, and it was expected that punishment would have to be inflicted upon him; but, through the kindness of some of his friends, he was secretly conveyed quite a distance in a barrél to the port of Rotterdam, in Holland, where he took ship to America.

During those years many thousands suddenly left that domain, believing in non-resistance and that war was contrary to gospel principles. Mr. Beery's church relation is not positively known, but his descendants were strongly non-resistant Menmonites and Dunkard Brethren. Many of them were able ministers in those two denominations.

Nothing can be learned of his parents or ancestors, nor anything to antedate his birth, over 200 years ago. As stated, he sailed on June 20, 1727, from Rotterdam, Holland, on the old-style sailing vessel of that date, and four months later, on Oct. 16, 1727, he reached the port of Philadelphia, Pa., where in the emigrant registry of that place he is found as Nicholas ^{His} ~~X~~ Beery, which ^{Mark} is an evidence that he could at least not write his name in the English language.

The ship upon which he sailed was called the "Friend Ship," with about 200 passengers on board, and during that long and dangerous voyage many were sick and a number died.

Soon after his arrival in Pennsylvania he settled in Adams county (some say Berks county). In 1736 Abraham Beery came from Switzerland and settled at the same place with Nicholas (See Abraham Beery History), and we now have the evidence that they were brothers.

Tradition says that three stalwart, robust Beery brothers at different dates came from Switzerland to Pennsylvania. The third brother, William Beery, went south and settled in North Carolina. Nothing farther was known of him or his descendants for nearly 200 years, when, in a mysterious way, in 1909 they were located, and now the available points of information concerning their lineage will be included in this present history, which completes the lineage of the aforesaid three brothers; the Abraham Beery History having been completed by the same author in 1905.

In later years, perhaps 1780 or 1785, Nicholas and his brother Abraham in their old age settled in the Shenandoah Valley, near Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Va., where some of their children had previously settled, and where these old brothers spent the remainder of their lives. The date of Nicholas' death is not known, but he is supposed to be buried at the Trissel Mennonite church cemetery, north of Edom, Rockingham County, Va., as he lived in that vicinity. Abraham, who was born in Switzerland in 1718, and died May 2, 1799, was buried at Union church cemetery, near his home at Cross Keys, five miles southeast of Harrisonburg, Rockingham County, Va., where over a hundred years later, in 1903, his descendants placed neat tombstones.

So many of these incidents occurred about 200 years ago, and the reader must not be alarmed to know that perhaps some points of interest are not available. And again it may be possible that a few of the dates of the old ancestors may differ from what some of the readers may presume; as in a few cases the information conflicts, but the author is careful to quote only from the best authorities.

It is also ascertained that other Beerys at different dates registered at Philadelphia. Therefore we may find other Beerys whom we can not even link to the lineage of the three foregoing brothers, for instance:

Peter Beery, Sr., and Peter Beery, Jr., came Sept. 15, 1748.

Johannes Heinrich Beery, came Oct. 26, 1767.

Jacob Beery, came Sept. 17, 1771.

And other Beerys, came in 1772.

I have at present no evidence when nor whom Nicholas married; nor whether he had any other children besides one son whom we call Nicholas No. 2. Later tradition says that Nicholas No. 2 had a brother, Jacob. (See No. 9.)

No. 2. Second Generation. 1.

1) Nicholas Beery, born in Pennsylvania, June 16, 1739; died near Bremen, Ohio, Feb. 16, 1811.

The subject of this sketch was born in Adams Co., Pa. (Some say in Berks Co.) Later in life he came to the Shenandoah Valley, near Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va., where he and his family lived many years. He married Elisabeth Keller, by whom he had twelve children. Later, and in Virginia, in 1789, he married Mrs. Mary Good, nee Gro, who was born in Rockingham Co., Va., in 1756, and died near Bremen, Fairfield Co., Ohio, Oct. 31, 1840. Four children by the second marriage; total 16, all married except one and had families. In those days the Beerys were stalwart and prolific.

Nicholas Beery, No. 2, died Feb. 16, 1811, and is buried in the Miller cemetery, about one mile southeast of Berne Station, near Lancaster, Fairfield Co., Ohio.

In 1805 he, with a portion of his family, emigrated from Virginia to the above named place, where some of his older children had previously settled. Some say that he entered a section of land; others claim that he entered from the government, in John Q. Adams' administration, sixteen sections of wild timber land, equal to 10,240 acres, on Raccoon Creek, in Fairfield Co., not far from Bremen, upon which he built a cabin, sawmill and flouring mill. These sixteen sections of land were equal to his sixteen children. Tradition has it that the old Beery generations were very prolific families, which can evidently be noticed by their history, and up to about the year 1800 Rockingham Co., Va., rocked the cradle for the large family of Nicholas Beery, No. 2. Besides those of his uncle, Abram Beery, children and grandchildren. (See Abe Beery History of 1905.)

It seems that previous to the year 1800 and later, Rockingham Co., Va., was flooded with Beerys of the same names; preferably, Abraham, Nicholas, Daniel, George, John, etc., and for distinction they called them, Big, Little, Tall, Short, Black, Red, Old, Young, Fuller, Muddy Creek, Hog and Lazy, etc.

As previously stated, in 1805 Nicholas, with his large family, besides some of his cousins, came as a flood to Bremen, Ohio, where the Beery cradle has been rocking for over a hundred years, and still continues, not only in Ohio, but all over the United States.

Some of the descendants of Nicholas, No. 2, think that he was a member of the Dunkard Brethren or Mennonite church.

The following is the family of Nicholas Beery, No. 2, who are the ancestors of this vast lineage:

1. John Beery, b. Nov. 4, 1765. No. 3.
2. Jacob Beery, b. 1766. No. 4.
- *3. Barbara Beery, b. April 6, 1764. No. 4¼.
4. Elizabeth Beery, b. April 11, 1771. No. 4½.
5. Abraham Beery, b. July 20, 1773, No. 5.
6. Mary Beery, b. Sept. 4, 1775. No. 6.
7. Israel Beery, b. June 10, 1777. No. 7.
8. Nicholas Beery, b. 1780. Said to have died in infancy.

*Failed to get Barbara in rotation of births on account of the miscellaneous information.

Reports differ; some claim July 20, 1775. The births of the above family were very difficult to procure until a very late date.

9. George Beery, b. 1783. No. 8.
10. Susan Beery, b. Oct. 4, 1785. No. 9.
11. Martha Beery, b. 1787. No. 10.
12. Henry Beery, b. 1788. No. 12.

13. Joseph Beery, b. Feb. 8, 1790. No. 15.
14. Christian Beery, b. Aug. 1, 1792. No. 16.
15. Margaret Beery, b. June 15, 1795. No. 17.
16. Francis Beery, b. 1796. No. 18.

A Review.

*It is worthy of note that the children and some of the grandchildren, of Nicholas Beery, No. 2, were born near Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va., the former home of the author.

For the interest of the Beery descendants, I would say that the above county was in 1777 formed from Augusta Co., which at that time included what are now known as many counties, reaching several hundred miles west to the Ohio River, the hunting grounds of the Indians.

Rockingham county is in the central part of the Shenandoah Valley, ranging from thirty to fifty miles in width and over a hundred miles in length. It is bounded on the east by the Blue Ridge Mountains and on the west by the Alleghanies. Harrisonburg, the county seat, was founded in 1780 by Mr. Thomas Harrison, who donated the site for the first court house.

The most important part of this sketch is that the sixteen children of Nicholas, No. 2, as well as of his descendants, were born and reared in the above vicinity. When as a flood, soon after 1800, they removed to Bremen, Fairfield County, Ohio, they soon became so numerous that fictitious names had to be resorted to in order to distinguish one from the other. At one time nearly everything in Rockingham Co. was Beery, and later Bremen, Ohio, rocked the Beery cradle, and still continues. Yet many of the Beerys have scattered to many parts of the United States.—J. H. W.

Copy of the Will of Nicholas Beery, No. 2. Bearing Date of May 15, 1811.

