HOULT RECORD.

Elisha Hoult was the son of John and Elizabeth Shircliffe Hoult. John Hoult, his father, was born March 15, 1742. He died in West Virginia, May 28, 1826. Elizabeth Shircliffe Hoult, his mother, was born in Scotland, December 12, 1748. At an early age she was sent to a Catholic school in Wales to be educated. She died November 4, 1831, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Jolliffe, in Brown County, Ohio, and was buried some where near Browntown, Ohio. Elisha Hoult had seven brothers and two sisters. Their names are as follows:

Eleanor.

Ralph.

Joseph.

Mary.

John S.

Elijah } Elijah and Elisha were twins. Elisha died in infancy and the subject of this biog-

Elisha } raphy was a younger son named Elisha.

Enoch.

Eli S.

His father and mother and all of his brothers and sisters all preceded him to the grave, save one. His brother, John, survived him about six years. His sister, Eleanor, married John Jolliffe and after her marriage she moved to Brown County, Ohio. His sister, Mary, married Morgan Morgan. Elisha Hoult was born in Monongahela County, (what is now Marion County) West Virginia, July 30, 1785, and died in Edgar County, Illinois, September 3, 1851. Dorothy Prickett, his wife, was the daughter of Jacob and Jamima Kendall Prickett. She was born January 26, 1787, in what is now Marion County, West Virginia. She had six brothers and five sisters. Their names are as follows:

Ann.
Richard.
Thomas.
Mary.
Abraham.
Sarah.
Elizabeth.
Jacob.
James.
Josiah.
Jamima.

Her sister, Ann, married Peter Dragoo. Mary married James Jolliffe. Sarah married Turner Compton. Elizabeth married William Wyatt. Jamima married Isaac Hill. Elisha Hoult and Dorothy Prickett were married in West Virginia, August 6, 1809, and they remained in West Virginia until 1832 when they removed to Edgar County, Illinois, and settled upon the farm that we are upon today. They first lived in a log house located very near where A. K. Hartley's farm residence now stands. Later they built a frame house between the log house and the road and in October, 1866, the buildings on that side of the road all burned to the ground. The barns were on the east side of the road and were later moved away. They remained on this farm until grandfather's death which occurred September 3, 1851, and after his death grandmother and her daughter, Eleanor, kept house for a few years, and she spent one year, a few years before his death, with her oldest daughter, Jamima, in Iowa, but from that time on she spent most of her time around with her children until her death which occurred November 25, 1862, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Hartley.

To them twelve children were born, six sons and six daughters, all of whom, with two exception, lived to a rather advanced age. One daughter died at the age of six years and one son died in infancy. All of the children except Eleanor was born in West Virginia. Of the twelve children born to them but two now remain living, Mr. Eugenio Hoult of Cherry Point, Illinois, and Mrs. Eleanor Short of Fiketon, Tennessee. The names with date of birth and death of their children are as follows:

Jamima, born January 24, 1810; died in Iowa March 26, 1870.

Elizabeth, born September 9, 1811; died in Illinois August 13, 1893.

Shircliffe, born February 12, 1813; died in West Virginia February 12, 1813.

William, born October 27, 1814; died in Illinois December 24, 1893.

Polly, born September 15, 1816; died in West Virginia June 18, 1822.

Mathew, born September 26, 1818; died in Illinois May 26, 1893.

Enoch, born April 18, 1820; died in Oregon March 18, 1889.

Dorothy, born March 12, 1822; died in Illinois July 26, 1875.

Lena, born December 26, 1823; died in Illinois March 3, 1861.

Eugenio, born May 12, 1825.

James, born May 12, 1830; died in Illinois September 22, 1859.

Eleanor, born June 1, 1833.

At the time they came from West Virginia to Illinois the mode of traveling was slow and difficult to what we have at the present time. They did not have railroads and interurban roads all over the country. They came down the Ohio river in a flat boat to the mouth of the Wabash river. There they took a steamboat and came up the Wabash river to Clinton, Ind., and from there came overland in farm wagons. The number of their descendants are as follows: Twelve children, sixty-five grandchildren, one hundred and sixty-one great-grandchildren, and sixty-six great-great-grandchildren, making a total of three hundred and four, and of that number now living there are two children, thirty-eight grandchildren, one hundred and five great-grand children, and fifty-eight great-great grand children, making a total of two hundred and three. We have with us today representatives from but three generations as follows: Twenty-one grand children, fifty-nine great-grand children, and fifteen great-great-grand children, making a total of ninety-five.

We heard from Mrs. Eleanor Short, Mr. Thomas Wynn, Mrs. Mary Southers, Mrs. Florence Henry, Mr. J. O. Hartley, Mrs. R. F. Scott and Mr. W. P. McKee, saying that they could not be with us but they all sent kind regards and asked to be remembered to all who might be here. Aunt Eleanor Short was the oldest relative heard from and she said she could not be with us today but she hoped that she might meet all of us in the great reunion in heaven.

This is a copy of a biographical sketch of Elisha and Dorothy Hoult and their descendants, written and read by Artie Hartley, at the organization of the Hoult Reunion Association, held on the old Hoult farm south of Chrisman, Illinois, September 14, 1905. Since the above article was written and read there has been five deaths of the descendants of Elisha and Dorothy Hoult. Namely: Frances Bonner, Eugenio Hoult, Claude G. Mitchell, Mary E. S. Mulrien and Eleanor Short. And there has been seven births, all great-great-grand children of Elisha and Dorothy Hoult.
