

1743; his wife d. 23 Sep., 1762. By his first wife, Sarah Smith, he had one son, Jonathan, who is the ancestor of the Pittsford, Vt., Hendees.

Children of RICHARD and ELIZABETH (CONANT) HENDEE:—

- i. Hannah, b. 25 Dec., 1697; m. ——— Hurd, of Stratford.
- ii. Sarah, b. 16 Apr., 1700; m. ——— Casey, of Mansfield.
- iii. Caleb, b. 12 Mch., 1704 (d. young?).
- iv. Josiah, b. 25 Apr., 1707; lived in Ashford; left a large family. One of his descendants (Caleb) was one of Gen. Washington's Life Guards. Many of his descendants still live at Ashford.
- v. Elizabeth, b. 28 Apr., 1710; m. ——— Brown, of Windham.
- vi. Barzillai, b. 18 June, 1713; lived and died at Woodbury, Conn. Left a large family who, it is supposed, removed to western New York.
- vii. Asa, b. 25 Aug., 1715; settled in Coventry, Conn., where he died leaving children:
  1. Asa, removed to Utica, N. Y., where he died leaving Asa, Cyrus, Cloa, Zoa, Lota and Esther.
  2. Eliphalet, m. Mary Loomis, of Bolton; settled in Coventry where he d. 1827, leaving (a) Abner, now of Hebron, Conn.; (b) Mary, now of Andover, Conn.; (c) Eliphalet, of Andover, Conn., m. Amelia Babcock, of Columbia; is the father of Lucius J. Hendee, President of the Ætna Fire Insurance Company of Hartford; (d) Leonard, of Andover.
  3. Lydia.
  4. Mary.
  5. Esther.
- viii. Nathaniel, b. 10 Aug., 1718.
- ix. Mary, b. 6 July, 1720; m. ——— Dudley, of Woodbury, Conn.

22. Josiah<sup>3</sup> (Exercise, Roger), bapt. 4 July, 1680, at Beverly; removed to Connecticut with his father; lived in Windham, afterwards Mansfield. He was admitted an inhabitant of Windham, 12 Dec., 1701; bought land in Memeaguague, a tract south-east of Windham, but afterwards included in it, 27 Jan., 1702. In 1710 he purchased 96 acres of land of his brother, Caleb, in Windham.

In 1720 he united with the church of Mansfield, and in 1730 was chosen deacon.

In 1722 he was one of a committee appointed by the legislature "to view the proper lines for Voluntown." The committee met Sep. 17, 1722, at the house of John Amos, in Preston.