"In the name of God, amen. I, Nicholas Beery, of the State of Ohio and County of Fairfield, being weak in body but of sound mind and understanding; blessed be God for the same; do make this, my last will and testament . . . First, I direct that my just debts shall be paid. I then bequeath to my wife, Mary Beery, the one-third of the home farm . . . so long as she remains my widow, and in case she marries again she is to have one-third of the annual rent. I authorize my executors to have said farm and appurtenances valued by twelve disinterested freeholders, and from such appraisement value the one-third of the rent or interest shall go to my said wife during her natural life. I likewise bequeath to her one milch cow of her choice, one bed and bedding, two sheep, one bake oven, one pot, one set of knives and forks, and one-half dozen plates, and the remaining part of my estate shall be equally divided among my children, excepting the land, which I give and bequeath to my son, Joseph Beery, 150 acres of the home farm, to be his own at his mother's death. During her widowhood and while she lives in the mansion house he is to have the use of the farm and pay her one-third of the profits, which in case of her remarriage, the remaining two-thirds are to be paid to my daughter, Rebecca *Beery, to be conveyed by my son, Jacob Beery, with other lands therein specified. And I give and bequeath unto my son, Christian Beery, the one-fourth section of land lying on the south side of Rush Creek, and the first money that can be collected shall be taken to pay said quarter section, as also the quarter section on which my son, Abraham Beery, now resides.

"Lastly, I appoint my trusty friends, John Beery and William Trumble, to be my executors of this, my last will, hereby revoking all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 15th day of May, 1811.

*Her descendants call her Frances. It may have been Rebecca Frances.

"Signed, sealed, and published in the presence of witnesses; George Hensel, (Translated), Nicholas Toppel, (Translated), Nicholas Beery."

No. 3. Third Generation. 2.

1) John Beery was born in Rockingham Co., Va., Nov. 4, 1765, and died in Fairfield Co., Ohio, May 31, 1850. Margaret Shafer, born in Rockingham Co., Va., Dec. 10, 1765; died March 31, 1845; married March 15, 1788. They were buried in a small family graveyard on the farm now owned by Isaiah Driver, a short distance north of North Berne, Fairfield Co., Ohio. In 1805 they, with hundreds of others, at different dates, emigrated to Fairfield Co., Ohio, which at that time was the only West, and abounded in timber, Indians and wild beasts. The popular and only mode of travel of these emigrants was team, covered wagons, and camping outfit. Mr. Beery and his brothers and ancestors were a stout, robust set of people. He was a kind-hearted man and was said to never have given a cross word to any one, not even to his enemies. He owned a fine farm on Upper Raccoon Creek in Fairfield Co., now owned by the heirs of Lewis Beery.

At the age of 80 years and during the same year that his first wife died, he married a Mrs. Blosser, of Bremen, Ohio, with whom he lived about four years until his death. They were members of the Mennonite church. For distinction Mr. Beery was called Red John.

2. Elizabeth Beery, b. July 4, 1791, Lion. No. 345.
3. Henry Beery, b. Oct. 2, 1793, Virgin. Died Nov. 2, 1793.
4. John A. Beery, b. July 19, 1795, Virgin. No. 346.
5. David Beery, b. July 31, 1797, Scorpion. No. 347.

*The above constellations were very popular in stating dates of births among our German ancestors in Virginia a hundred years ago.

6. Abraham W. Beery, b. Dec. 12, 1799, Twins. No 348.
7. Katharine Beery, b. April 15, 1802, Lion. Died May 17, 1802.
8. Margaret Beery, b. Sept. 26, 1804, Crab. Died Dec. 12, 1804.
9. Noah W. Beery. b. Sept. 14, 1806, Balances. No. 349.

For the benefit of the descendants of the foregoing John Beery, I would state that Dr. A. Beery, of Rushville, Fairfield Co., Ohio, a great-grandson of the above John Beery, is in possession of a photo of John; also of John's son, Abraham W., No. 348, as well as Abraham's son, Amos. It is possible that if the descendants apply to Dr. Beery, many copies could be drawn from the original three photos. (Joseph H. Wenger, South English, Iowa.)

No. 4. Third Generation. 2.

2) Jacob Beery was born in Rockingham Co., Va., late in the year 1766, and died near McCutchenville, Wyandot county, Ohio, Feb. 12, 1842. He married Nancy *Geil (not Kyle), of German ancestry, in 1795. She was born in Pennsylvania in April, 1775, and died Nov. 9, 1850. Both are buried in the Bibler cemetery near McCutchenville, Wyandot Co., Ohio. In a few years after their marriage in Virginia they emigrated to Fairfield Co., Ohio, in 1803, and settled in the woods near Berne Station, just east of Lancaster, where they opened a fine farm, now owned by Frank Beery (son of Lewis, Sr. See Abe Beery History, Nos. 47 and 158).

In 1832 this worthy family moved to near McCutchenville, Wyandot Co., where these early pioneers invested largely in government lands and accumulated a large fortune. They were a hearty, robust couple, as evidenced by their posterity, who were a matter of fact people.

Their Children.

1. Nicholas Beery, b. in Virginia, 1796. See No. 19.
2. Abraham D. Beery, b. July 29, 1798. No. 20.

*Rev. John Geil, a Mennonite minister in Rockingham Co., Va., was a nephew of the above Nancy (Geil) Beery, and two of John Geil's children married my brother and sister, and four of his children married my first cousins; hence Nancy Geil, and not Kyle.—The Author.

3. Henry Beery, b. Jan. 1800. No. 21.
4. Mary Beery, b. in Fairfield Co., Ohio, Aug. 10, 1803. No. 22.
5. Jacob Beery, b. in Fairfield Co., Ohio, April 2, 1806. No. 23.
6. Nancy Beery, b. in Fairfield Co., Ohio, July 7, 1808. No. 24.
7. Catharine Beery, b. in Fairfield Co., Ohio, Feb. 6, 1810. No. 25.
8. Jonathan Beery, b. in Fairfield Co., Ohio, Jan. 21, 1813. No. 26.
9. William J. Beery, b. in Fairfield Co., Ohio, April 30, 1815. No. 27.
10. Elizabeth Beery, b. in Fairfield Co., Ohio, July 17, 1818. No. 28.

Notice.

1st. Many of the families are so miscellaneously reported to me that in some cases it is impossible to record them in rotation of births; but you will find them all correctly linked together by numbers.

2nd. Some of the names, dates, and points of information of the Jacob Beery descendants are copied from the report of the Jacob Beery reunion, and some of them do not correspond with the points I get from individual families; hence, perhaps some discords.—Joseph H. Wenger.

3) Barbara Beery, born near York, York Co., Pa., April 6, 1764; died in Mahoning Co., Ohio, June 3, 1840. *Jacob Blosser, born as above in Pennsylvania, Jan. 13, 1758; died in Mahoning Co., Ohio, Oct. 6, 1842, at which place both are buried; married Feb. 12, 1788. They were Mennonites, and soon after marriage they settled among the pioneers of Shenandoah Co., Va., now Luray, Page Co., Va., which was taken from Shenandoah Co., in the Shenandoah Valley. Here they lived many years, and some of their children had settled in Mahoning Co., Ohio. The parents, in old age, about the year 1825, emigrated to that place, where they died and are buried. Mr. Blosser was a miller by occupation, as also were many of his descendants. His father, Peter Blosser, in the Swiss language was Blaser, who came from Switzerland to York Co., Pa., on the ship "Snow Betsy," landing at Philadelphia Aug. 27, 1739. Peter had six sons and four daughters, who settled in Shenandoah, Rockingham and Page counties, Va. He was a Mennonite minister and is buried at North Garden, now in Albemarle Co., Va.

After the death of his first wife his six sons, being full of "Young America," became rather unmanageable. He told them that he would marry a cross stepmother who would correct them. He married Miss Knicely, who sure enough was rather cross for himself to live with . . . and on which account he had to dismiss his ministry. But fortunately these bad boys reformed and came to be pious people, some of them having become ministers . . . The numbers to the right are miscellaneous, as at first I did not have the names in their order of births.—J. H. W.

*Mr. Geil was a son of Jacob Geil, who emigrated from the Province of Alsace, Germany, to Pennsylvania at the age of 8 years, and at mature age he married Miss Clymer. They were the parents of ten children, three of whom settled in Fairfield Co., Ohio, about the year 1805. The old people were Mennonites; Jacob, the subject of this sketch, and his sister Nancy (see No. 4) both having married in the Nicholas Beery family.

sylvania April 16, 1771; died near Bremen, Ohio, May 21, 1844. Married in 1784 or 1785. They were Mennonites, of which church he was a minister. Another reports that Jacob Geil died May 21, 1840. I am informed that the family record of this Geil family was at some time destroyed during the burning of the home. Hence some of the points are difficult to obtain.—J. H. W.

Because of the difficulty in securing the points as to this family, and especially the dates of births, I have at present no means of knowing how to place them in rotation, as is customary. They are reported (as supposedly) in the way they belong. If before publication I can learn of the dates of births and interline them, they may show to not be in rotation of births.—J. H. W.

