

George E. Hendee—Appointed Paymaster's Clerk, October 10, 1861; served as such on the U. S. S. "Brandywine," and U. S. S. "Pinola," until February, 1864. Appointed Acting Assistant Paymaster, March 25, 1864; served on U. S. S. "Don," flagship of the Potomac Flotilla, until January, 1866. Appointed Passed Assistant Paymaster in the regular service, July 23, 1866; on U. S. S. "Ossipee," from October, 1866, to August, 1869. Appointed Paymaster, February 27, 1869; served on U. S. S. "Independence," from January, 1870, to October, 1871; on U. S. steamer "Pensacola," from October, 1871, to February, 1872; on U. S. S. "Richmond," October, 1872, to December, 1873; on U. S. S. "Saranac," from December, 1873, to May, 1875; on duty in Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, November and December, 1875; at Navy Pay Office, Norfolk, Va., from January, 1876, to October, 1876; on U. S. S. "Independence," from August, 1877, to May, 1878; at Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., from May, 1878, to August, 1880; on U. S. S. "Minnesota," from February, 1881, to February, 1884; on U. S. S. "Powhatan," from August, 1884, to May, 1886; on U. S. S. "Franklin," from July, 1866, to January, 1888; ordered on duty as General Storekeeper at the Navy Yard, League Island, Philadelphia, February 1, 1888, to December 2, 1891; waiting orders, December 2, 1891, to September 30, 1892; "Philadelphia," N. A. Station, September 30, 1892-5. Promoted to Pay Inspector, January, 1895; General Storekeeper, Navy Yard, Portsmouth, March, 1895; General Storekeeper, Navy Yard, Boston, March, 1896, to date. Promoted to Pay Director, September 1, 1899.

HAMERSLY, L.R.

The records of living officers of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps. 7th ed. 1902.

Hendee, George Ellsworth, naval officer, was born June 30, 1841, in Roxbury, Mass. In 1861 he entered the United States navy as postmaster's clerk; in 1864 was appointed acting assistant postmaster; and in 1866 was appointed past assistant postmaster in regular service. In 1869 he was appointed postmaster; served on various United States steamships; and in 1888-91 was on duty as general storekeeper at the navy yard on League Island Philadelphia, Pa. In 1894 he was promoted to pay inspector; was general storekeeper at the navy yard at Portsmouth; and in 1898 became general storekeeper at the navy yard, Boston, Mass. In 1899 he was promoted to pay director; and in 1902 was retired with the rank of rear admiral. During his service he was on the steamship Brandywine, Pinola, Ossipee, Richmond, Saranac, Independence and Philadelphia.

HERRINGSHAW, T.W. Herringshaw's national library of American biography. 5v. 1909-14.

HENDEE (George Ellsworth) 1841-1916

PAYMASTER GEORGE E. HENDEE.

BORN in Massachusetts. Appointed from Massachusetts, March 25th, 1864; entered the service as Acting Assistant Paymaster; attached to steamer Don, North Atlantic Blockading Squadron, 1864-5; appointed Passed Assistant Paymaster, U. S. Navy, July 23, 1866; steam-sloop Ossipee, North Pacific Squadron, 1866-9; commissioned as Paymaster, 1869.

---

HAMERSLY, L.R.

The records of living officers of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps.
1870.