5) Abraham Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., July 20, 1773;* died June 15, 1845. Catharine Fast, born near Reading, Pa., April 17, 1785; died Jan. 2, 1870; buried in the Miller cemetery about one mile east of Berne, Fairfield Co., Ohio. They were married March 7, 1802. They moved by wagon and team from Rockingham Co., Va., through the mountains, in 1805, and settled about one mile east of Berne, Fairfield Co., Ohio. They had various experiences in moving to Ohio. In descending the many mountains they were obliged to tie a tree to drag behind the wagon to prevent it from running over the team. In those days, Ohio was woods, Indians and wild beasts.

They settled on the bluffs on the north side of Raccoon Creek, one mile east of Berne, in Fairfield Co., Ohio, where they spent the remainder of their long lives. He is said to have been a tanner by occupation.

6) Mary Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., Sept. 4, 1775, and died near Bremen, Fairfield Co., Ohio, Aug. 23, 1844. Henry Stemen was born in Pennsylvania May 26, 1775, and died near Bremen, Ohio, Aug. 19, 1855, over 80 years of age. The above couple were married in Virginia and emigrated to Ohio in 1803, settling in the woods at the place where Bremen is now located. In 1809 he was called to the ministry in the Mennonite church. In 1820 he was ordained to the office of bishop, which office he held during life. In the last year of his life he delivered his bishopric to John M. Brenneman, later of Elida, Ohio. In Rev. Stemen's first years of the ministry the people in general were rude and were more accustomed to the howl of the wolf and the yell of the Indians than the cheery sound of the Gospel.

He was one among the most eloquent preachers of that day, and made great inroads upon the unconverted communities. He never traveled by buggy or railroad, but on horseback, and often swam the high water streams to meet his appointments. His meetings were always conducted in the German language in the forty-six years of his ministry.

Note.

The name Stemen was formerly known in the German language as "Stehmann." Rev. Henry Stemen's father, Christian Stehmann, was born May 28, 1747. His ancestors emigrated from Europe. Christian died Aug. 28, 1844, at the home of his son, Rev. Henry, and is buried at the Mennonite church cemetery, near Elida, Allen Co., Ohio. He was aged over 97 years. He was a Mennonite and raised a family of twelve children.

7) Isaac Beery, born in Pennsylvania, June 10, 1777, and died June 18, 1851. Mary Cradlebaugh, also born in Washington Co., Pa., Feb. 29, 1784, died March 7, 1850. Both are buried near Bremen, Fairfield Co., Ohio. Their granddaughter, Mrs. Dianah S. Morris, says they were married in 1806. There was rather a romance connected with their first acquaintance and later their marriage. Both were raised in Pennsylvania, but up to this time had been strangers. Isaac Beery, as a single man, was making arrangements at Redding, Pa., for a trip to Ohio.

When he was about ready to start, Mary Cradlebaugh, a handsome, ambitious young girl, although an entire stranger, heard of his intentions and at once applied for passage to Ohio for herself and sister, Catharine Cradlebaugh, who later married Isaac's brother George.

It appeared that Cupid was busy and their attractions for each other at first sight were mutual, and they were married six weeks after they landed at Bremen, Ohio. Of their mode of travel I am not informed, but later they came down the Ohio River on a flatboat.

Isaac Beery was a minister of prominence and high character in the Church of the Brethren, known as Dunkards.* His children, as noticed, were also members. Isaac and his family lived on a portion of his father's (Nicholas Beery's) large original purchase on Raccoon Creek, near Bremen, Fairfield county, Ohio.

Note.—Mary and Catharine Cradlebaugh were daughters of John Cradlebaugh (German, Kradlebaugh), born in Germany about 1750, and educated by his uncle in Holland, who wanted John to join the army, to which he objected. One day, at the age of 19, as he was standing at shiplanding, in Holland, he concluded to sail to America. He landed at New York and settled in western Pennsylvania. He joined the Revolutionary army and fought under Gen. George Washington. In 1782 he married Dorothea Moonshiner, and soon after entered the ministry, in the German Lutheran church. In 1802 they moved to Bremen, Ohio, where he died in 1820, and is buried near Bremen upon an eminence overlooking Rush Creek. Their family consisted of Fred, John, Jacob, Andrew, Susan, Elizabeth, Mary and Catharine. The youngest two sisters married the two brothers, Isaac and George Beery.

This is rather digressing from the Beery lineage, but

*The parents of the above family were Dunkards, the father being a minister. They are known as the "Church of the Brethren," of which the author is a member. I hope the Brethren will pardon me for calling them "Dunkards," because they are everywhere known by that name, especially by those who are not members. In my extensive travels I am often asked my church relation, and when I say "Church of the Brethren," they seem to know nothing about them, but when I say "Dunkards," they answer, "Yes; I know all about them as my ancestors were Dunkards."—J. 8) George Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., April 3, 1783; died April 10, 1856; no church. Catharine Cradlebaugh (sister to his brother Isaac's wife), born in Washington Co., Pa., Feb. 16, 1789; died Sept. 28, 1870; Dunkard or Mennonite. They were married in the vicinity of Bremen, Ohio, in 1809. (See romance in No. 7.)

George Beery was the first Beery that came to Fairfield Co., Ohio, in 1800. He came down the Monongahela and Ohio Rivers in a flatboat, and up the Hocking to the falls; thence through the woods to Lancaster, the infant county seat of Fairfield Co., Ohio, at that time. He began his fortune by clearing land at 25 cents per day. His father (Nicholas No. 2) and fifteen of his sixteen children soon came from Rockingham Co., Va., and all settled near Bremen, Ohio. They were an industrious, sober people. In the year 1834 George Beery laid out the town of Bremen and began merchandising, which occupation is still followed by many of his descendants. In the War of 1812 he was pressed into the service with his team. He was a personal friend of the Hon. Thomas Ewing, in whose honor he named his tenth and youngest son, Thomas Ewing Beery. It is said by T. E. Beery that his father, George Beery, resembled George Washington. Mrs. George Beery was a daughter of a Revolutionary soldier, who later was a German Reformed minister of considerable influence, and later in life also emigrated to Fairfield county, Ohio.

Many of the George Beery descendants still reside in the vicinity of Bremen. George Beery first settled on Rush Creek, near Bremen. Mr. Beery and wife were members of the Mennonite church. I can not close this article without referring to the first school taught in that vicinity by Christopher Welty in George Beery's kitchen. Following is his family, born in Fairfield Co., Ohio:

9) Susan Beery, born in Rockingham county, Va., Oct. 4, 1786 (some say Dec. 4), and died near Bremen, Ohio, Dec. 27, 1839. Abraham Beery born in Botetourt Co., Va., June 14, 1787; died near Bremen, Ohio, March 24, 1876. They were married near Bremen, Ohio, Nov. 6, 1809. They were members of the Dunkard church.

Abraham Beery was a son of Jacob Beery (who married Miss Dillman), of whom tradition says that he was a brother to Nicholas No. 2, the father of the sixteen children in the fore part of this history. Hence, as above, Susan and Abraham were first cousins. He was familiarly called "Red Abe" for distinction, from the fact that in his day in Virginia, there was "Big Abe," "Little Abe," "Brush Abe," "Muddy Creek Abe," "Black Abe," and various other Abes. Of "Red Abe's" brothers and sisters, an account may be produced later on, provided the facts can be ascertained.*

Susan, wife of "Red Abe" died at the age of 53 years. A few years later he married Margaret (name not given), who died in 1848, and later his third wife Elizabeth Grow. Mr. Beery was drafted into service in the war of 1812. He gave each of his ten children eighty acres of Congress land, which cost him $1.25 per acre, besides starting them up with houses, cattle and money.

*At a late date it has been ascertained that the foregoing "Red" Abraham Beery's father, Jacob Beery, was a son of Nicholas Beery No. 1, and a brother to Nicholas No. 2. 15) Margaret Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., June 15, 1795, and died in 1852; married James Keckler in 1824, who died from the effects of measles in the prime of life about 1830; both buried near Bremen, Fairfield Co., Ohio; no church but favored the River Brethren. Mr. Keckler was a man of rather more than ordinary strength and was a cooper by occupation.

Margaret (Beery) Keckler came with her parents (Nicholas No. 2) from Rockingham Co., Va., to the vicinity of Bremen, Ohio, during the years of 1803 to 1805, when she was a mere child. In those days Ohio was considered a far-distant wilderness, with no railroads to convey emigrants. The only mode of travel was by "mountain schooners." In Iowa fifty years later they were called "prairie schooners."

The above Margaret (Beery) Keckler, is by some of her relatives called "Rebecca," but in order to decide this question I will produce verbatim one of her tax receipts, during her widowhood: "Oct. 9, 1833. Received of Margaret Keckler one dollar and 50 cents and 6 mills in full as State, county, and poor tax for the year 1833 for 160 acres of land, including house and appurtenances, horses, cattle, etc.—John C. Weaver, Treas., Fairfield county, Ohio."

In 1824 they bought land where the town of Thurston, Fairfield Co., Ohio, now stands. In 1864 he settled in Huntington, Ind. In her father's will he calls her Rebecca, but her descendants call her Frances. It may have been Rebecca Frances.

1) Nicholas Beery, born in Rockingham county, Virginia, in 1796, and came with his parents to Fairfield county, Ohio, in 1803. He never married. He came with his parents to Wyandot county in 1834. His occupation was buying horses in Ohio and traveling them through mountains to Virginia, where he sold them at great profit, and often would sell on time among his old-time friends. In 1848 he left Wyandot county, Ohio, on foot to go to Virginia to collect a large sum of money due him for horses that he had previously sold. An effort was made to advise him not to take such a journey through the mountains on foot, a distance of 500 miles, as it was feared that some one would murder him for his money. He went by the way of Fairfield county and was last seen by friends there. He never returned to Ohio, and the above conclusion was verified. His untimely death will perhaps always remain a mystery.

2) Abraham D. Beery, born in Rockingham county, Virginia, July 29, 1798; came with his parents to Fairfield Co., Ohio, in 1803, at which place in 1820 he married Annie Blosser, also a native of Virginia, and born Feb. 24, 1798. He adhered to the Brethren in Christ and was placed in the ministry in that church. July 24, 1839, in Logan county, Ohio, he was killed by falling from a load of flax and was buried in the Miller cemetery, six miles northwest of Logan. His wife later moved to Adams county, Indiana, where she died in 1861, and is buried in the Beery cemetery in that county.

3) Henry Beery, born in Rockingham county, Virginia, Jan. 2, 1800, and came with his parents to Fairfield county, Ohio, in 1803. In 1827 he married Amy Perkey, a native of Pennsylvania, and in same year moved to Seneca county, Ohio. He was a great reader, and during the Pike's Peak gold excitement he and his son, Harrison, tried their luck, with poor success. Later he returned home and resumed farming. He died Dec. 4, 1868. His wife died March 15, 1893; both buried in the Brundage cemetery, two miles south of Melmore, Seneca Co., Ohio.

4) Mary Beery, known as "Aunt Polly," was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, Aug. 10, 1803. March 1, 1827, she married Jacob Corfman, and in 1828 they moved to Wyandot county, Ohio. Mr. Corfman was a farmer, shoemaker and undertaker at intervals. He was greatly interested in religious matters and united with the Evangelical church. The husband was a class leader and exhorter for nearly thirty years. He was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, Jan. 7, 1806, and died near Sycamore, Ohio, June 27, 1886. Mrs. Corfman died May 27, 1887; buried in the Bibler cemetery.

5) Jacob Beery, born in Fairfield county, Ohio, April 2, 1806. Kate Stalter, born as above, July 6, 1803. They were married Dec. 23, 1832, at Bucyrus, Ohio. They located in Wyandot county, Ohio, in what was called "Wild Goose Nation." Jacob died July 3, 1885. Catharine died Nov. 27, 1890. They are buried in the Union church cemetery, six miles northwest of Nevada, Wyandot Co., Ohio; Brethren in Christ.

6) Nancy Beery, born in Fairfield county, Ohio, July 7, 1808, and died Oct. 21, 1859. Oct. 23, 1833, she married David Stalter, at Lancaster, Ohio, and in 1834 came to Wyandot county, Ohio. She died Oct. 21, 1859, and is buried in the Mexico cemetery. Mr. Stalter married the second wife, and later lived at West Independence, Hancock Co., Ohio, where he died, and was buried March 8, 1892.

The above husband and wife were in their early life deprived of educational advantages, having attended school only about six weeks. They were self-made people, but mastered the German and English languages in a scholarly manner. It is strange that while Mr. Stalter was a Bible student he was a Universalist. He was of German descent, his name originally being spelled "Staulter," later "Stalder" and now "Stalter." Their children are:

7) Catharine Beery, born in Fairfield county, Ohio, Feb. 6, 1810. In 1833 she married Alfred Holmes, a native of Virginia. In 1834 they came to Wyandot county. In 1854 they went to Gratiot county, Michigan. In 1855 the great famine prevailed in that part of the state, which caused much suffering, but later they came through with plenty of the comforts of life.

Catharine (Beery) Holmes died in October, 1885. The husband died Jan. 11, 1876; both buried in the Brady cemetery, Gratiot Co., Mich. They believed in the old kind of religion, the Methodist; farmer; address, Forest Hill, Mich.

9) William J. Beery, born in Fairfield county, Ohio, April 30, 1815. He came to Wyandot county, early in the thirties. Oct. 16, 1844, he married Eliza Jacoby, a native of Pennsylvania. Mr. Beery was of a restless disposition. He reared a large family, many of whom were educated, intelligent and useful people.

Mr. Beery finally moved to Michigan, and died at Muir, in that state, on Jan. 18, 1878. He was brought back to Wyandot county, Ohio, and buried in the Bibler cemetery. Mrs. Beery died near McCutchenville, Ohio, Dec. 20, 1902, aged 82 years. She was a member of the M. E. church.

Wm. J. Beery was the ninth and youngest child of Jacob Beery (See No. 4), and was of German ancestry. German was the language most spoken in the family. Their children were noted for their musical talent, with their father as leader, in the old-time "buckwheat" notes.

Later in life he became a minister in the church of the River Brethren, often making ministerial tours in other states and localities, and on one of these tours he died while in Michigan. In 1831 Mr. Beery, at the age of 16 years, visited Wyandot county, Ohio, which was sixteen years before the Wyandot Indians left that reservation, where later he spent the greater portion of his life, and, where McCutchenville is now located.

I am greatly indebted to H. F. Beery, 4133 Eastern Avenue, Seattle, Wash., for information.—J. H. W.

6) John Sigler Beery, b. at Elida, Allen Co., Ohio, Sept. 10, 1856. Minnie M. Buck of Medina Co., Ohio, born Jan. 10, 1867; married Nov. 30, 1884. Mrs. Beery has been a valuable helpmate to her husband in the home and church.

Mr. Beery owns and lives on a fine farm with modern improvements. In his early manhood he was known among his friends as "Honest John" on account of his strict integrity in business. He is rather a self-made man, and yet he possesses the intelligence of a college professor. In his official capacity as justice of the peace, his ruling was to get the opposing parties to arbitrate by meeting each other half way. In one case of contest of $40.00 he got his parties within $2.50 of reaching a settlement but no farther, at which point Mr. Beery proposed to pay it and discharge the case, which he did. So for conscience' sake, the next day the man to whom Mr. Beery paid the money returned it. Mr. Beery was very charitable to those in needy circumstances. He at the age of 18 united with the Methodist church. St. Louis, Gratiot Co., Mich.

7) Isaac Emanuel Beery, born near Upper Sandusky, Ohio, April 1, 1858; died at Fairfield, Nebr., Aug. 12, 1886; married Hattie Coldwell April, 1884. Mr. Beery was a natural musician and an editor by occupation. In 1880 his first experience was with the Tiffin, Ohio, News, and later purchased the Sycamore, Ohio, News and still later the Fairfield, Nebr., News, and died two years later. The widow sold out, returned to Ohio. She afterwards married again and moved to Portland, Oregon. Mr. Beery was in his element when teaching music, leader in choir, brass bands and composing music. They had only one child which died in infancy. Methodist church. Fairfield, Nebr.

1) Nicholas Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., March 8, 1789; died in 1851; married Mary Seitz in 1810. She died in Platte City, Mo. (no date). Came to Fairfield Co., Ohio, in 1805. He owned 640 acres of land in the Hocking Valley, 8 miles south of Lancaster. In 1842 he moved to Platte City, Mo., and in 1850 to Des Moines, Iowa, where he died in 1851. Des Moines at that date was only a mere village, surrounded by Indians, wild beasts and wilderness. Mr. Beery followed trapping and it is said that the Indians robbed him of his furs and in the altercation he was kicked on the stomach, from which effect he died.

She was a daughter of Judge Castelle of St. Louis, Mo., and was married at Fairplay, Colo., Sept. 26, 1866. She was a member of the Catholic church.

Mr. Beery's life has been a varied one. He writes his own sketch. I worked on the farm until 1866. In 1860 on March 8, traveled over the plains by team, settled in Summit Co., Colo., and engaged in mining one year. Then taking the United States mail contract from Hamilton to Bridgeport, Lincoln City, Parkville and Delaware City. Carried the mail four months on snow shoes, and running the hack the balance of the year. Was Internal United States Revenue collector 9 years in Summit and Lake Co.'s, Colo. Treasurer of Pike Co. for 6 years. Agent at Fairplay for Wells-Fargo Express lines. Agent over the Kansas Pacific R. R., Fairplay to Denver, was also census enumerator for Park, Summit and Lake counties in 1870, and later dealt in cattle. I am now totally blind by cataract but hope to have it removed in the near future. Wm. H. Beery, Cripple Creek, Colo., 1909.

In 1870 they emigrated to the Rocky Mountains and settled at Fairplay in Colo., and taught school, having endured many hardships in crossing the plains in wagons as no railroads traversed that country, but was overran with Indians and buffaloes. The party had sixty-five head of young cattle to drive, which through a long drive became poor and some died from exhaustion. The party consisted of three—Mr. Beery, his brother, Wm. H. Beery (see No. 312), and David O. Brawner. One night their horses were stolen. Wm. H. Beery spent two days searching for them without avail. A storm scattered the cattle and Mr. Brawner was wounded by the accidental discharge of his pistol, and no physician. Wm. H. gone two days to hunt the horses at the risk of his life among the Indians. wagons loaded with household goods and teams gone, cattle scattered and 200 miles from civilization, besides being poorly armed to combat with the Indians and wild beasts which were likely to attack them any moment. They gave their harness and wagons to a man, gathered up what cattle they could find and finally reached their destination. Address, 816 East 24th St., Kansas City, Mo.

6) Abraham (Washington) Beery, born in Rockingham county, Virginia, Dec. 12, 1799, and died at his home at Logan, Ohio, Feb. 25, 1886. Elisabeth Mericle, born (no date), and died April 17, 1858, married April 20, 1820, in Fairfield county, Ohio. Mr. Beery, at the age of six years (in 1805) came with his parents and family from Virginia to six miles east of Lancaster, Fairfield Co., Ohio, at which place he was reared to manhood. In 1826, in connection with farming, he operated a six-horse freight team from Lancaster to Baltimore, Md., and Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1834 he sold out and moved to Perry county. In 1836 he moved to Hocking county, near Logan, where he bought 500 acres of land and engaged in farming and stock raising, being in every way successful. In 1843 he was elected treasurer of Hocking county, and moved to Logan, which office he held four years, when he returned to his farm. In 1852 he divided among his sons and returned to Logan. Four years later he retired from business, except banking. April 17, 1858, his wife died, having raised thirteen children. On July 24, 1858 he married Elisabeth McFadden (No. 1354), a widowed daughter of his uncle, Henry Beery (See No. 12). She died at Sugar Grove, Ohio, in 1888. Mr. Beery in old age was a heavy stockholder in banking circles. Little did he dream that his banking companions, in whom he had implicit confidence, would, when he was dead and gone, bankrupt and pauperize the best blood in Hocking county, Ohio. He was buried at the Scotts Creek cemetery.

Mr. Beery stood six feet and one inch in his bare feet, and at the age of 83 years he jumped over his walking stick while it was held fast in both hands. He was of a jovial disposition and had a kind word for every one, of whom Abraham Lincoln was a preference. He was a member of the Baptist church many years, when, on Feb. 25, 1866, he united with the Presbyterians.

P. S.—Mr. Beery's photo is in the possession of Dr. A. Beery, Rushville, Ohio. No. 1292.

9) Noah W. Beery, born near Lancaster, Fairfield Co., Ohio, Sept. 14, 1806, died in Platte county, Missouri, Nov. 8, 1888. Elisabeth Rader, daughter of John Rader, of Rockingham county, Virginia, was born ———, married Jan. 9, 1828. She died July 19, 1869.

On March 1, 1870, Mr. Beery was married to Mrs. Susanna Smith, of Bremen, Ohio. He took her to Platte City, Mo., where he had been living. He was a tall, dignified gentleman, handsome and refined in manners, and was esteemed for his intelligence. He was a strong Union man, and in 1868 was elected judge of his county.

The Author's Birthday.

November 15, 1909, aged 74 years.

This bright, sunshiny, summerlike day of Nov. 15, 1909, is the anniversary of the author's birth. Today I am 74 years of age.

I am thankful for this long life, accompanied by good health and mental faculties. My desire is, if it be the Lord's will, to live to complete this, my third, family history. I confess that I am a natural-born historian. In 1903 I completed the Wenger History, in 1905 the Abraham Beery History, and in January, 1909, I was urged into the work of the present history by the descendants of Nicholas Beery. I am of the lineage of the above Abraham Beery, who was a brother to Nicholas, who was born in Switzerland, 1707, and Abraham, born at the same place, 1718.

These three histories reach back into foreign countries for 200 years, and over. The task is a tedious one, but I am never nearer in my element than when writing family history for the benefit of coming generations. Do you appreciate it? If so, it is all the compensation I ask. May unborn generations continue this history by beginning where I left off, and may it continue to grow as long as the Beerys and their descendants exist.

In justice, due to my many Nicholas Beery cousins, who desire to know in what way I am related to the Beerys, and whom I could not answer privately without going into detail, I will say: My mother was Barbara Beery (See No. 9, page 18, Abraham Beery History), a granddaughter of the above Abraham Beery, of 1718, who was a brother to Nicholas of this history. I was born on a farm at Edom, near Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va., Nov. 15, 1835, and have lived here on a farm at South English, Keokuk Co., Iowa, for over forty-eight years. I retired from the farming business many years ago, since which time I have traveled extensively over the greater portion of the United States, besides Canada and Old Mexico. During the intervals my time was occupied in history work. A short sketch of my life is found in the Abraham Beery History. No. 42, page 36, or No. 812, this history.

This last mentioned history has 328 pages, 1064 families, five or six thousand persons all related and 706 bearing the name of Beery. The reduced price is $1.10 per copy, post paid.

The Wenger History, the same price; all on sale by the author.

In conclusion I will note that I began the Nicholas Beery History January, 1909, having reached this limit Nov. 15, 1909, besides two months of travel during the time.

—Joseph H. Wenger.

his brother, Levi L. Beery, moved to Mt. Pleasant, Henry Co., Iowa, where he learned the tanner and carpenter trades. Being of a roving nature he moved to many different localities in Iowa, to Ohio and back to Iowa; in 1857 to Ray county, Missouri, where he founded the town of Pleasantview. At the dawn of the Civil War as it became rather hot politically he left his possessions and moved to Lancaster, Keokuk Co., Iowa (the author's county), July 4, 1863, and while he was hunting, his gun was accidentally discharged, wounding his right leg, which had to be amputated below the knee joint; after which he went into the mercantile business at Washington, Iowa. His partner, Mr. Gillis, gathered up all the available cash, under the pretence of going to Chicago for goods, and has never returned. In 1866 he moved back to Lancaster, Iowa. In 1867 he moved to Chapman, Merrick Co., Nebr., where he remained during his life. During his early western life among the Indians, many of them rather savage, he had many narrow escapes from Indian raids. His last years were passed in quietude. No church, but believed in the Dunkards, of whom his father was a minister.

They had moved from Fairfield County, Ohio, to Pleasant Hill,

Ohio, in 1853. Mr. Beery in early life united with the Dunkard church, in which he was a deacon for over fifty years; his father, Isaac Beery, having been a minister in that denomination for thirty years. Enoch was raised on a farm, which was his life occupation, in which he was successful. He was the last one of his father's twelve children to depart this life, and is buried in the Pleasant Hill (Ohio) cemetery.

A New Year Greeting.

January 1, 1910.

Just one year ago today, by the urgent request of the Nicholas Beery descendants, I consented to become the author of this present important history. As before stated, previous to this I have completed two family histories, the Wenger History and the Abraham Beery History; both for sale by the writer at $1.10 each copy, postpaid. Each history reaches back to Germany and Switzerland, respectively, about 200 years. My mother was Barbara (Berry) Wenger, a granddaughter of the above Abraham Beery, who was a brother to Nicholas, of 1707, of this history. Three stalwart brothers, Nicholas, Abraham and William, came to America at different dates. Nicholas and Abraham for a short time settled in Pennsylvania, and later in the Shenandoah Valley, near Harrisonburg, Rockingham Co., Va., where they lived and died. William, the third brother, settled in North Carolina. His descendants will be included in this history as Part Second.

But my theme in writing this notice is this: Of all the many thousands of the Nicholas Beery descendants of this history I never met with any except Cousin A. W. Dupler for about five minutes in 1906; therefore, all the information of this history was secured by mail. Think of the many thousands of letters it required, besides turning the crude information into line and order, and properly linking them to the great chain of relationship, which is a very difficult task.

I am greatly indebted to the great majority of the relationship for their efficient help. The few careless ones who failed to report must not be disappointed when they find their names left out of the history. I suppose they would be too careless to read a history, provided it was donated to them. Indeed, I pity such people.

It is worthy of note that I began this work today, a year ago. I have lost two months in traveling, and one month by having sickness in the family; hence, it would count nine months of history work, and as you see, I have 500 families recorded, including the old ancestors, who were the most difficult to secure. I hope that my life may be spared to complete the work for the benefit of the many relations.

The author will be disappointed if there are no critics when this history is perused. Yes, Mr. Critic, I want to congratulate you in your search for mistakes, for you will possibly find some. If you are sure that you could have performed this difficult task without any mistakes, please let me know and I will vote you in as author for the next family history that may be wanted.

Think of the conflicting statements that are sent in by different reporters; then consider that I am only a human being like some of you. My pen may have erred in a few cases; then also the printing press may possibly make some mistakes. Dear critic, if you never made a mistake, then please address me as

Joseph H. Wenger.

4) Leah M. Good, born Oct. 30, 1839. Married Samuel G. Miller in Aug. 26, 1855, who was born Dec. 15, 1829, and immediately after moved to near Celina, Mercer Co., Ohio, which at that time was a wilderness of heavy timber in its natural condition where they underwent the hardships of pioneer life.

Mr. Miller died May 16, 1864, leaving the widow with 6 small children to battle through life's journey. Leah had inherited from her parents an amiable character and disposition which was a great help to her unfortunate widowhood in the rearing of her family, and converting the forest into meadows and wheat fields. Although past 70 years, she does her own house work and attends to her business affairs, and is a prominent attendant at church. Verily, a good woman is God's best gift to man. She is a member of the United Brethren. Farmer. Address, Celina, Mercer Co., Ohio, Route 4.

By her daughter, Hulda A. Ketner, Middlepoint, Ohio, Note. Leah's father, Henry Good, was related to Rev. Daniel Good, a Mennonite minister in Rockingham Co., Va., whom the author when a boy heard preach 65 years ago.—J. H. W.

Decatur, Adams Co., Ind. They engaged in farming in Fairfield county, Ohio, until 1856, when they moved and settled on a farm in Adams county, Indiana, three miles west of Decatur, having made the journey over land by wagon and team. At that time Adams county was a wilderness of timber and hardships, with no railroads, churches, nor school facilities, but they helped to make the county what it is today. In 1880 they retired from farming and moved to Decatur, where, on North Tenth Street, they spent the remainder of their lives in quietude. Their family consisted of three children. Mrs. Beery died Dec. 22, 1899, and on Sept. 3, 1901, Mr. Beery married Mrs. Hattie O. Eicher, who survives him. A week previous to Mr. Beery's death he contracted a severe cold. On account of his great age he was not able to withstand this illness. Mr. Beery and first wife were Dunkards. Decatur, Ind.

Merchant. Norbourne, Mo. Mr. Beery's youthful career began on his father's farm in Mercer county, Ohio, and was continued in the district schools. Later, he took a course in the Celina High School. At 18 he entered his brother Henry's flouring mill at Celina as an apprentice, and at the end of three years quit the business on account of his health, and took a commercial course at Eastman's Business College, Poughkeepsie, New York. In 1884 he came to Norbourne, Mo., and has ever since been engaged in the millinery and general mercantile business. At the age of 21 in Mercer county, Ohio, he united with the Presbyterian church, and finding no church of that denomination at Norbourne he cast his lot with the Methodists. In 1893 he was licensed as a local preacher, devoting his spare time to the ministry, Sunday-school, Epworth League and mission work. Mr. Beery is a staunch prohibitionist, having continuously voted that ticket ever since 1888, and was a delegate to the National Prohibition Convention in Chicago in 1896 and Columbus, Ohio, in 1908.

(See No. 42 in the Abraham Beery History, who was a brother to Nicholas of this history.)

As the author of this Nicholas Beery History, and in due respect to the descendants, I would offer a few words of explanation.

In my efforts to secure information for the Nicholas Beery History, I assured my correspondents that my mother was a Beery, and in justice to the many who asked as to what part of the Nicholas family I belonged. As perhaps before mentioned, I am a great grandson of Abraham Beery, who was born in Switzerland in 1718, and who was a brother to Nicholas, of this history. These brothers came to America at different dates, but settled in the same vicinity, in Adams county, Pennsylvania, and later near Edom, Rockingham Co., Va., where both died of old age. Abraham died in 1799, and of Nicholas' death there is no date known.

My mother, Barbara Beery, daughter of John (son of Abraham), was born at New Market, Va., March 12, 1795. I was born at Edom, Rockingham Co., Va., Nov. 15, 1835, where I remained until May 22, 1861, since which time I have lived at my present address.

April 5, 1868, I married Elisabeth McAfferty, of South English, Iowa, whose parents were typical Pennsylvania people, of Lancaster county. In 1896 we gave each of our children a farm adjoining the old home place, which allowed us to retire. Since then we have spent much time in traveling and writing family histories. On Oct. 23, 1881, we united with the Dunkard church.

In 1903 I completed the family history of the Wengers, from Germany; in 1905 the Abraham Beery History, and on Jan. 1, 1909, I began the Nicholas Beery History, each history reaching back to 200 years and over. I may not live to complete this work, but hope that others will begin where I leave off and finally preserve it in book form. This work is extensive and is rather a mental drain upon me, as an old man of 75 years, yet no one except those who have had similar experience can fully sympathize with me in the perplexity of this work. But, dear reader, if you appreciate this history, it will amply recompense me for my efforts.

I will farther say that in case I do not live to complete this history, I would suggest to my successors, that when the history is published and ready for the market, an indefinite number of copies be placed into the hands of my sons, known as the Wenger Brothers, at South English, Iowa, who are reliable men, as can be testified to by the bankers, merchants and business men of South English. These brothers can keep them on sale, from the fact that the greater number of orders for books will be sent in my name, as to me the points of material of their families were sent, not knowing the facts in the case.

The following are the points of our family:

Joseph H. Wenger,

April 6, 1910.

South English, Iowa.

1. John H. Wenger, b. near South English, Iowa Feb. 15, 1869, m. Cora Blaylock March 17, 1892. Dunkards. South English, Iowa. No children.
2. B. Frank Wenger, b. as above April 17, 1871, d. single May 1, 1896, at the age of 25 years.

3. Homer C. Wenger, b. as above Dec. 24, 1872. Single. Dunkard minister. South English, Iowa.
4. Mollie D. Wenger, b. as above March 7, 1874, m. W. D. Grove Dec. 4, 1894. Dunkard minister. Five children. South English, Iowa.

The reader will bear in mind that the above parents and children are descendants of Abraham Beery (see his history), who was a brother to Nicholas, of this history, as has been previously explained.

6) Fannie Geil, born near North Berne, Fairfield Co., Ohio, Sept. 11, 1810, died near Baltimore, Ohio, Aug. 26, 1894, married Daniel Miller Dec. 9, 1828. Mennonites, North Berne, Fairfield Co., Ohio. In industry, sociability, etc., Fannie Geil was a model woman. Her characteristics were God's best gift to man. She well understood and experienced the pioneer customs of life of 100 years ago, when women not only did housework but everything on the farm. When a grown young woman she did much work for her neighbors, reaping grain with the old-fashioned reap hook, spinning wool and flax and weaving, serving sixteen hours per day at 37½ cents per week. Reader, compare this with the customs of today.

7) Sarah Ann Good, born in Des Moines, Iowa, July 2, 1858, and Dr. C. Nysewander, born Sept. 12, 1855, were married Oct. 11, 1878. 1154 14th Street, Des Moines, Iowa. As Mrs. Nysewander's family, on account of parental relationship, occurs twice in this history, and to avoid repetition, the reader is referred to No. 554.

Note.—The author would not consider this history complete without adding my testimony in behalf of the interest Mrs. Nysewander has manifested in the task of assisting him in gathering material from her many relations for this history. She is a contrast to some of the "slow Jakes" with whom I have come in contact, who were too careless to answer my letters of inquiry, or even inform me of the little they knew. Many thanks, Dear Cousin.—Joseph H. Wenger.

Note.—Thus ends the Geil-Miller lineage. It seems that in all countries the Millers are very prolific. I once heard that many years ago names became exhausted and people were compelled to use the name Miller for all the babies, but here is a more plausible reason: In all nationalities and languages, a man who tends a mill is called a miller. Hence the many Millers.—J. H. W.

She died Jan 28, 1875, at the age of 49 years, and is buried at Enterprise, Ohio. Mr. Beery was a well-to-do farmer, four miles west of Logan, Ohio. He was an energetic, stout man and dealer in all kinds of stock, of which he was an expert judge. For pastime he often traded horses, but his motto was never to give boot. He would say, "We will ask no questions, then we will not need tell any lies." His first wife was a noble woman, and after her death Mr. Beery, July 4, 1875, married Hannah Strohm, who also was one among God's best gifts to man. She lives at Canal Winchester, Ohio, where Mr.

Beery died. In 1890 Mr. Beery moved to Brice, Franklin Co., Ohio.

2) Jean Zee Beery, son of Dr. A. Beery, born in Scribner, Nebr., Nov. 11, 1885, died single of nervous prostration, at Rushville, Ohio, Feb. 4, 1911, at the age of over 25 years. Had graduated from the following schools, colleges and universities: Rushville, Ohio, Minneapolis, Minn., Lima, Ohio, and Lincoln, Nebr., and was fully prepared for the business world. He united with the Presbyterian church in 1905, and was an exceptional, devoted, Christian young man. He was never known to commit a single un-Christian act, and was temperate in all things, as seen by all who knew him. He was an exceptional young man and those who knew him best would do well to imitate his example. His parents, brothers and sisters are heart-broken at the loss of Jean Zee Beery, but such is life.

The author deeply sympathizes with the family, as he experienced a similar ordeal in 1896, when his son, B. Frank Wenger, died at the age of 25 years, after having spent years in school. (See A. Beery History, No. 147.)

VALEDICTION.

The author of this History is now past 75 years old, and has devoted and donated over two years of time, free of charge, in continual search for the Beerys and their descendants, who are now scattered over the United States, with a few in foreign lands.

The readers will bear in mind that I am not educated; but am in a limited way a self-made man. This work is not equivalent to that of up-to-date writers for the press and the public, and yet I have given points as to dates and facts as they could be secured, and if in the future some of the educated, refined and intelligent relations wish to add spice and fluency, they can do so. I hope that coming generations will continue these genealogies by beginning where this History leaves off, so that as it grows in numbers it may also grow in interest.

I am a natural-born historian and have enjoyed the work; and yet how perplexing, when some parties failed or refused to give me the points I asked for until I got them warmed up!

The great majority of letters and points were prompt, precise and intelligent, while some were very indifferent; and last of all were those who absolutely failed to report, notwithstanding all my warnings. Hence there are some missing links, which must be left out.

I wonder whether there is one in a thousand of the readers of this History who realizes the amount of work connected with the search for the material of this vast relationship. You will please observe that the object in producing this History is not for speculation, but as an honor due to our Christian ancestors whom we should imitate. This work is donated, yet the cost of printing, binding, etc., is large, therefore it is to be hoped that the Beery generations will be liberal and prompt in purchasing books to help defray the cost of publication. Indeed, it was with great difficulty that these available points were obtained, and yet since the completion I accept the results with a feeling of satisfaction that the History of our noble ancestors and their descendants is on record. I am thankful that I have been permitted to live to complete this work, which was beyond my experiences. My contributors to this work are legion and space forbids to mention them. For their efficient help many thanks are due.

This History work has been a pleasure to me, although mixed with perplexities in securing the points of those careless parties, concerning whom I left no stones unturned under which I thought there might be some history; and while I am nearing the sunset of life, and in fact have already been living on borrowed time and cannot expect to serve the public much longer, I am ready to lay down my faithful historical pen and leave the results of this unpolished to the public.

May I hope to have entertained at least a few of the many thousands of relations who are mentioned in this History!

In conclusion, I feel that I would be pleased to become personally acquainted with each one of its readers, but this is impossible. I would very much appreciate as a favor to have a postal card or letter from as many of those who feel disposed to send me a word of approval or disapproval of the interest they may find in this unpolished History which contains 1,471 families and about 12,000 persons, all related, and over 1,200 bearing the name of Beery. It is on sale at $1.75 per copy, postpaid. Send all orders and money to Joseph H. Wenger, South English, Iowa, and his successors, who ask it as a favor that each reader of this History solicit their near relations to send for Histories, as some may not know of the existence of such a work.

Joseph H. Wenger.

PREFACE.

Three Beery brothers, all stalwart, robust men, at different dates came from Switzerland to America.

Nicholas, of the first part of this work, came 1727; Abraham in 1736 (see his History, on the market), and the date of arrival of the North Carolina brother is not known, but it is supposed that his name was Daniel Beery.

It may be possible that the third brother, as above mentioned, was the father of the Daniel. The descendants of this North Carolina brother have thoroughly investigated and find no one farther back than Daniel, from whom this part of their History begins. These descendants inform me that they had no idea of any other Beerys in existence. They will be surprised when the Nicholas Beery History is complete, and the Abraham Beery History, which was completed in 1905, and on sale by the author (as undersigned). In my interviews with these North Carolina cousins I find them an intelligent and educated people.

Joseph H. Wenger,

Part Second

THE NORTH CAROLINA BEERYS.

No. 1. First Generation. 1.

Daniel Beery is the first by that name whom we can find. He was a millwright in Bladen county, N. C., in 1795. He married Mrs. Mary Locke (nee Root) in July, 1795. They had two children:

1. Samuel Beery, b. 1796. No. 2.
2. Rebecca Beery, b. ———, No. 3.

Note.—It is the candid opinion of the author that Daniel Beery was a son of the Switzerland brother who settled in North Carolina.—J. H. W.

No. 2. Second Generation. 1.

1) Samuel Beery, born in Brunswick county, N. C., in 1796. His first wife was Elisabeth Pittman. He was an unusually strong man, robust, weighing about 300 pounds, which is characteristic in the Beerys, especially among the old generations (see Abraham Beery History, Nos. 2 and 887). He owned a sawmill, and unfortunately his home burned down, including all his records and papers. He was of a generous nature, delighting in helping others who needed assistance. He died, as it was supposed, from too much blood letting (a customary practice in that day), in January, 1853, aged 57 years. Children born in Brunswick county, N. C.

1. Mary Beery, b. ———. No. 4.
2. Benj. Washington Beery, b. Dec. 12, 1822. No. 5.
3. Samuel Jackson Beery, b. Jan. 23, 1825. No. 6.
4. Wm. L. Beery, b. Jan. —, 1831. No. 7.
5. Elisabeth Beery, b. Feb. 25, 1834. No. 8.

The foregoing Samuel Beery married the second wife, Frances Wallace, of Wilmington, N. C., on July 29, 1841, and lived in Wilmington, N. C.

6. Stephen Decatur Beery, b. Dec. 19, 1842. No. 9.
7. Whiteford R. Beery, b. Oct. 12, 1844. No. 10.
8. Christopher S. Beery, b. Jan. 1, 1847, d. in young manhood.
9. John D. Beery, b. April 25, 1851, d. in infancy.

No. 3. Second Generation. 1.

2) Rebecca Beery, born in Brunswick county, N. C., (no date), married Griffith White (no date).

1. James M. White, b. ———.

We are sorry that the points of this family are so limited.—J. H. W.

No. 4. Third Generation. 2.

1) Mary Beery, born (no date), oldest daughter of Samuel Beery. No information can be found, except that she married Mr. Clanmoun, of Southport, N. C. By this marriage Cornelia and Watson were born (no date). Later, Mary married Mr. Hugh McArm, of South Carolina, by whom several children were born. Points and facts are not available.

No. 5. Third Generation. 2.

2) Benjamin Washington Beery, born in Brunswick county, N. C., Dec. 12, 1822, and died April 24, 1892, married Ann Eliza Williams, of New Hanover county, N. C., Oct. 13, 1843. Mr. Beery was noted for his strength of body and mind, and was successful in his business, shipbuilding, and with his brother, William Beery, owned a shipyard across the Cape Fear River, opposite the city of Wilmington, N. C. Early in the Civil War he went on a privateering expedition, the vessel being fitted out at his own expense. This work was soon abandoned, as his services were needed by the Confederate Government in shipbuilding. One of the vessels built was an ironclad ship named "The North Carolina," also a steamer called "Yadkin," and several launches, etc. His first marriage was to Miss Williams; his second marriage, in 1866, to Miss Susan Southall, but no children resulted from second marriage. In 1892 Mr. Beery married Mrs. Lucy Moore, of Henderson, N. C. No children by third marriage. The following thirteen children were by first marriage:

1. Sarah Jane Beery, b. Aug. 9, 1843. No. 11.
2. Ann Elisabeth Beery, b. Dec. 11, 1845, d. in 1858.
3. Frances Ella Beery, b. March 6, 1848, d. in infancy.

13. Benjamin Washington Beery, b. Aug. 24, 1865. No. 16.

No. 6. Third Generation. 2.

3) Samuel Jackson Beery, born in Brunswick county, N. C., Jan. 23, 1825, died Aug. 13, 1864, of typhoid fever. Had married Mrs. Sophia McPherson (nee Smith), Dec. 18, 1849. Was an engineer. Methodist, and of a gentle and quiet disposition.

1. Samuel Smith Beery, b. Aug. 15, 1851. No. 17.
2. Mary Eliza Root Beery, b. Sept. 11, 1854. No. 18.
3. Robert Cowan Beery, b. Jan. 22, 1857, d. in early manhood.
4. John Hedrick Beery, b. May 9, 1860. No. 19.
5. Wm. La Fayette Beery, b. Nov. 2, 1862. No. 20.

No. 7. Third Generation. 2.

4) William L. Beery, born in Brunswick county, N. C., January, 1831, died June 13, 1880. Had married Miss Mary Arch, of New Jersey, Aug. 28, 1850. He was a shipbuilder and a partner with his brother Benjamin, and like his brother Samuel, he died of typhoid fever, comparatively young.

1. Elisabeth Hedrick Beery, b. Jan. 1, 1855. No. 21.
 2. Sarah M. Ree Beery, b. ———.
 3. Emily Guthrie Beery, b. June 14, 1859. No. 22.

 7. Eugene Moore Beery, b. ———.

No. 8. Third Generation. 2.

5) Elisabeth Beery, born in Brunswick county, N. C., Feb. 25, 1834, died May 11, 1907. In early life she married J. J. Hedrick, a dry goods merchant, who later was a colonel in the Confederate Army. Episcopalian.

1. John Jackson Hedrick, b. May 7, 1866. No. 24.
2. James Dawson Hedrick, b. Oct. 31, 1868. No. 25.
3. Isaac Granger Hedrick, b. —, 1870.
4. Cynetia Elisabeth Hedrick, b. Nov. 18, 1874, d. in infancy.

No. 9. Third Generation. 2.

6) Stephen Decatur Beery, born at Wilmington, N. C., Dec. 19, 1842, died suddenly of heart disease when in his thirties. Had married Cornelia Riolay in 1862. There were some children, but nothing is known of them beyond the fact that they moved to Texas soon after the Civil War. It has been said that the widow married an admiral in the service of the Government and that one of his daughters was a noted singer in grand opera.

No. 10. Third Generation. 2.

7) Whiteford R. Beery, born in Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 12, 1844, and married Susan Killingsworth Nov. 20, 1864. He followed the water for awhile, then settled down to farming. He married the second time, but name of wife is not given. No children by second marriage.

1. Wm. Benjamin Beery, b. Aug. 10, 1865. No. 26.

PART THIRD

HISTORY
AND CHRISTIAN BEERY

Sons of Abraham Beery, Who Was a Brother to Nicholas Beery, the Ancestor of First Part

In 1905 the Author Compiled a History of Abraham Beery and His Descendants, at Which Time His Son Jacob (see No. 4½)
Was Found, but No Descendants; Also Found No Clue
Whatever to His Brother, Christian Beery, and Family Until Now, Hence This Additional Part Third, Which Belongs to the Abraham Beery History of 1905.

IT IS A BOOK OF 328 PAGES, WITH 1064 FAMILIES,
AND FIVE OR SIX THOUSAND PERSONS, ALL
RELATED TO THIS "THIRD PART"

It is Bound in Black Leather and is on Sale by the Undersigned, Author, at the Reduced
Price of $1.10 Per Copy, Postpaid, and Every Member of This Third
Part Should Have a Copy

INTRODUCTION.

It will be seen that these two brothers belong to the family of Abraham Beery (see his History, No. 1, page 12), where Jacob Beery is mentioned as the fourth child, but his descendants could not be found until now. His brother, Christian Beery, and descendants were at that time not found at all. Christian is the seventh child of the above Abraham Beery family, and is a twin brother to his only sister, Magdalana Beery, who married Jacob Burner (see No. 6).

Do not fail to compare this Third Part, to No. 1, page 12, in the Abraham Beery History of 1905, as the descendants of the above Jacob and Christian Beery are descendants of the Abraham Beery genealogy, and in order to have their relationship combined they should send for the Abraham Beery History, which is on sale by the author at the reduced price of $1.10 per copy postpaid.—

Part Third

No. 1. Second Generation. 1 A.

(See Abraham Beery History.)

4) Jacob Beery, born in Adams county, Pa., Sept. 11, 1769, died near Lancaster, Fairfield Co., Ohio, April 2, 1842. His wife, Mary Good, was born in Rockingham county, Va., May 13, 1777, and died as above, Dec. 8, 1848. Both are buried four miles east of Lancaster, Ohio, near the home of (little) Daniel Beery, and later his son, Lewis Beery, deceased. Mary Good was a sister to Bishop Daniel Good, of Rockingham county, Va., a well-known minister in the Mennonite church of that county. In 1806, Mr. and Mrs. Beery moved from Rockingham county, Va., to near Lancaster, Fairfield Co., Ohio, and purchased a large tract of land, supposedly all woods. They were Mennonites and farmer. Lancaster, Fairfield Co., Ohio. (See Abraham Beery History of 1905, No. 4½.)

No. 72. Third Generation. 1 A.

8) Fannie Beery, born ———, died ———, married John Kelchner. Their descendants failed to answer my calls.

A Possibility.

The author is of the opinion that the reporters of this Beery lineage may possibly have a few of the names mixed. It seems that these old families each had John, Jacob, Joseph, Henry, David, Samuel, Barbara, Elisabeth, Anna and Mary, and many other of the old-fashioned names, which cause the most difficult part of my work. If mistakes occur, do not place them all upon me.—J. H. W.

7) Christian Beery, son of Abraham Beery (See History of 1905), was born in Adams county, Pa., June 26, 1777, died in Fairfield county, Ohio, Oct. 15, 1836, and Catharine Frank, born in Rockingham county, Va., in 1775, died as above Dec. 30, 1838, were married (no date). Both are buried in the Spanogle cemetery on Rush Creek at the old home near Swartz's mill in Fairfield county. Mr. Beery was a twin brother to his only sister, Magdalana Beery, who married Jacob Burner, of Woodstock, Shenandoah Co., Va. (See No. 6, page 16, Abraham Beery History, of 1905, compiled by the undersigned author, who has them on sale at the reduced price of $1.10 per copy, postpaid.) Mr. Beery and family, in 1805, moved from Rockingham county, Va., at the time the Beerys from Virginia flooded that part of Ohio. They were Mennonites.

These children may not be in order of their births, as the dates of some are not available at this writing, but may be interlined later.

1) John Beery, born near Edom, Rockingham Co., Va., Nov. 24, 1801, died in Hocking county, Ohio, April 5, 1870 (another reports 1874), and Magdalana Weidman, born March 18, 1815, died Aug. 27, 1890, were married in 1831. Both buried in the Spanogle cemetery on his father's farm in *Hocking county, Ohio. In 1805 Mr. Beery, at the age of 4 years, came with his parents from Rockingham county, Va., to Bremen, Ohio, near which place he spent the remainder of his life. In 1839, when his father's estate was settled up, as shown by the will, John purchased of the heirs the old homestead, which later became the property of his daughter Elisabeth, who married Jacob Kirn. Mr. Beery was known as "Thick John" or "Fat John," as he was quite fleshy, as was so common among the Beerys at that date. (See his uncle, Abraham Beery, No. 2, in the Abraham Beery History of 1905 for large Beerys; also the Keller family, No. 887, who were Beery descendants.) Mr. and Mrs. Beery were Lutherans.
